

THE PRAYER CORNER

A DAY IN JUNE

Here are some joyous lines from James Russell Lowell, one of our noblest poets

"What is so rare as a Day in June? Then, if ever, comes Perfect Days The Heaven tries the Earth, if it be in Tune
And over it softly her warm ear lays; Whether we look or whether we listen,
Every clod feels a stir of might, An instinct within it, that reaches and towers
And groping blindly above it for light Climbs to a soul in grass and flowers. The flush of life may well be seen, Thrilling back over hills and valleys. The cowslip startles in meadows green,
The buttercup catches the sun in its chalice,
And there's never a leaf nor a blade too mean
To be some happy creature's palace. The little bird sits at its door in the sun,
And lest his illuminated body o'er run
With the deluge of summer it receives;
His mate feels the eggs beneath her wings,
And the heart in her dumb breast flutters and sings,
He sings to the wide world, and she to her nest,
In the nice ear of Nature which song is the best?"

"And what a Happy Month June is! A season of simple living with the kindly sun and the blue sky, days of keen delight in little things, of joyous questioning after Beauty, days for the making of friends by being a true friend to others, days when we may enlarge our little lives by excursions to strange places, by friendly association, by the companionship of Great Thoughts.
"Days that may teach us to live nobly, work joyously, play harder, to do all our labor better. So should EACH JUNE bring us indeed a GOLDEN SUMMER."

Beauty of the Hills

(By D. H. ORR)

It has been said that God is a lover of beauty or He would not have made the world so beautiful when there was no one to look upon it but Himself. The mountains, the cliffs, the plants, the streams, the sunset, the flowers are all masterpieces of God's own creative hand. And then to crown it all He created human beings in his own image.
The person who does not appreciate beauty has but little of God.
The more of God we have in us the more we are able to see the beautiful things that surround us—not only the beauties of nature but the beautiful things in the lives of other people. The more of God we have the more beauty others can see in us—in our souls and in our lives.
We can all have beauty! However homely our faces, we can have a beautiful soul that will shine out and lighten the pathway of others.
The beautiful face will soon fade, but the beautiful soul will grow more beautiful with the passing years and the beautiful life will live long after we are gone.
Beauty! Look for it. It is all around us and God is the Author of it all.

A PRAYER

O God, in whom we live, and move, and have our being, teach us the True Secret of Right Living, to radiate helpful influence, to be of those who are always radiating success, through health, through joy, through uplifting helpfulness, to scatter sunshine wherever we go.

Enable us to see that these are the helpers of the world, the lighteners of burdens, the people who ease the jolts of life, soothe the wounded and give solace to the discouraged.

Help us to learn to radiate joy, not stingily nor meanly, but generously, to fling out our gladness without reserve, shedding it in the home, on the street, on the car, in the store, everywhere, as the Rose sheds Beauty and flings out its fragrance.

Let us never forget that when the world learns that love thoughts heal, that thoughts of harmony, of beauty, of truth, always uplift, beautify and ennoble, that the opposite carry death, destruction and blight everywhere, it will learn the True Secret of Right Living, the joyous Secret of Happiness.

God Grant that the world may learn these glad and joyous blessings through us, and unto Thee, Father, Son and Spirit, shall be all the praise and glory, both now and ever. Amen.

FROM AN OREGON FRIEND

Editor The Brevard News:

I often think of North Carolina and old friends, and also the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains. My thoughts often wander back to my boyhood days. As it is hard for me to write and express my gratitude in a letter to my friends, I would like to send it through your paper.

The people in the Northwest are getting along very well—things are somewhat dull just now to what I have seen in the past, although there is lots of work such as lumbering, farming and fishing, here on the Columbia River. We are having an ideal spring—just enough rain now to make the grass and gardens grow. The climate here is wonderful.

I send my best regards to all my friends and relatives in Transylvania, also to the preachers that I met while I was there. I am preaching and working for the Lord all the time that I can spare from my labors. So I would like to see a letter or even a few words in the paper from anyone in good old N. C.

Mr. Editor, My subscription is nearly up. But please continue sending it right on, I don't want to miss a single issue. Will send you some money soon.

Wishing you good luck and prosperity and expressing thanks, I am yours very truly,
REV. S. R. ROBINSON.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst on Friday morning, May 29th, 1931, our beloved sister, Frances McFaul Plummer; and

Whereas, Sister Plummer was one of our charter members, true to her obligation and faithful to her friends,
We, the Pisgah chapter No. 198, order of the Eastern Star, desire to

OLEO MUST NOW GO UNDER TRUE COLORS

Raleigh, June 24—Oleomargarine colored to resemble butter, cannot now be sold legally in North Carolina, and in hotels, dining rooms or cafes where oleomargarine is sold must appear in gothic letters an inch long the sign "Oleomargarine served here." The new law became effective June 1 and is administered by the Department of Agriculture, which is directed to prescribe the necessary rules and regulations for its enforcement.

Manufacturers of oleomargarine must pay an annual tax of $1,000 and the wholesaler or distributor must pay $100 annually, the Commissioner of Agriculture issuing licenses to eating places on satisfactory applications for licenses. Commissioner Graham has ruled that the tax for this year will be seven-twelfths of the annual rate, the license running for seven months, from June 1 to December 31. Violators of any provisions of the law are subject to a fine of from $100 to $500 or imprisonment of not more than three months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

We, the members of the Men's Bible class of the Brevard Methodist Sunday school, feeling a keen desire to express our heart-felt appreciation for having come so intimately in touch with the exemplary life of Prof. L. B. Haynes, offer the following resolutions:

First, That in the passing of Prof. Haynes, this class has lost one of its most loyal, helpful and consecrated members, one who was ever ready and willing to help those in need.

Second, That we deeply feel the loss of him whose genial smiles, fatherly advice and fervent prayers were ever a source of inspiration and that we shall ever hold in sacred memory the pleasure of laboring with him for the advancement of the Master's kingdom.

Third, That we beseech the Heavenly Father to give us other members from this Sunday school class who will carry forward and cultivate the many valuable influences set in motion by Brother Haynes.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and a copy to The Brevard News.

express our tribute of love and respect in the following resolutions:

First, That in the death of Sister Plummer our chapter has lost a most worthy member, our community a good citizen, and all of us who knew and loved her best, a true friend and co-worker in our beautiful order.

Second, That we strive to emulate those Christian graces so manifest in her life.

Third, That we extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and pray that God will watch over and guide them day by day and bring them at last to the land of everlasting life.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our chapter, a copy sent to the bereaved family, and a copy sent to The Brevard News for publication.
