

PAUL SCHACHNER IS STAR AT WEAVER

Paul Schachner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schachner of Brevard, is being recognized throughout Western North Carolina as one of the outstanding backfield men in his class, by football fans and sports writers. He is in his first year at Weaver College, and much of that team's creditable playing is attributed to the prowess of the popular young Brevard man.

As quarterback of the Brevard High squad last year, young Schachner displayed generalship that won for him the distinction of the most valuable player on the Brevard team, and was awarded the loving cup offered by Simpson Barber Shop for his outstanding work. Under his leadership Brevard High had one of its best years in the pigskin work.

Coach Poindexter, of Weaver College, has built his team this year around the Brevard star, who is being rated in the "Branch class" as a carrier and all-round player by many people in Western North Carolina.

BREVARD DEFEATS BIG TOWN PLAYERS

Brevard duck pin defeated the Asheville aggregation here on the Recreation Center alleys Wednesday night of last week by the narrow margin of eleven pins, final score being Brevard, 1529—Asheville, 1518.

Gilbert, of Asheville, was high score man of the meet totaling 318, while W. W. Croushorn was high man for Brevard, his score being 312.

Much interest is being shown in duck pins in Brevard as the winter season gets under way and a number of teams in other Western North Carolina teams are finding the excellent bowling alleys of the Recreation Center to their liking.

THE PRAYER CORNER

(From the Files of Long Ago)

"KEEPING CHRISTMAS"
"He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord"—Romans 14:6.

It is a good thing to observe Christmas day. It helps one to feel the supremacy of the common life over the individual life.

But there is a better thing than the observance of Christmas Day, and that is "Keeping Christmas".

Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and the desires of little children, to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old, to stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you, really want, without waiting for your ugly thoughts, and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open—are you willing to do these things, ever for a day?

Then you can keep Christmas. Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death—and that the blessed life, which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago, is the image and brightness of eternal Love?

Then you can keep Christmas. And if you keep it for a day, why not always?

But you can never keep it alone.
A PRAYER FOR KEEPING CHRISTMAS

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou didst so love us, Thy erring children, that Thou didst send us Thy Beloved Son to be the propitiation of our sins, and not for our sins only, but also for the sins of the whole world. Help us to keep the day of His Birth with glad and thankful hearts.

Make us willing to stoop down and consider the needs and the desires of little children; remember the weakness and loneliness of the people who are growing old.

Give us grace to stop asking how much our friends love us, and ask ourselves whether we love them enough; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with us really want, without waiting for them to tell us. Enable us to make a grave for our ugly thoughts if we have any, and make a garden for our kindly thoughts with the gate open—so shall we keep Christmas, even for more than a day.

Make us willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death, and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago, is the image and brightness of Eternal Love. So shall we indeed keep Christmas, not only for a day but always. But, oh, Heavenly Father, write indelibly upon our hearts, that we can never keep it alone. And this we ask in the Name of Thy Blessed Son, our Savior, who loved us and gave himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

MANY VIOLATIONS OF THE GAME LAW

County game warden E. R. Galloway reports that more than fifteen violators of the state game laws have been arrested in Transylvania county since the hunting season opened, and Mr. Galloway states that he and his deputy wardens are on the alert for hunters who persist in enjoying the sport without having first procured licenses.

Since the county has become actively interested in the Conservation and Development program, all fire wardens of the county are also empowered to act in the capacity of game wardens, in that they are recognized authorities, with power to arrest violators of the game law.

One case tried last Friday, was that of three men of the county who were caught hunting without license. While one of the offenders did not carry a gun, he admitted that one of the dogs belonged to him, and this, Mr. Galloway says, caused him to be liable to arrest along with the other two men in the party. Failing to pay the small fine and costs in the case, two of the men were sentenced to jail for thirty days.

Made FRESH

never parched, never toasted

CAMELS are KEPT Fresh!

You probably know that heat is used in the treatment of all cigarette tobaccos.

But you know too that excessive heat can destroy freshness and fragrance.

That's why there could be no truly fresh cigarette except for scientifically developed methods of applying heat.

Reynolds is proud of having discovered and perfected methods for getting the benefits of heat treatments and still avoiding ever parching or toasting.

With every assurance we tell you, Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh—not parched or toasted—and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

If you wish to know why the swing to Camels is nationwide and steadily growing—switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can.
