Boy with the biggest feet, Bill Dockins. Our Town of Rosman 'Tis a merry little town. Where all the people like to stay around. It's in the heart of the hills. With scenery that's a thrill. There's a railroad, highway, and a river that shines. Like silver, when the moon is in the sky. They can say what they please. But there's nothing else we need. Only the streets should be paved. And the taxes should be paid. In the town of Rosman. MARGARET GLAZENER, 7th grade. Mount Toxaway Mount Toxaway is a beautiful mountain and is 5,000 feet high. The sides of it are covered with large rocks and cliffs. The water trickles down over them and they shine like silver in the sunshine. In the crevices of these rocks is a peculiar kind of a red flower which is very odd and has never been seen any where else besides on this mountain. This is a very rough mountain and is shaped like a hog's back. The old settlers called it "Hogback" because of its shape. The top of the mountain is level and contains about 3 acres of land. There is an old hotel on it that is falling to decay. There was once a road up to the top which was traveled by the guests going to the hotel, but now it has washed-out so badly that it cannot be used. The view from here is wonderful and one can see for miles away. LUCILLE GALLOWAY, 5th grade.

Our Favorite Game The favorite game of our school is baseball. At morning recess the Sixth and Seventh grades meet on one diamond while the Fourth and Fifth scrap it out on another. For the last week or so, the Seventh grade has been playing some of the High school boys at lunch hour. The girls have their baseball too, and play a good game. We get a lot of fun from our games and at the same time we are developing muscles and building strong bodies. QUINTON CRANE, 6th grade.

Birds and Flowers The birds are here at last; The flowers are blooming fast. Red, white, and blue, Yellow, pink and purple too. We are glad to see the birds and flowers. The sunshine and April showers. I wish the birds and flowers would stay. But in the fall they go away. VERNICE ROGERS, 5th grade.

Spring Spring is here. The birds are all busy hopping about and singing their pretty songs. Flowers are beginning to bloom. Many farmers are seen plowing in the fields. I am glad that spring is here because it makes every thing happy and gay. I like to see the birds, the flowers and the warm sunshine. LUCY BRITAIN, 4th grade.

Birds One evening as I was bringing the cow home I heard a voice calling. As I looked up in a large tree, I saw a flash of red. It was only a pretty red bird. In a few minutes another bird came to the same limb. It was not the same color as the other. It was a brownish red. They chattered and sang together in bird languages. DEWEY MITCHELL, 4th grade.

April Fool Once we had a duck. It was a white one. One day in April my sister went down to the swing and said, "I have found the duck's nest. It has twelve eggs in it." All of us went running down there, but when we got there she said, "April Fool." MARIE WILD, 3rd grade.

My White Rats I have two white rats. Their eyes are pink. Sometimes I take them outside and play with them. We have some holly bushes in our yard. The little rats run about in them and play hide and go seek. I enjoy watching them play. MARGREE FOWLER, 3rd grade.

My Pet My pet is a cat. It eats bread and milk. It sleeps in the barn. It plays in the hay. RUELE WHITMIRE, 2nd grade.

A pet I have a pet chick. It sleeps in a tub. I feed it meal. It says, "Peep, peep." FRANCES PADGETT, 2nd grade.

Preparation We have been very busy this week trying to get ready for our play. Also we are finishing up all our work so that we might pass. FIRST GRADE.

Spring Time Spring time is here, The happy time of all the year. Red birds sing, Joy bells ring, In the sweet sweet time.

Little violets put up their heads From their cozy winter beds, Violets, yellow, white and blue, They are all very pretty too, When they bloom in spring.

Daffodils come dancing, South wind comes prancing, Pretty lilies staring, In the golden sunlight. Of the sweet spring time.

Next comes trailing arbutus, Painting the woods through, And the pretty roses, That fill the childrens hand with poses. What is happier than the spring time? MAE OWEN, 7th grade.

Spring Spring, spring, it's almost here, Spring, spring, the happy year. These are days when we must not sigh. Let us work with spirits high. Spring, spring, its almost here. Spring, spring, the happy year. Love and laugh, sing and shout. But never, never, never pout.

Spring, spring, it's almost here. Spring, spring, the happy year. A year for giving, A year for loving. CAROLYN GARREN, 6th grade.
