INEZ OATES, 7th Grade

The seventh grade hopes to find time to take a few hikes this year. They wish to study flowers. It shall be helpful to the students. Mr. Kimzey, teacher, says, "It is very embarrassing for some one to ask you the name of a mountain flower when you don't know the name."

J. C. McClure, Jr.

SEVENTH GRADE PLAY

The seventh grade is getting up a play entitled "Aunt Maria's Visit." It is a snappy play. The comedy parts are Samba, a negro servant and Katie Irish servant. The main parts are Mr. Hale and Mrs. Lamp. Other parts are Mr. and Mrs. Long.

G. C. McClure, Jr.

SEVENTH GRADERS ENJOY GAMES

The seventh grade students play many games. They've been playing base ball for a good while, but they play other games now. The boys play together and the girls play together. Mr. Kimzey taught the boys a new game a few days ago. They make a long line and see which one can hold up the most. It is a pretty rough game, but they have lots of fun playing it.

EVERETTE WHITMIRE, 7th grade

WINTER!

Spring is almost here and winter has not gone. The birds have returned North and flowers have begun to grow. Very soon now the farmer will be planting his seeds. One may hear birds sing and see butterflies flitting about now, in January. It's funny weather, seems, and many boys and girls are disappointed because it hasn't snowed.

HAZEL MOORE, 7th grade

AN IMAGINARY TRIP

My trip to China was very amusing. In place of chairs the Chinese used mats. It seemed strange to sit on the floor with the children.

I found it very exciting to wear some of their funny caps, dresses, and slippers. The queerest thing to me was the long hair trailing down the girls' backs. I enjoyed watching them walk, because they took such tiny, sliding steps.

LEVIE PASSMORE, 5th grade

OUR CHRISTMAS CACTUS

We have a pretty Christmas cactus in our school room. It is blooming now and is very pretty. I think a flower especially a Christmas cactus, brightens the room and makes us feel more cheerful and happy. Of all the flowers I've seen I like the Christmas cactus best because it blooms at a time when we have so very few flowers blooming.

D. H. WINCHESTER, Jr. 4th grade

OUR TESTAMENTS

Mr. Bush came in our room yesterday and gave us some little Testaments. We thanked him very much for them. I've read three pages in mine already. This sentence was on the cover of the Book, "Please carry this in your pocket and read it every day."

EARL GARREN, 4th grade

MY DOG TAN

I have a little pet dog. His name is Tan. He runs, jumps, and plays with me. In the afternoon when I go home from school he always meets me at the door. How would you like to have a pet like my dog, Tan?

WYLLIE LOVE, 3rd grade

EAST FORK HIGHWAY IMPROVED

The East Fork-Rosman road has been rocked and sanded from the Pickens highway to the bridge above Mrs. King's home.

BILLIE DOCKINS, 7th grade

MY PET RABBITS

I have three pet rabbits and I like to feed and care for them. They are pretty bunnies. They will jump and pop their feet on the floor. They will sit up and wash their faces with their fore feet.

ELZIE RAINES, 3rd grade

THE HORSE FAIR

We have a picture of some horses. They are brown, black, red, and white. They are to be sold in the city. We like this picture.

The picture was painted by a lady. Her name was Rosa Bonheur. She loved animals, and liked to paint them.

GLEN WINCHESTER, 2nd grade

PICTURES

We are studying the picture "Feeding her Birds." Milley and I like it very much.

AVARIE GLAZENER, 1st grade

A COUNTRY I WOULD LIKE TO VISIT

I had rather visit Switzerland than any other country.

I would like to see the high snow-capped Alps, the lakes, the great glaciers, the people's homes, and see them tending their herds of sheep on the mountain sides. I'd like to see the toys, woodwork, embroideries, and other articles made by the mountaineers.

Then too, I'd like to see the queer dress of the people, and visit them in their homes to see how they make their butter and cheese.

I would enjoy climbing to the top of the high mountains, with the boys and girls when they went to herd their sheep, and look down in the deep valleys and see the sparkling streams. I have heard too, of the pretty flowers of many colors which grow on the mountain sides.

LUCILLE GALLOWAY, 5th grade

A STREAM

At the head of a stream there is but a little spring. As it flows away other streams join it. Soon it grows larger and larger until, at last, it becomes a great river.

RUSSELL GREEN, 7th grade

EFFECTS OF THE WEATHER

The cold weather makes me chilly. The warm weather makes me gay. The cold weather makes me unhappy. Because I can't go out and play. We are all so happy when the birds come again. We like to hear them singing. And wonder where they have been.

DOVIE ELMA WHITE, 5th grade

DAY DREAMS

One day I was reading "Tom Sawyer" down by the river. After a while I got tired and fell asleep. I dreamed that I went to visit my grandmother, and grandfather. I could see them milking old "Jane" and old "Grove" at sunset and I could see Tom driving the cattle home. It was a very pleasant dream.

ROSMAN SCHOOL NEEDS NEW BUSES

The Rosman school buses are about gone. The bus drivers have to stop two or three times a day to repair the buses. It takes more money to have the buses repaired than to buy new ones. We ought to have larger buses, for many of the children have to stand up, as there is not room to sit down.

HELPING AT HOME

This is what I do to help my mother with her work.

I wash dishes every morning and evening, sweep floors, help care for the baby, and iron my own clothes.

I think all boys and girls should learn to work. They learn by helping their mothers.

RUTH RICE, 3rd grade

LOST—A CHILD

Frances Mitchell slipped off and went home with Lucy McCall to spend the night. Her mother did not know it. She had everyone looking for her child. They thought that she had drowned in the river.

On New Year's morning when I got up my mother said she had a big surprise for my sister and me. "Oh, what is it?" I asked. Mother said, "Go look in the playhouse and see."
