

COMMUNITY WORK MAKING PROGRESS

Soliciting Group is the First To Begin Actual Work for Relief

The Red Cross Drive has been complete, Rev. Harry Perry expects reports from county chairmen to be in Wednesday. Definite plans for the work of the Soliciting Committees of the County Welfare Board have been perfected, Julian Glazener, Chairman of the group, announced Tuesday.

At a meeting Monday afternoon, the chairmen which had been appointed by Mr. Glazener to lead the work in their sections, discussed the plans to be forwarded immediately.

The Chairmen in various districts will appoint their own committees in the near future. The chairmen are: Little River, Martin Shipman; Boyd, Edwin Ponder; Brevard Township, Mrs. A. H. Harris; Cathey's Creek, Mrs. H. N. Blake; Dunns Rock, Mrs. L. P. Wilson; Brevard, Jerry Jerome. These committee heads, aided by their committees, will canvass the county for corn, potatoes, molasses, clothing and any form of food or clothing which may be used to an advantage by the needy during the winter months.

Prof. J. F. Corbin and Prof. G. C. Bush, of the Rosman High School, have been selected to supervise the work in the upper section of the county.

The soliciting group is the first of the various departments of the County Welfare Board to begin work, since they have all the work of locating the needy persons and soliciting the necessities for them. Cards have been issued to the leaders in each district to be filled in by contributors to the work. The Card includes a blank for name, address, residence, contributions, when contribution is made, the work they may need done, which can be done by unemployed, other information and name of solicitor.

Officials in the County Welfare Board are confident that the Soliciting game will begin and carry out the drive in a manner which will be helpful to the needy and unemployed of the county.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR JUNIOR ORDER

Lexington, Nov. 24—Brown Paving Company, of this city, was given the contract for the laying of nearly four miles of eight-inch pipe from the corporate limits of the city to the Junior Order Orphans Home, the cost of the construction to be borne by the Home. The approximately cost of the completed line, including hydrants and valves, will be $20,000. The construction was let by a committee composed of National Councilor Charles E. Brewer, of Raleigh, and Gurney P. Hood, of Goldsboro, and John J. Weitzel, of Cincinnati, trustees of the home.

According to the agreement reached some time ago between Home officials and city commissioners, the Home is to pay for the line from the city limits to the institution. The city will connect two six-inch supply pipes to this eight-inch pipe. One will be from a dead end on the Cotton Grove road; the other pipe will be laid across the eastern limit of the city from Fairview Drive, where a dead end is now located, to connect with the Home line.

OFFER CASH PRIZES FOR NAME OF MILK

Announcement is made in this issue of The Brevard News by Sunnyside Dairy, operated by Paul and Walter Glazener, that in order to find the best suited name to the chocolate milk that they are successfully placing on the Brevard market, that they will give a prize of $5.00 in cash to the person submitting the best name for this popular drink, the contest to close on December 10.

Second prize will be $2.50 in cash, the next ten best names submitted each winning ten one-half pints of the chocolate milk. Judges for the contest will be announced at a later date. Any person living in Transylvania county is eligible to enter the contest, the Glazener boys announce.

He—I heard a good joke about a stained glass the other day.

Another He—What was it?
He—Oh, what's the use. You couldn't see through it.

Dogs Used In Forest Fire Cases

These two bloodhounds have been enlisted by the department of conservation and development to run down persons in Western North Carolina suspected of setting forest fires. They have been used in the Big Ivy section during the past two days and will be used again when needed to trail suspects. W. K. Beichler, district forester, is at the extreme left. In the center is C. A. Tinsley, of Brevard, owner of the dogs. On the right is Fred Slagle, assistant district forester. (Cut courtesy Citizen) preachers as to we farmers. Mr. Glazener and I are soon to select a working committee composed of ten farmers, ten farm women, ten each from other occupations to help us push the program. If you realize how much this might mean to our section surely you will offer your services to help. These two men from Minnesota are to open the program in Asheville, Dec. 14, by telling how it has worked in other places. I believe business people should offer their cars and go themselves and carry a car load of farmers to this meeting to see if there is a way for all to pull together and make this a better place in which to live. Brevard people are offering their cars for this occasion and I am going to ask that Rosman be as generous and far-seeing as any people.

Host—Those are my grandmother's ashes over there in the corner.

Guest—Then the poor soul has passed on?

Host—Heavens, no. She's just too late to hunt for an ash tray.

TO CLOSE 50-CENT PROPOSITION SOON

We are truly grateful to all the hundreds of people who have responded to this offer, and placed their names on our list, which gives to the county a widely circulated, paid-in-advance newspaper that should be most appealing to the merchant who really wants to sell his merchandise. And speaking of merchants, the man who fails or refuses to talk to the people about his merchandise, and tell them what he has to offer them, cannot expect very much patronage from the people. At least, this is the testimony of successful business men.

But aside from that, if you haven't taken advantage of this special FIFTY CENT offer, please do so NOW, as it must be brought to a close at an early date.

Jones—There's something about that woman that makes me shudder every time I give her a thought.

Smith—And what's that?
Jones—That big fellow—her husband!—Foreign Service, V. F. W.

KIWANIS DIRECTORS MEET WITH RAMSEY

Mayor and Mrs. Ralph H. Ramsey entertained directors of the Brevard Kiwanis club at their home Monday evening. Members of the official board, after enjoying a delicious repast, transacted routine business of the club.

Several new members were proposed for membership in the club, these being elected. Discussion of entering the efficiency contest held at the end of each calendar year by Kiwanis International brought to light the fact that the club has been very active during the past twelve months, and from a standpoint of accomplishment stand an excellent chance to be listed near the top rungs of the ladder in the international contest.

The secretary was instructed to correct the erroneous report that a Middle Western club had the youngest president in the United States. By comparing notes, it was found that the Rev. R. L. Alexander, president of the Brevard club was younger by three months than the announced candidate for this place.

PUREBRED CATTLE BROUGHT TO COUNTY

Harry P. Clarke has purchased a full bred shorthorn bull, and three heifers of same breed, to add to his already splendid stocked farm in this county. The bull's granddam held a record as a milker, giving in ten months time over 16,000 pounds of milk and 685 pounds of butter fat. The heifers came from cows whose records reached the 12,000 pounds of milk annually. The grandsires of the heifers weighed around 3000 pounds.

Mr. Clarke searched over New York state and Eastern Pennsylvania in finding just what he wanted for his farm. He purchased the bull in Monroe, New York, and the heifers in Muncie, Pennsylvania. The animals reached Brevard Tuesday, and were taken immediately to the Clarke farm.

Transylvania county is gradually coming to the front in pure bred cattle through the efforts of leaders like Mr. Clarke, who will have nothing but registered stock in their herds.

MR. AND MRS. POOLE HAVE WHITEWAY CLUB

Announcement is made that Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Poole have taken over the Whiteway Dry Cleaners and are now in charge of operating this popular pressing club.

The Whiteway has up-to-date equipment in every way and is under the personal management of Mrs. Poole who will be at the place at all times.

Attractive prices are being offered in an advertisement in this issue of The Brevard News by the Whiteway. Mr. and Mrs. Poole are very popular in Brevard where they have resided for a number of years. Mr. Poole is connected with the Southern Railway company.

NEWS RECEIVED HERE OF YOUNG BALZER'S DEATH

News was received here Monday of the tragic death of Russell Balzer, Jr., 21, nephew of Mrs. S. F. Allison, Sunday November 22. No details could be learned though, the news indicated that young Balzer met death by accident.

"What branch of the service was your husband in?" asked one wife at the vet's reunion.

"I'm of sure but I think it must have been the artillery," came the reply. "In his sleep I often hear him shout, 'Aha! Another hit! Let's shoot the works this time!'"
