HAPPY SCHOOL DAYS

Up and down the crowded street
We see the children pass today,
Going forth their tasks to greet,
At the school house o'er the way,
We hear the school bells chime once more

Sending out their old refrain,
Just as they did in days of yore:
"Study time is here again!"

Some little chap comes down the street,
Holding sister by the hand;
He's going forth new scenes to greet;
And to explore another land,
And who can tell but 'mong that throng,

A President goes marching on?
Or one who'll thrill the world of song,
Ere they from this earth have gone?

Who knows but that from 'mong that band
A minister of God will come;
Who'll preach in some dark, foreign land.

Or tell the story here at home?
Then let us cheer those children on,
And help them be of greater worth,
So folks will miss them when they're gone.

From off this mortal earth,

IN MEMORY OF D. W. HOLLINGSWORTH

Early Sunday morning, August 30th, the death angel visited the Pisgah Forest community and took away one of the most highly respected citizens in the person of D. W. Hollingsworth. "Uncle Dave" was born Feb. 28, 1864, near Turkey Creek, and died August 30, 1931, at his home in Pisgah Forest.

He was the son of Alec and Mary Hollingsworth, and was united in marriage to Rebecca McKinna forty years ago.

Uncle Dave, who had been suffering with paralysis for some time, was improved at times, but suddenly took worse Monday night, August 24th, and very peacefully passed away on the following Sunday. He was loved and respected by all who knew him, which was shown by the large floral offering. He had been a member of the church for fifty years and remained faithful until death, and he attended services whenever his health permitted. There is left in the home of Mr. Hollingsworth a vacant place which can never be filled. His loss to his home is irreparable, but if we trust Him in whose unfailing hands rests the whole universe, we know that not far in the distance there will be a reunion of loved ones where death and tears never come.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Ella and Lola and son, Kie, of Pisgah Forest, Walter, of Waynesville, and Harter, of Stanley. Three children preceded their father to the grave, one brother, Will Hollingsworth, and one sister survive.

Monday he was carried to his last resting place at Boylston by devoted friends, and interment was made in the Boylston cemetery amid a large throng of sorrowing friends and relatives. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Holtzclaw. Pallbearers were: W. A. Lyday, D. H. Orr, Arthur Sentell, Henry Sentell, Jule Orr and W. L. Stophel. Flower girls were: Ada Morgan, Gertrude Allen, Jessie Mackey, Lucile Burns, Belle Corn and Beatrice Marshall. Brevard Undertaking company had charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all friends and acquaintances who were so kind to us during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father; also for the beautiful floral offerings. The sympathy of every one is deeply appreciated, and is greatly comforting and helpful to his family.

Mrs. D. W. Hollingsworth and Family.

THE PRAYER CORNER

"The Whole Family in Heaven and on Earth"
2 Tim. 4:6-8. (Be sure and read it)

The Fellowship of Faith is not bounded by earth. Paul's expectation took into its account a communion that far overreached the confines of temporal experience. The New Testament believers not only held, but vividly apprehended that the whole family to which they belonged in Christian Communion was "in Heaven and on earth." Wordsworth has expressed in modern words:

"There is
One great society alone on earth,
The noble living and the noble dead."

To that Society of the worlds prophets and martyrs, seers and servants, it may well be a man's ambition to belong, and that ideal is not impossible to anyone, for the mark and seal of their fellowship is that they have "kept the faith" when others despaired, lost heart and deserted causes on which man's welfare hung, they kept the faith when mysteries perplexed their minds, and discouragement to human vision was more rational than hope; they turned from sight to insight, and they kept the faith when new knowledge, half understood, disturbed old forms of thought, and multitudes were confused in the uncertainty and disbelief, they "kept the faith." And they often came to their end like Paul, having suffered the loss of all things, yet not all, for they had "kept the faith."

"For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus be forever blest
Alleluia!

O may Thy soldiers, faithful true and bold
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victors crown of gold
Alleluia!

O Blest Communion, Fellowship Divine
We feebly struggle; they in glory shine
Yet all are One in Thee, for all are Thine,
Alleluia!"

A PRAYER
O God Thou Only Refuge of Thy children, who remain true, though all else should fail, and livest, though all things die, cover us now when we fly to Thee. Thy Shelter was around our fathers, Thy Voice called them away and bids us seek Thee here till we depart to be with them. In Thy Memory are the lives of all men from of old. Before Thy Sight are the secret hearts of all the living. We stand in awe of Thy Justice, which since the ages began, hath never changed, and we cling to Thy Mercy that passeth not away.

Almighty Father, Thou art a God afar off as well as nigh at hand, Thou, who, in times past didst pity the prayers of our forerunners, and especially of that Suffering Servant of Thine whom Thou hast made our Leader unto Thee; be pleased to strengthen us now, O Lord, to bear our lighter cross, and surrender ourselves for duty or for trial unto Thee. Show us something of the Blessed Peace with which they now look back on their days of strong crying and tears and teach us that it is far better to die in Thy service, than to live for our own. Rebuke within us all immoderate desires, all unquiet temper, all presumptuous expectations, all ignoble self-indulgence, and feeling on us the embrace of Thy Fatherly Hand. May we meekly and with courage go into the darkest ways of our pilgrimage, anxious not to change Thy Perfect Will, but only to do and bear it worthily. May we spend all our days in Thy Presence, and meet our death in the strength of Thy Grace, and pass hence unto the nearer light of Thy Knowledge and Love, for Jesus sake, Amen.

—C. D. C.
