field to Kentucky where the latter could be with his stricken father. Vice President Gaines acted in Mr. Jerome's place as head of the local body.

Governor Blackwood, of South Carolina, and Governor Gardner, of North Carolina, will be invited to attend the meeting as guests of honor, as will the highway commissions of the two states. It is known that several members of congress from the Carolinas will attend the gathering, and editors of papers in the two states will also be in attendance.

Completion of the highway between Brevard and Greenville marks a new day in the commercial and social lives of the two communities, it is stressed by those who have been deeply interested in the work. The new highway brings the two centers within an hour's travel, and because of the supreme attractions along the highway, it is believed that it will become one of the most generally traveled roads in the Carolinas. A fine feeling of friendliness has existed between Greenville and Transylvania counties for the past one hundred years, dating back to that time before this county was organized. Outstanding men in the past have come from Greenville to live in this section, at

CAPACITY CROWD AT SUNDAY'S SINGING

Hundreds Enjoy Singing, But Are Slow In Paying On Piano

People from all sections of Transylvania county, Henderson, Buncombe and from various parts of South Carolina, packed the Brevard court house Sunday to enjoy the Fifth Sunday Singing convention.

Several quartets, classes and choirs were heard during the day, with the entire choir led by various leaders rendering music such as is only heard in the singing meets held here.

During the afternoon session the matter of an outstanding debt against the piano owned by the convention was brought up by Arvil Simpson and other leaders of the convention. It was pointed out that a bill of over fifty dollars was now past due on the instrument and that unless the matter was taken care of in short order that the company holding papers against the convention's fine piano would reclaim it.

A collection taken at the convention netted around twenty dollars, leaving an approximate balance due of thirty-five dollars.

Any person interested in the welfare of the Fifth Sunday Singing organization are requested to make contribution to this piano fund. Arvil Simpson, at Simpson Barber shop in Brevard, or W. R. Lewis, at Lewis Cash Store, Rosman, were designated to receive donations for this fund.

It was pointed out by leaders at the singing meet that the piano was an absolute necessity to the continuation of the organization, and that with a little help from all persons interested, and who enjoy the music at these meetings on each Fifth Sunday the debt could be wiped out. Leaders expressed the hope that the deficit would be taken care of before the next convention in the early part of 1932.

least for a part of each year, and these associations have formed ties that brought the interests of the two sections into close relationship. Now that the time has been cut to an easy hour's travel, indeed, only an imaginary line, while in reality there will be no dividing line between the two communities.

Completion of the highway linking the two communities has been a dream of long standing in the mind and heart of Col. B. H. Peace, owner of The Greenville News and The Greenville Piedmont. For the past three years the Greenville publisher has held many conferences with James F. Barrett, editor of The Brevard News, concerning first the improvement of the highways, and this event to be celebrated by a joint meeting at Caesar's Head, when the citizens of the two sections could come together, rejoice over the accomplishment and plan for the future of the two sections.

At the meeting last Monday, Mr. Chapman acted for Col. Peace, who had been called to New York. The Brevard delegation was deeply impressed with the manifestations of real friendship for Brevard on the parts of the Greenville men. The completion of the highways and the consequent advantages to be derived were declared by the Brevard delegation to constitute the greatest forward movement in Brevard's history.

INDUSTRIAL CASES HEARD IN BREVARD

Members of Commission Face Large Dockets in This Section

Industrial Commissioners J. Dewey Dorsett and T. A. Wilson, with calendars arranged for 72 workmen's compensation hearings, heard the Brevard cases Tuesday morning in the county court house, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

The Brevard calendar included: Jimmie Holden vs. Rockbrook Estate and Camp; Herbert Hall vs. Gloucester Lumber Co.; J. N. McCall vs. Gloucester Lumber Co. and Marshall Kilpatrick. The industrial commissioners ruled for Jimmie Holden to be given additional compensation, and asked additional time to consider the case of Herbert Hall vs. the Gloucester Lumber Co. The J. N. McCall case against Gloucester Lumber Co. and Marshall Kilpatrick was withdrawn.

Commissioner Wilson held the Brevard cases and his schedule called for hearings in Franklin, Hayesville, Murphy and Robbinsville.

Commissioner Dorsett's calendar called for hearings at Wilson, Rocky Mount, Jackson and Halifax, Winston, Hartford, Edenton, Plymouth, Swan Quarter, Greenville, New Bern and Goldsboro.

WATERSHED STILL CAUSES CONCERN

Dangers of Such Operation Causes Intense Interest In Arrests

With the arrest of three men charged with operating a wild cat still on the lands of the watershed, and trial soon to be given the men, many citizens have been heard to express appreciation of the effective work done by the officers. An ordinary violation of the prohibition law seldom creates any great interest, but in this instance, it is said by those who have studied the case, there is far more danger than found in such operations of the past.

Some three thousand people drink water every day that comes from the watershed. Brevard has the reputation of having as pure water as can be found anywhere in the world, and contamination of this water through operation of a liquor making joint, or through occupancy of the lands for any other purpose, constitutes a real menace. Judging from expressions heard on the street, the men arrested and charged with the offense will be prosecuted with unusual zeal, and if found guilty, many citizens have expressed the hope that the punishment will be so severe that no one will ever again attempt to convert Brevard's watershed into a liquor-making site.

"The stuff that is made in these wildcat stills is enough to kill the fellow who drinks it," said a leading citizen Tuesday, "but when they go further than that, and endanger the lives of men, women and little children through pollution of the water supply, that is going entirely too far."

The case will be watched with keen interest on the part of the citizens of the town.

ANCIENT ENEMY IS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Locals Made Dashing Attempt In Fourth, Threatening To Go Over

The Brevard Blue Devils were defeated by the Hendersonville Bearcats Wednesday afternoon, November 25, on the Hendersonville gridiron, in their annual Thanksgiving eve tilt by the score of 15-0.

The Bearcats took the lead in the first quarter of the game, when they received the kick off and managed to score a touchdown without losing possession of the ball. Wilkins passed to Drake for extra point.

Early in the first quarter Wilkins, Hendersonville fullback, dropped back and shot a pass for ten yards to Flanagan and the clever quarterback raced the remaining 27 yards for a touchdown. The Cats made their second touchdown in the second period after a steady march through the Blue Devils by passes and end runs. The pass for extra point failed.

Brevard seriously threatened in the fourth quarter. That period opened with Brevard in possession of the ball on their own 31 yard line. Three plays got a first down, however, Brevard was forced to kick. Hendersonville drew a 15 yard penalty and Wilkins punted 40 yards. On the exchange, Erwin, for Brevard, returned 15 yards. Hendersonville intercepted a pass, but officials held there was interference and the pass was allowed, giving Brevard a first down. Erwin got away for 20 yards and three plays placed a first down on Hendersonville's 5 yard line.

Hendersonville intercepted a vital pass and Flanagan ran 102 yards for a touchdown, but he was called back by the referee who ruled that the ball was not in play, as he had called time to clear field of spectators. The Bearcats held and on the first down the ball grounded behind the goal line. The game ended shortly after the ball went over.

This is the third consecutive year that the Bearcats have defeated the Blue Devils on the football grid. In 1927 the score was 6-6 when the teams were very evenly matched.

A 40 yard sprint by English, Brevard halfback and a 20 yard run by Fullback Erwin were the outstanding features of the Brevard attack. The work of Schachner was outstanding, he being the principal ground gainer for the eleven. He punted and placed very well on the defensive. English, Erwin and Morris also played a splendid game in the backfield. The Brevard line released some great work in the game with Meece and Pearce mainstays of the wall.

Brevard gained 2 yards more on running plays than did the Cats. This and other interesting facts are revealed in the following list of statistics for the game.

INSTITUTE ELEVEN TO HENDERSONVILLE

The Brevard Institute Green Flashes will meet the Hendersonville Bearcats on the Hendersonville gridiron, Thursday afternoon at 3:00. Anthony Trantham, Coach of the B. I. team announced Tuesday.

The Brevard Institute eleven has a good record for accomplishment during the season on the gridiron, as does the Hendersonville aggregation. All indications point to an interesting struggle when the two teams meet for a game.

The Green Flashes trampled the Brevard Blue Devils for a 13-0 win and the Hendersonville eleven tore through them for a 15-0 win. On paper, the Flashes and Cats are equally matched.

BIG HOG KILLED AT CEDAR MOUNTAIN

To S. A. Jones, of Cedar Mountain, goes credit for the best hog reported killed so far this fall. Mr. Jones killed an 18-month-old Hampshire that dressed 494 pounds.

Actual expense incurred in fattening the hog, Mr. Jones reports, was less than $15, this including the price paid for the pig. Several residents of the Cedar Mountain section are raising Hampshires and Poland-Chinas his year, an reports indicate that good returns will be made.

vised by specialists in chest diseases, and promote open-air schools and preventoria. Aid is provided for sanatoria lacking sufficient funds where sufficient official health organizations so recommend.

Seventy-five cents of each dollar's worth of Christmas Seals sold remains in Brevard, to be used as the Parent-Teacher Association deems necessary. Heretofore the funds have been used to supply undernourished children with meals and this plan will be carried out extensively this winter.

When you buy a Christmas seal, if only one, you are giving your aid to local needs as well as doing a bit of service to the great Tuberculosis organization which cuts the death rate from Tuberculosis approximately 150,000 lives a year.

"BUY A CHRISTMAS SEAL" should be your thought each time you mail a card, letter or package. For when you buy a Christmas seal, you are fighting Tuberculosis.

SCOUTS TO GATHER UP TOYS AND DOLLS

"Ransack your attic, basement, closet and garage for toys, dolls, games, puzzles and other toys that may be mended for further use by needy children," the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1 are urging.

The Scouts led by Scoutmaster J. A. Miller, will collect the toys Saturday morning and place them in a shop which has been selected for the purpose and mend them as well as possible before Christmas. The town has been divided into four sections for the purpose, and the Scouts visiting the various homes are very desirous of securing a large number of toys.

Christmas Eve, after all the toys have been mended, the Scouts will deliver them to the children of Brevard, who otherwise might not receive any Christmas presents. This work will be done under supervision of the central committee of the County Welfare board.
