ORDER OF EASTERN STAR ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

At a stated meeting of Pisgah Chapter No. 198, Order of the Eastern Star, held Tuesday evening, March 1st, the following officers were elected.

Worthy Matron .. Mrs. Ina Rustin Worthy Patron .. Henry Henderson Associate Matron .. Mrs. Annie Reid Associate Patron .. C. O. Robinson Secretary .. Mrs. Arabella Houston Treasurer .. Mrs. Lelia English Conductress .. Mrs. Ida Pruitt Associate Conductress .. Mrs. Agnes Pickelsimer.

There are ten officers to be appointed by the incoming Worthy Matron. Plans were made for a public installation of officers to be held in the Masonic Hall on Friday evening, March 18th. At this time the chapter will also appropriately observe its third birthday.

Following the ritualistic closing of the chapter, Miss Willie Aiken sang "My Little Grey Home in the West," by Wilmot, and Mrs. Bessie Pickelsimer, Worthy Matron, on behalf of the chapter presented to Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Zachary, who are soon leaving to make their home in Seattle, Washington, a framed picture of Conestee Falls. The presentation was made with the following beautiful words:

Brother and Sister Zachary, a few days ago the members of Pisgah Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, learned that you were leaving us. Words can never express our deep felt sorrow and loss. Life has taught us the sad lesson of inevitableness of friends remaining always together. We realize our loss will be another's gain, for we have counted you among our truest friends, feeling that when you were not with us in person at our meetings, your spirit of good will and co-operation were. I hold in my hand a little token of remembrance which I wish to present to you in behalf of Pisgah Chapter. Many this little gift help you to often visualize many happy days spent among the hills of Western North Carolina. This token is a minute representation of God's beautiful creation, of which you have become a part. Since time immemorial mankind has been blessed with friends like you, for

When God had made the colors For the sunset in the sky, And hung them o'er the western hills To soothe a weary eye; When He had made the velvet For the petals of the rose And breathed the fragrance in their hearts Where golden glory glows; When He had made the purple For the far and silent hills, And made the silver ribbons That are gay and singing rills; I know He sat and pondered Just to think what He could do To make a thing more lovely— So He made friends like you.

After He had made the gold For every daffodil He thought that if He made a rose 'Twould be more lovely still; And after He had made the dawn Of pink and grayish mist, He thought the sun should sink to rest In gold and amethyst; And after He had made a field And run it through with rills He thought 'twould be more beautiful To make a range of hills; So earth was made, each final touch, The starlight and the dew, And then to crown His masterpiece He made friends like you.

A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served, the hostesses being Mrs. Ina Rustin and Miss Willie Aiken.

—By Secretary.

THE NOBBY SHOP Brevard, N. C.

March 1st, 1932

The Auto Sales Company Brevard, N. C.

Dear Mr. Smathers:-

During the past ten years I have been a constant owner and active driver of various kinds of automobiles. But my last and most satisfactory choice was made when I purchased a Chevrolet. It fills the every requirement of a busy business person who wants an on the minute car. It looks the part, acts the part and is the part of successful, economical transportation.

I am thus happy to state to your friends and mine that I am a satisfied Chevrolet owner, and your car is well worth their consideration and will merit any investigation. And I consider the Chevrolet Dealer and its service to the community among its greatest assets.

Respectfully,

FLAX A. LAWRENCE.
