GULICK-TRANTHAM

The following story clipped from the Oklahoma City Times of March 5 was published prior to the marriage which it describes. The young couple returned to Brevard Thursday.

Wedding of Miss Annabel Gulick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gulick, 2329 North Flynn avenue, and Anthony A. Trantham of Brevard, N. C., will be celebrated in the presence of 75 friends and relatives Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, in St. Luke's Methodist church, south.

Rev. Forney Hutchinson, pastor of the church, will read the service. The vows will be exchanged before an altar banked with palms and fern, and decked with red dragons and spring flowers. On either side will be a silver floor candelabra bearing ten bridal candles.

Preceding the service, Miss Vivian Molere will play "Cantilene Nuptiale," by Dubois, and will accompany Frank Knepper, who will sing, "I Love You Truly," by Bond. Miss Molere also will play the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the professional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional, and during the ceremony she will finger softly, "To a Wild Rose," by MacDowell.

The bride will enter with, and be given in marriage by her father. Her gown of ivory satin will cling, in the present mode to her slight figure, and will be relieved from severity by lace outlining the neckline. Falling in a cloud about her will be the long veil of white silk net and lace caught can fashion with orange blossoms. She will carry a fan shaped bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and lilies of the valley, and for ornament she will wear her mother's strand of pearls.

Scattering roseleaves in her pathway from blue and pink vendor's trays will be small Eloise and Geraldine Gulick, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gulick, who will be frocked in pink and blue.

Other attendants will be Mrs. William D. Day, matron of honor; Miss La Vanche Hunley, maid of honor; Miss Velma Jameson and Miss Mary Loskot, bridesmaids, who will wear pastel toned evening gowns with flowers in matching shades.

Earle Haggard will serve Mr. Trantham as best man, and Victor Sellers and Nevin D. McClelland will be the ushers, and also will light the candles.

For the trip to her North Carolina home, the bride will wear a smart brown tweed suit with racoon collar, and her accessories all will be in matching tones.

Miss Gulick was born and reared in Oklahoma City. She graduated from Central high school, and is a member of Kappa Theta Gamma club. Mr. Trantham was born and reared in Brevard, and is a member of one of the old families in that section. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Trantham. He was educated at the Brevard high school and Bailey Military college, at Greenwood, S. C. He is a merchant at Brevard, where the couple will go Tuesday to take possession of their new home.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL LEADERS MEET

Leaders and superintendents of the various departments of the Baptist Sunday School met at the church Tuesday night to form plans for their spring work, with Brown Carr, general superintendent in charge.

The meeting was very enthusiastic and the church leaders were able to perfect many plans for their work during the next few weeks.

EPPTS-JOHNSON

Miss Helen Alberta Epps and Mr. Charles Edwin Johnson were united in marriage Thursday evening March 3 at the West Asheville Presbyterian church in a ceremony performed by the Rev. W. F. Creson, pastor. The couple were attended by Miss Nancy Welch and Mr. George Mitchell.

Mrs. Johnson has a wide circle of friends here having made many acquaintances during the time she and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Epps, operated the Bryant house during the summer months.

She is a graduate of the Asheville Normal school.

Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. A. J. Johnson and is also widely known in Brevard. He studied at Christ school and worked for several years in Brevard.

After a short trip through the South, they returned and are at home today with their friends at 78 Oakwood street, West Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were the upper guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Robinson on their wedding night, leaving on their honeymoon Friday morning.

CHILDREN OF CONFEDERACY IN ENJOYABLE MEET

The Children of the Confederacy met with Mrs. J. M. Allison Monday afternoon with fifteen members present. Ora Holt Long read a paper on George Washington, and the entire program was carried out in commemoration of that great man. Others taking part in the program were Robert Gash and Mack Allison, Jr.

Following regular transaction of business and roll call the meeting adjourned to meet with Miss Elizabeth McCoy at Pisgah Forest for the next meeting.

GUILD AND AUXILIARY MEET WITH MRS. LYNCH

The Episcopal Guild and Auxiliary met with Mrs. G. B. Lynch on Thursday afternoon for their regular meeting. Mrs. H. N. Carrier presided over the Auxiliary meeting and led the devotional exercises. A discussion was held of the Auxiliary state convention which is to be held in Tryon in the near future.

Following the Auxiliary meeting the Guild held its meeting with Mrs. A. R. Beane presiding. Plans were made for work to be carried out during the spring months.

At the conclusion of the programs a social hour was enjoyed, during which the hostess served refreshments.

DR. H. T. HUNTER TO ADDRESS P.-T. ASSOCIATION

Dr. H. T. Hunter, president of Western Carolina Teacher's college, Galloway, will speak before the Parent-Teacher Association Monday, March 14, in the Brevard high school building.

Dr. Hunter is well known in Brevard, since more of the high school graduates from Transylvania county are going to W. C. T. C. than any other college in the state. Every returning pupil praises Dr. Hunter and his institution. He is one of the few heads of state institutions who is really a Christian gentleman of the Southern type. His college is big enough to be recognized in the association of colleges and yet small enough to maintain the personal relationship between pupils and teachers. One of the outstanding improvements made at W. C. T. C. during Dr. Hunter's presidency is the rating of the college by the association of colleges. This college was a Junior college, but is now a four-year class A teachers' college.

There will be a special feature of music furnished by the fifth grade. Their number is "Welcome Sweet Springtime," by Rubinstein, directed by Miss Eva Call.

JUNIOR MUSIC LOVERS STUDY HISTORY OF SAXAPHONE

History of the modern jazz instrument, the saxophone, was made an intensive study at the Junior Music Lovers Club meeting held at the Elementary school building Monday evening, with Miss Eva Call in charge.

Nell Duckworth was program leader, and presented a short history of the saxophone. Edgar Loftis read an interesting poem and Mack Allison offered several selections on the instrument being discussed. Fifteen members of the organization were present.

LIVINGSTONE CIRCLE MEETS WITH MRS. WARD

Mrs. T. P. Ward entertained the Livingstone circle of the Brevard Baptist church Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. John Bishop, chairman of the circle, presiding.

Miss Louise Ashworth led the devotional exercises. Splendid reports were made by various members upon the personal service work they are doing. One needy family was "pounded," the sick have been visited and trays of food and flowers have been sent. A large number of families have received clothing through the work of this organization.

Plans were made for the Mission Study work which begins at the next regular meeting.

ZONE MEET

Over 75 of the delegates and officers of the Missionary societies of the Methodist church from Transylvania, Henderson and Polk counties, Zone No. 1, met at the Brevard Methodist church, Thursday March 3, for their first meeting of 1932, with Mrs. Oliver Orr, Zone Leader.

The program was given in the following order: 10 o'clock—Devotional by Mrs. J. W. Payne and Miss Bessie Allen of Hendersonville.

Welcome by Mrs. Hume Harris. Response by Mills River Auxiliary.

Roll call and discussion of plans for year of all auxiliaries.

THE BREVARD NEWS
Brevard, N. C.

March 9, 1932

The Auto Sales Company,
Brevard, N. C.
Gentlemen:-

For the past two and one-half years I have been driving a Chevrolet-car, and the 26,000 miles it has done seems to have made but little change in its performance. With exception of a few minor repairs, nothing whatever has been done on the car since I purchased it. I have been offered some extraordinary trade-ins but prefer to keep my Chevrolet. Its performance is perfect.

From the experience I have had with my car I can most cheerfully recommend the Chevrolet to any prospective purchaser of an automobile.

I am glad to note the success that your company is having in this community and wish for you a continuation of that success which you so richly deserve through your excellent service to the people of the county.

Cordially yours,

HENRY HENDERSON.
