EIGHTH GRADE BOYS ENJOY BASKETBALL PRACTICE

(Sandy McLeod)
The boys of the eighth grade home room held their first basketball practice last Monday. The absence of the Agriculture boys left only a few to play, but these had a most enjoyable practice. Coach Tilson had charge of the game. The boys are looking forward to their games with the Latin, Science and Agriculture boys.

DEBATE GIVEN IN CHAPEL

(Mildred Hayes)
One of the most interesting chapel programs that we have had this year was the one of Tuesday, December 8. It was an interesting debate, the query reading: "Resolved: That the Negroes Should Have Franchise." The affirmative side was represented by Essie Norton, while Mildred Norton upheld the negative. Thelma Johnson acted as chairman of the debate. The judges were Miss Puett, Miss Keels, Miss Biggers, Mr. Wilke and Mr. McLeod, whose report was in favor of the negative side.

A PEEP INTO THE FRENCH CLASSES

(Francis King)
It is impossible for the French class, under the supervision of Miss Puett, to become monotonous, because of the numerous added attractions of French. Through the International Bureau of Correspondence, names of French girls and boys were secured and now letters and Christmas cards are being exchanged between the students of French schools and of Brevard High school.

However, probably the most attractive feature of the classes this year, was the French "movies" which were presented under the direction of Miss Puett. These pictures, "Fleuves and Rivieres," "Alsace," and "Ile de France," proved to be unusually interesting as well as educational.

This week, Christmas songs and expression in French are being learned by the enthusiastic French students.

MR. CARTER'S ORCHESTRA ENTERTAINS

The students of Brevard High school enjoyed a program in Chapel last Thursday different from any others that have been given this year. Mr. Carter and his orchestra proved that music really "soothes" the wrathful heart. The strains of the violins, accompanied by Mr. Moore at the piano, and the pelting of raindrops on the tin roof of the auditorium, was sufficient to erase the gloom of the rainy day.

Among the selections rendered, there were some of Mr. Carter's original compositions. These were enjoyed so thoroughly that the high school students are looking forward to the time when this orchestra will again pay a visit to them.

RIFLE CLUB

A rifle club for the benefit of the Junior girls of the high school was organized Wednesday at 4:00 o'clock, under the supervision of Miss Mary Frances Biggers, advisor of the Junior girls.

The members of the Rifle Club will be coached in the handling of their guns by Prof. R. D. Jenkins, principal of the Davidson River school. Mr. Jenkins is a skilled marksman and he has coached several summer camp rifle teams.

The club will hold rifle meet at certain intervals during the school year and each pupil will be allowed ten shots during the meet. The rifle range where the targets will be located, has not been selected.

YATES NOW PASTOR OAK GROVE CHURCH

The Rev. E. E. Yates, pastor of the Rosman Methodist church and Rosman circuit, filled his first appointment at Oak Grove Methodist Episcopal church Sunday night and preached to a large congregation. The pastor made a good impression upon the people and a profitable year with the people of Oak Grove and North Brevard is predicted for him.

The Rev. Mr. Yates will preach again at the Oak Grove church on Sunday afternoon, January 3, at 3 o'clock.

The Oak Grove Sunday School, with Church Morris as superintendent, has reached the high mark of 103 persons in attendance. The Sunday School services are held at the church every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

All persons living within reach of the Sunday School are urged to be present and participate in the services.

Poor little Japan. Can't even try to find room for her over-flowing population without everybody opposing her. Just to keep from being left out, the United States gave the Japanese a lengthy lecture. Japan didn't like it, and said so.

S. P. U. CHRISTMAS WINDOWS ADMIRER

People who pass down East Main street invariably stop and gaze with approval at the artistically decorated windows of the Southern Public Utilities company, the beautiful windows being the work of Charles Moore.

With the use of much evergreen and multicolored electric lights, plus the unique individual ideas of Mr. Moore, no prettier window has been seen in Brevard in many a day, is the general opinion of many who have commented upon this show window. Inside the store, where gifts electrical are displayed and where the genial J. M. Gaines presides as manager and general good-fellow, the Christmas idea is further accentuated by tinsel, streamers and bells in an arrangement which makes the heart of ladies long for one of the many labor saving devices which go to make the basis for the Southern Public's slogan—"Electricity—the Servant in the Home."

GALLOWAY ELECTED CONSUL OF W. O. W.

At the election of officers held at the regular meeting of Brevard Woodmen Monday night, A. B. Galloway was again chosen to head the local camp as Consul Commander. Guy Dean was elected past consul commander; Glover Jackson, banker; T. L. Snelson, advisor lieutenant; W. T. Allison, escort; Roy Smith, watchman; J. C. McLean, sentry; W. H. Grogan, Jr., financial secretary.

These officers will be installed the First Monday night in January in a public ceremony. W. H. Grogan, Glover Jackson and Roy C. McCall were appointed as a committee to make arrangements for the installation service. After the business session was over Monday night the Camp members were given a banquet at The Canteen.

U. D. C. LIBRARY IS CALLING FOR BOOKS

Miss Sue Hunt, librarian extraordinary at the U. D. C. Library, is making an appeal to patrons of the library to return books that have been taken from the library and which have been forgotten or possibly loaned to friends to read.

Miss Hunt urges all such patrons to return these books at once, and as extra inducement, offers to be very lenient with delinquent borrowers, in that if the books are returned within the next two weeks, no extra rental will be charged.

GIRL SCOUTS ACTIVE FORCES OF TODAY

Business Women Sponsors of Troops in Transylvania County

The Girl Scout organization which is one of the most important institutions for the training of girls for promising careers has been progressing very rapidly in the past few years. The local troops have been developing splendidly under the leadership of Mrs. Hinton McLeod and Miss Willie Aiken. The Penrose troop is led by Miss Jeannette Talley.

These three troops are sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club and the club has advanced a new plan of work for the troops, which is revealed in the following statement from officials of the club:

The Girl Scout Community committee issue their first official bulletin in the month of December this year. There is no record to show that Brevard has ever had a Girl Scout Community Committee prior to this time, although there has been troop committees.

The committee members are Miss Jeannette Talley, chairman; Mrs. M. E. Joines, secretary; Mrs. Chas. L. Newland, Mrs. L. Pushell, Mrs. Carl McCrary, all of whom are members of the Business and Professional Women's Club, which sponsors Girl Scouting.

The committee hopes that parents of girls of Scout age will encourage their daughters to join either Troop I. or II. Brevard, or Troop I. Penrose. December is known as membership month and after this month, girls will not be invited to join. There is no greater honor than the captain and lieutenants of these troops can bestow on the girls of Brevard and Penrose than to extend an invitation to Scout membership. When the membership period is closed all admittance to membership will be made by application and each applicant will be placed on probation for three months before fellowship is bestowed.

In planning for the work the B. & P. W. club realizes that they alone cannot make a worthwhile Girl Scout organization, and, while they have no intention of shirking a responsibility they are asking that parents of Girl Scouts give their hearty cooperation to the Scout leaders and encouragement to the girls, so that an organization surrounding our girls with wholesome influences and having as its aim building well-balanced womanhood, may be perfected. The community committee and the club are pleased with the work as it is being carried out now, although the work is in its infancy. Mrs. McLeod, captain of Troop II, is lauding her lieutenants, Misses McMinn and Jenkins. She says they are doing their work willingly and efficiently. Since Miss Bertie Ballard resigned to be Scout associate worker, Miss Bill Aiken has been carrying on work with Troop I splendidly. She is to be promoted to captaincy.

If friends and relatives of Girl Scouts are wondering what to give them Christmas, why not consult troop leaders at once and arrange to get articles that every girl Scout wants?
