Piano Pupils to Give Recital

The piano pupils at Rosman are giving their recital April 8th. There are eleven pupils. Every one is cordially invited. The recital will last about two hours. The Girl's Junior Glee club will also sing.
 G. C. McCLURE, Jr., 7th grade.

April

April brings the sunshine, the freshening showers, and the honeybees buzzing through long, dreamy hours. It brings the minnows, swimming in each shady brook, while children play the byelong day, in every flowering nook.
 ARCHIE WHITMIRE, 6th grade.

Traveling Library Returned to Raleigh

The Traveling Library books which came to us about a month ago, were returned to Raleigh last week. These books are called a traveling library because they come to a school for a certain period and are then returned to the State Library to be sent to another school. I enjoyed them very much and surely did hate to see them taken away.
 RUBY LOVE, 6th grade.

My Clock

I have a little clock which is my very own, and it keeps me lots of company when I'm alone.
 It hangs upon the wall with a pleasant looking face, and it seems to say its ready just to take my place.
 It stays right by my bedside and ticks as loud as loud can be. It says it's never sleepy, because it keeps me company.
 GENEVA PETIT, 5th grade.

Easter

We celebrate Easter to commemorate the death and resurrection of our Savior. This is a time of great rejoicing to the whole world, for we believe that since He rose from the dead we shall rise also.
 Beautiful songs are sung in the churches on Easter morning and many beautiful spring flowers, such as hyacinths and white Easter lilies, are used to decorate the churches. Most people want to have new clothes to wear to church, as they celebrate the passing of the long cold winter and the arrival of spring.
 There is a custom which is very old of coloring eggs many bright colors, at this time, and having egg hunts. The eggs are hidden in leaves or grass by our mothers or our teachers, and then the children search for them, the one finding the most receiving a prize.
 On the night before Easter the Easter rabbit passes through and if one has been good during the year, he will leave a basket of candy eggs, which is the most fun of all.
 LUCILLE GALLOWAY, 5th grade.

Our Blackboard Border

We have a very pretty Easter blackboard border. The chicks are yellow. They have green coats on. One of the rabbits has a blue coat, blue trousers and a red tie on, and another has a purple dress, a red coat and green umbrella, and is pushing a baby rabbit in a carriage. A duck in a blue sailor hat and a blue neck tie is walking in front of the rabbits.

 BERT WILKERSON, 4th grade.

An Easter Egg Hunt

The fourth grade is planning to have fun Friday afternoon. We are going to have an Easter Egg Hunt. Two of the pupils are going to hide the eggs upon the hillside among the leaves, behind stumps and in holes. Each pupil is going to bring three eggs. The eggs will be dyed all colors. We are going to give a prize to the two who find the most. I hope that we will have lots of fun.
 RUSSELL OWEN, 4th grade.

The Girl and the Rabbit

Once upon a time there was a little girl hiding Easter eggs. A rabbit came hopping out of the grass and asked her what she was doing. The little girl said, "I'm hiding eggs." The rabbit said, "You can hide the eggs and I will find them."
 When the little girl had finished hiding the eggs the rabbit found them and put them in a bag. He threw the bag over his shoulder and away he went shopping towards home. That was the last the little girl ever saw of the rabbit and her Easter eggs.
 MARRIAH STEWART, 3rd grade.

Health Booklets

The third grade has been busy making health booklets. We cut bright colored letters from paper and pasted them on the books. We sewed the books with threads of the same color as the letters. We are going to paste pictures in the books and make a health chart.
 LORA McCALL, 3rd grade.

Milk

Milk is good to drink. It is healthy. It is good for little children and grown-ups, too. I always drink milk for my supper.
 I have a little sister. She is two years old. When she comes to the table, mother gives her a glass of milk. She puts it to her mouth and says a-a-a-m.
 REX GALLOWAY, 3rd grade.

Easter Egg Hunt

We are going to have an egg hunt. We expect to have a good time. It is fun to dye eggs, and to hunt them. Miss Ballard is going to give a prize to the girl and the boy who finds the most eggs.
 EDNA ALLISON, 2nd grade.

Visitors

We had several visitors this morning. Some of them were fathers and mothers. Some of them were friends. They came to see our play.
 Mr. J. B. Jones came to our play. Later he came to our room.
 We are always glad to have visitors.
 GLEN WINCHESTER, 2nd grade.

A Costume Box

The second grade class has started a costume box for the school. The children giving costumes are: Christine Morgan, Helen Whitmire, Ruby Galloway, Frances Padgett, and Pearl Jones.
 FRANCES PADGETT, 2nd grade.

Miss Waters (Making her costumes for the play); "Jessie, aren't you a Jack-in-the-Pulpit?"
 Jessie Aiken (who was helping her hold the pins); "No, ma'am, I'm holding the pins."

Our Egg Hunt

We enjoyed our egg hunt. There were two prizes given, one to Forest Reece and Inez Chapman. We all received a large chocolate egg along with the many bright colored ones, we enjoyed hunting for them.
 FIRST GRADE.

THE PRAYER CORNER

(From the files of long ago)
 "Do not I fill Heaven and earth, saith the Lord."—Jeremiah 23:24.
 "Our daily existence," says Dr. Van Dyne, "Sometimes seems to us a thing of small account."

"It appears to be made up of endless petty tasks, and a few petty pleasures, and many petty trials."
 "It produces no great results."

"We just go on attending to the details of business in a small office, or keeping house on a quiet street; and the children are a little larger this year than they were the year before, and we have a few more gray hairs, and we have managed to meet our obligations fairly well. But we wonder what we are sent into the world for."

My friend, you were sent into the world to live your life with God.

If he came into this life of yours you ought to think well of it.

All its daily duties, all its small delights, should seem to you refined and uplifted by the Divine participation in them.

Let us learn that the whole Christian life, whether it is lived on a large scale or a smaller one is a beautiful and worthy life.

What God requires of us is not to accomplish anything wonderful, but to do justice, and love mercy and walk humbly with our God.

God has two thrones—one in the highest Heaven, one in the lowest heat.

A PRAYER FOR THE DIVINE PRESENCE

O Thou invisible presence, there can be no place where Thou art not. Thou, our Father, art in Heaven and on earth and everywhere. Thou art in the order of the rock, the beauty of the flowers, the light and the Sun and stars, and goodness of the human soul.

Teach us to be conscious of Thy nearness to us, and so we may never be afraid. In the light of Thy countenance may we see duty and truth, and recognize more easily the good in one another.

Help us to realize that we were sent into the world to live our life with thee, O God. So we shall ever think well of our life, and all its small duties, and all its daily delights shall be refined and uplifted by Thy Divine participation in them.

Let us learn that the whole of our christian life, whether it is lived on a larger scale or a smaller one, is a beautiful and worthy life, and what Thou, O God, requirest of us, is not to accomplish anything wonderful, but to do justice and love mercy and walk humbly with Thee our God. AMEN all this we ask for Jesus Christ sake, Amen.
