Shipman and Mrs. Mack Allison, Miss Lillian Jenkins provided the music for the afternoon's program.

ENJOYABLE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Polly Hartsell, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hartsell celebrated her 13th birthday Saturday evening, February 13th with a theatre party at the Clemson theatre.

The young guests met at their hostess home at seven o'clock and went in a group to the theatre where they enjoyed the screen version of O'Henry's popular story, "The Cisco Kid."

At the conclusion of the picture Miss Hartsell invited the guests to her home where they enjoyed delightful refreshments and a number of interesting games. Refreshments served represented the ever popular Valentine and later music the guests enjoyed several musical selections.

The guests included: Misses Ora Holt Long, Catherine English, Carolyn Kilpatrick, Dorothy Everett, Malba Tharp, Anita Galloway, Betty Loftis, Mary Aiken, Dorothy Schachner, Mildred Galloway, Lucy Galloway, Ruth Fulton, Henry Erwin, Evonne Robinson and Hazel Mae Mills.

WEDNESDAY BOOK CLUB POSTPONES TREE PLANTING PROGRAM

The Wednesday Book club postponed its tree planting program which was to have been held on Tuesday, Feb. 16, until Wednesday, February 24, on account of the bad weather prevailing on the former date.

The tree planting program reads as follows:

Song—America.
"Ballads of Trees and the Master"
—Mrs. J. S. Silverstein.

The Tree Planting.
Song—"Trees" by Girl Scouts of Troop No. 2.

Trombone Solo—"Star Spangled Banner" by Donald Lee Moore.

"Allegiance to the Flag."

The program will begin at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon on the High School grounds. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Regular meeting of the Wednesday club was held Tuesday, February 15, at the home of Mrs. Hinton McLeod, with fifteen members present. Transaction of business occupied the major part of the meeting.

Plans were perfected for the joint meeting which the ladies will hold with the Brevard Kiwanis club on Thursday, March 10.

National Business and Professional Women's week is the second week in March from Monday, 7 through Saturday, 12. The members of the club have been invited to attend a banquet at the Hattery Park Hotel on Monday, March 7, to begin observance of the week set aside for their programs.

The club adopted a resolution in regard to making all captains and lieutenants of the Girl Scout troops honorary members of the club. Those becoming honorary members by the resolution include: Mrs. Ina Rustin, Miss Willie Aiken, Miss Ethel McMinn and Miss Lillian Jenkins.

Miss Myrtle Barnette was hostess to the club, and at the conclusion of the program she served refreshments, carrying the Valentine idea.

BLANCHE BARRUS CIRCLE MEETS WITH MRS. RAMSEY

The Blanche Barrus Circle of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, Tuesday afternoon with ten members present.

In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Roy Long, Mrs. Ramsey presided.

Topic of the afternoon's program, taken from the first chapter of Dr. Gill's book on "Europe and the Gospel" was discussed by Mrs. Ramsey, program leader.

Mrs. Ramsey explained that before 1872 the Southern Baptists had not done any material work in the European countries. In 1872 an Italian mission was founded in Italy and this was supported by the Southern Baptists during trying times, though no other projects were undertaken until after the World War. Following the World War, missions were founded in Spain, Hungary, Jugo Slavia, Rumania, and Ukraine.

At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed and the hostess served delightful refreshments.
