

Society News and Club Activities

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR TO STAGE FOOD SALE

Plans have been perfected for the Food Sale, sponsored by the Pisgah Chapter No. 198 order of the Eastern Star which will be held at the Central Market Saturday February 6 beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. according to officials of that organization. The proceeds from this sale will be sent to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home to be used as the authorities there deem necessary. Definite plans for this sale were completed Tuesday night when the members of the Eastern Star met in their lodge rooms for a regular meeting. At this meeting it was announced that the election of officers would be held Tuesday March 1, for the current year's work. A discussion was held relative to the picture "Over the Hill" which the organization is sponsoring at the Clemson Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, February 10 and 11. Following the transaction of routine business a social hour was enjoyed.

MACK ALLISON, JR., HOST TO CHILDREN OF CONFEDERACY

The children of the Confederacy met with Mack Allison on Monday afternoon for their regular February meeting. Miss Annie Gash, representing the United Daughters of the Confederacy gave the members a short discussion on "Using Headstones for Veterans of Any War." Three new members were accepted into the organization, Bob T. Gash, Wesley Woodley, Jr., and Vera Hayes.

They voted to help the Daughters of the American Revolution with their George Washington program which will be held on February 22. The host served lemonade and cookies at the conclusion of the meeting.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION TO MEET TUESDAY

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Tuesday February 9 with Mrs. L. E. Brown, dean of Girls at Brevard Institute at which time plans will be completed for the George Washington Bicentennial celebration which the ladies are planning.

THIRD GRADE GIRLS HAVE GOLDEN RULE CLUB

The third grade girls under the supervision of Mrs. F. P. Sledge, teacher have organized a new club of their own ideas and plans, using as a motto "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." At the first meeting of the club Miss Lillian Zachary was chosen president; vice president, Marcia Winton; secretary, Lois Moore and treasurer, Frances Johnson. The young ladies meet at noon each Monday, the members bringing their own lunches on that day. A voluntary collection is taken up each meeting and these funds are turned over to Mrs. S. P. Verner president of the Parent Teachers Association to use in providing the undernourished children with lunches. An interesting program is given at each meeting, with proper devotional exercises and the discussion of subjects, necessary to a Golden Rule Club.

BAPTIST WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the Baptist church parlor, nine members were present. An interesting program was rendered during the afternoon. Alvin Moore sang a solo entitled "Thanks be to God." Mrs. D. F. Moore had charge of the devotional exercises after which she entertained into the discussion of the days topic "Christianity, The Bulwark of our Nation." Mrs. Moore as hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Duckworth and Mrs. W. T. Bossee. The society voted to send the president, Mrs. Paul Hartsell as official delegate to the State Women's Missionary Union conference which will convene at Greensboro in March. Mrs. Alfred Hampton was chosen as alternate delegate.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. WIKE

The Fortnightly club met with Mrs. J. E. Wike at her home on East Main street Thursday afternoon with ten members and one guest, Mrs. T. H. Hampton, present for the program. Mrs. J. E. Loftis as program leader for the afternoon used as her topic, "Discipline and Obedience" and she dealt with this subject in a fluent and instructive manner. At the conclusion of the program the hostess, Mrs. Wike served a delightful salad course to the ladies present.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY TO MEET TODAY

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Brevard Methodist church will meet today for its regular program meeting. All members are urged to be present to participate in the afternoon program.

JUNIOR MUSIC LOVERS HAVE SHORT SESSION

The Junior Music Lovers Club met at the home of Mrs. J. W. McMinn Monday evening with Miss Eva Call, pianist of the organization. A number of songs were practiced by the group assembled and minor plans were made for the next meeting.

UNITED DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY WILL MEET SATURDAY

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet Saturday afternoon at the chapter house which is the U. D. C. Library for the regular monthly meeting.

LEAP YEAR DANCE HELD AT "THE CLUB HOUSE"

Over fifteen couples enjoyed the unique leap year dance held at "The Club House" on East Main street, Friday evening. Chaperons for the occasion were Mrs. Ed. McCoy, Mrs. Pat Kimzey and Miss Jessie Copp. The guests included: Misses Willie Kate Waters, Nelle Duckworth, Lois Barnette, Rachel Orr, Grace Duckworth, Elizabeth McCoy, Ruth Pickelsimer, Dorothy Schachner, Nelle Gillespie, Jane Pearce, Sarah Louise Andrews and Jean English, both of N. C. C. W., Greensboro. Messrs. Weilt Duckworth, Harold Duckworth, Paul Kellar,

Robert Kellar, Robert Pearce, Edgar Loftis, Mack Allison, Richard Aiken, Harold Nelson, Walter Clayton, Tom Patton, Frank Henry, Joe Schachner, Garland Sledge, George Bromfield, Langdon English, Paul Schachner of Weaver College and Barnard Schachner.

SARAH TAYLOR CIRCLE TO MEET THURSDAY

The Sarah Taylor Circle of the Brevard Methodist church will meet Thursday at 3:30 o'clock in the ladies parlor. Miss Floyd, Bible instructor of Brevard Institute, will have charge of the afternoon program. Leaders of the organization extend a cordial invitation to all young women of the town to attend this special meeting.

YOUNG WOMAN'S AUXILIARY HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union met with Miss June Grogan on Monday evening. The members sang "America the Beautiful" and a short discussion of this patriotic song was held with each stanza being read and interpreted carefully. The next meeting of this organization will be held with Miss Marjorie Garren on Monday, March 7.

BAGWELL-FORTUNE

Miss Callie Bagwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bagwell, was married to Mr. Albert Fortune on Wednesday afternoon, January 27, in Pickens, S. C. Both the young man and young woman are well known here. Mrs. Fortune having attended school at Brevard Institute and also Brevard High school. The young couple, after spending their honeymoon in various parts of the state and South Carolina, will reside in North Brevard.

MRS. J. A. GLAZENER HOSTESS TO MATHATASIAN CLUB

Mrs. Julian A. Glazener was hostess to the Mathatasian club Thursday afternoon at her home on Broad Street. Ten members of the club and one guest, Mrs. Paul Hartsell, were present for the meeting. Program leader for the afternoon was Mrs. Hume Harris and her topic was "Mary Roberts Rhinehart." This famous authoress was discussed during the meeting as were some of her most important works. Plans were forwarded for the open meeting of the club which will be held at the Baptist church Feb. 11. A committee of Mrs. Julian Glazener and Mrs. Oliver Orr was appointed to choose and purchase a tree to use in a George Washington program which will be held in the near future.

REED-SETZER

The many friends of Miss Sadie Reed will be interested to hear of her marriage to Mr. Howard Setzer. They were married November, 22, 1931. Mrs. Setzer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reed of Blantyre. She is a graduate of Brevard High school, being a member of the class of '29. Mr. Setzer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Setzer, of Candler and is a graduate of Candler High school class of '27, and of Biltmore Junior College, 1930. He is employed with The Champion Fibre Co. The young couple have many friends who join in wishing them a happy and successful life.

ELEMENTARY STUDENTS ENJOY SPLENDID PROGRAMS

The students of the Brevard Elementary grades enjoyed a short play, given by the pupils of the first grade classes, Friday, under the supervision of the teachers, Mrs. J. E. Ruffy and Miss Eva Call. The play was on Thrift and was given for the purpose of installing thrift in the minds of the young students. Prof. J. B. Jones will address the Elementary girls and boys during their chapel period, Friday, Feb. 5.

MRS. S. M. MACFIE HOSTESS TO WEDNESDAY CLUB

Mrs. S. M. Macfie entertained the Wednesday club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hinton McLeod, vice president, presided over the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. H. Harris. Following the regular transaction of business the club members discussed the cherry tree planting which will be held on the Brevard High school grounds, Tuesday, February 16, at 4:30 o'clock instead of the

WITH THE COUNTY'S COLORED PEOPLE

(BY J. M. HARRIS)

CHURCHES

Bethel A Baptist church had the good fortune of having Rev. A. B. Roberts of Asheville preach three nights last week. Rev. A. H. Wilson, Pastor of Bethel Baptist church, Brevard, preached at the Hill street Baptist church in Asheville. He reports a fine service.

SCHOOLS

Principal J. M. Harris has received a letter from Mr. N. C. Newbold, State director of negro education, asking that Rosenwald day be postponed until March 4, at which time a prepared program would be sent to all Rosenwald schools.

NIGHT SCHOOL

The Rosenwald night school classes will meet on Tuesday and Thursday nights at 7 o'clock.

GROUNDHOG SAW HIS PESKY SHADOW

Old Maat Groundhog saw his shadow Tuesday, and it is all off for six weeks of bad weather, unless the old Groundhog proves to be as big a prevaricator this year as he has in the past. Those people who hold the opinion that the Groundhog must see his shadow before 11 o'clock in the morning are in high glee, because there was no sunshine before that hour, but later in the day the sun did come out, and those poor souls who believe that any hour in the day is a good hour for the Groundhog spent a sleepless night, thinking of the six weeks' bad weather just in the offing.

date previously announced.

The Boy and Girl Scouts will assist in the program and the public is urged to be present. The cherry tree for the program was donated by Mrs. H. N. Carrier.

Mrs. Roy Long was program leader for the afternoon and she discussed "North Carolina as an Agricultural State," this being a chapter from the club study book "North Carolina Social and Economic" by Hobbs.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess served tea and the club adjourned to meet Tuesday, February 16 with Mrs. Hinton McLeod.

JUNIOR MARKSMEN HOLD REGULAR RIFLE MEET

The Rifle Club of the Junior Girls of the Brevard High school met Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting with Miss Mary Frances Biggers, home room teacher and R. D. Jenkins, rifle master. Ten girls were present to participate in the match. Miss Christine Joines was high scorer of the afternoon, making 34 points.

Miss Clara Garren is president of the club, Lois Barnett, secretary, and Rhemma Beddingfield, treasurer.

Miss Biggers is confident that the girls are improving each week in their marksmanship and that some of the members will develop into skilled marksmen. The club uses Remington and Savage repeating rifles in the rifle drills, and targets are standard makes, regulated by the National Rifle corps.

Hales Held for Murder

Claiming self-defense from attack with knife, W. S. Hales has admitted he killed Albert Hart, 35, with a shotgun at Fayetteville.

SONG CONVENTION DRAWS BIG CROWD

The Fifth Sunday Singers packed the Court house almost to the point of suffocation, Sunday, when they convened for their regular all-day singing program, beginning at 10 o'clock with general class singing, led by skilled leaders from South Carolina, Buncombe and Henderson counties, Transylvania county and Tennessee.

The program was pronounced as an overwhelming success by leaders in the work and several of the singers in attendance declared it to be one of the most enjoyable programs ever rendered at the Fifth Sunday Singing.

A large number of quartets from various sections of this state and other states were present to participate in the day's program, East Flat Rock quartet, Tennessee quartet with string instruments, Ladies quartet of Rosman and Rosman mixed quartet. Duet from Pisgah Forest and a Bass solo by Mr. M. Ross of Pisgah Forest.

R. E. Mackey, president of the Fifth Sunday Singing convention, presided over the program.

The next Fifth Sunday Singing will be held on Sunday May 29, when it is expected that several quartets and

PROF. TROWBRIDGE TO BE HEARD HERE

Prof. C. H. Trowbridge, president of Weaver College and superintendent of Brevard Institute for 16 years from 1907 until 1923 when he accepted the position at Weaver College, will address the Mathatasian club in an open meeting, Thursday, February 11, at 3:30 o'clock in the Ladies Parlor of the Baptist church. All persons, particularly mothers, interested in this program are cordially invited to be present.

Prof. Trowbridge will speak on the subject of "The Recreation of the Adolescent Child."

Musical selections will be given by Mrs. A. H. Kizer and Mr. Alvin Moore.

Citizens here who remember Mr. Trowbridge and his splendid work at Brevard Institute during the 16 years he was superintendent there, will recall his splendid literary and oratorical abilities. He was a wonderful judge of human character and an unusual leader and instructor of young people.

It is expected that many people will attend the program next Thursday.

Musicians of wide fame will be present to render several selections.

SPECIALS for SATURDAY

BEEF

T-Bone Steak, lb 30c
Round Steak, lb 20c
Shoulder, lb 15c
Hamburger, lb 15c
Stew, lb 10c to 15c
Roast, lb 15c to 20c

PORK

Roast, lb 18c to 20c
Chops, lb 20c
Sausage, lb 20c
Mixed Sausage, lb 10c

FULL LINE OF FANCY AND STAPLE GROCERIES, FRUITS and VEGETABLES

CITY MARKET

Phone 47 S. F. Allison, Mgr. 19 Main St.

AS WE NAME THE

NEW PRICES

ON

Homeland Made To Measure Clothes

WE SAY GOOD-BYE HAND-ME-DOWNS!

$45.00 line $32.50
$35.00 line 27.50
$30.00 line 22.50
$25.00 line 17.50
Mid Summer Fabrics $16.00 up
Sport and Wash Fabrics 12.00 up

The only way you can appreciate Homeland Clothes is to try one suit—Then you will be a Homeland booster. If you already own a Homeland Suit, you need not read this advertisement. This appeal is for the other man who has never bought a Homeland Suit. ONE TIME ONLY IS THE SLOGAN. If you try one suit we don't have to advertise to get you back. Now I want to tell you, the Spring and Summer line at the above prices considering the quality is almost unbelievable. It's the finest and prettiest line in America. It will only take me five minutes to prove to you all I have said about Homeland Clothes. The frankest way I know how to express my opinion of the New Line is

Good-Bye Competition --- Farewell Other Makes

Homeland Clothes Are Guaranteed AGAINST THE LEAST MISTAKE.

You High School and Institute boys should drop in and look over the Mid-Summer Line of Sport Fabrics, and all the other lines. This is T. W. Whitmire speaking, from the Waltermire Hotel, a bonded representative for the Homeland Tailoring Co., Inc., Baltimore, Md.

Come quick, give me your order and get first choice --- Make your down payment and suit can be delivered as late as April 1st. If you had rather I come to see you, call Phone 26, and I will do the rest.

T. W. WHITMIRE

WALTERMIRE HOTEL

For Sale

39 Acre Farm, five room house. Located one-half mile from Blantyre.

FOR QUICK SALE

$1500

If you are interested in a small farm, don't fail to see this one.

Judson McCrary

AGENT