FISHING SEASON TO OPEN FRIDAY 15TH

Fishermen the fishing season officially opens, Friday April 15th and a large number of Brevard anglers have expressed their desire to "drop a line" on that date. In fact a very large number of fishermen have already declared that their business houses, or any other form of work will have to get along without them when Friday rolls around.

The lure of the line and reel is too strong and the flies and hooks covetously fondled during the winter will now be brought into action.

BASEBALL SEASON HAS SUCCESSFUL START HERE

Baseball season is in full swing here with a number of games scheduled for every week by both the Brevard Institute and Brevard High school teams, according to Coach Tony Trantham and Coach Ernest Tilson.

Wednesday afternoon on the McLean field, Brevard Institute defeated Blue Ridge in an interesting game, the final score being 12-5. White and Mitchell covered the mound for the local aggregation while Rhodes pitched for Blue Ridge.

Thursday afternoon the Brevard Institute and the Brevard High school will play on the McLean field, game beginning at 4 o'clock.

Thursday April 7, the Brevard High school team was defeated in a game of ball on the Fruitland diamond, with the Fruitland High school by the score of 8-5.

Brevard Agriculture boys were defeated Wednesday afternoon by the Mills River Aggies by the score of 16-4.

HENDERSONVILLE B. P. W. C. CELEBRATES SIXTH YEAR

Mrs. Lodema Robinson, Miss Jeanette Talley and Mrs. S. R. Jones attended the sixth anniversary celebration of the Hendersonville Business and Professional Women's club representing the local club.

The annual meeting was held at the Hedgewell hotel Tuesday evening, with an unusually interesting program featuring the evening. Club members from Canton, Asheville and Brevard attended the meeting.

James F. Barrett, editor of the Brevard News was introduced to the gathering by Mrs. W. B. Byrd and he spoke on the development of the movement in this country for the participation of women in business and politics.

A CORRECTION

David Hamilin was tried in Superior court for writing a bad check and not for forgery as the News stated last week.

Fatal School Bus Wreck

Wilbur Hatcher, 15, was instantly killed and 13 children slightly injured, April 7, five miles east of Pittsboro, in the overturning of a school bus driven by Dewey Thomas. As the bus went up a hill it slipped out of gear. Brakes did not hold and the bus ran backward over a 15-foot embankment, landing on its top.

Heads Young Democrats

Mrs. W. Ney Evans, High Point, was on Saturday named vice-chairman of Young Democratic clubs of North Carolina, succeeding Mrs. James L. Scott, who is now executive secretary of the national organization.

SUPERIOR COURT IN ITS SECOND WEEK

Superior court in its second week has been clearing the civil docket, which included some rather important cases. Several visiting attorneys have been in Brevard this week, attending the sessions court. Judge Oglesby expressed delight in his work.

Judge Oglesby excused the jury Wednesday afternoon for the term. It is expected that Thursday will be taken up with motions, the signing up of judgments and the final arrangements for closing court.

A complete list of the cases tried and the results will be published in Brevard News next week.

RALPH LAND MAKES TRIP HORSEBACK

Ralph Land arrived in Brevard at noon Tuesday.

This item would be placed in the personal column if the above statement told all there is to tell about the arrival.

Ralph Land lives in Anderson, S. C., from which place he came to Brevard, and he made trip on horseback, and therein lies the news value of this information, which takes it out of the personal column and places it in the news column, as a news item.

Mr. Land is a son of L. R. Land, summer resident of Brevard, and one of the most popular members of the summer colony. The Lands own a summer home in Brevard, and have been coming here each summer for a great many years.

Young Mr. Land was a day and a half in making the horseback trip from Anderson to Brevard. Quite a lot of publicity has already been given the trip made by the young man.

534 PENNIES FOUND IN CLUB FRUIT JARS

Collections placed in the Penny Jars distributed in some twenty-five offices and business houses of the town were taken up Friday by a committee of Girl Scouts and the total receipts amounted to $5.34.

The business houses placing highest were The Canteen with 84 cents; Houston's furniture Co. 61 cents and Macfie's Drug store with 56 cents.

Other offices and business houses on the list include: Plummer Co., Ward's Barber Shop and News Stand, Joines Motor Co., Brevard News, Transylvania Times, Nobby Shop Beauty parlor, Sheriff's office, Broad Street A. & P., Main Street A. & P., County Superintendent's office, Dr. C. L. Newland's office, Long's Drug Store, Southern Public Utility, Robinson's Market, Simpson's Barber shop, Central Market, Nobby shop, Smith's Barber shop, Whiteway cleaners, City Hall and Spic and Span cleaners.

Officials of the Business and Professional Women's club urge you to drop a penny or so in one of the jars occasionally. You will notice one wherever you go bearing this inscription, "Drop Pennies here for Girl Scout Camp." "We'll see it through with pennies."

The Girl Scouts are doing an unusually splendid work here and to contribute to their camping fund would be one of the most profitable ways you could spend your money.

The local troops take a camping week every year, this year they plan to spend ten days at one of the local camps with time spent on Scout craft and other profitable interesting work.

CITIZENS MUST LIST OR RECEIVE PENALTY

"The citizens are slowly answering the call and drifting in to list their taxes," said one of the tax listers of the county and unless they get some action we shall be forced to use the penalty of the law," he declared.

Tax listing has been in progress in several sections of the county during the week and will continue Friday and Saturday April 15 and 16 and Monday April 18.

J. E. Clayton, list taker for the Brevard township has announced that he will be located in the commissioners room at the court house Friday and Saturday of this week and Monday of next week and he urges all citizens to meet him there to list their taxes.

VETERANS TO MEET THURSDAY EVENING

Post No. 2428 Veterans of Foreign Wars are called to meet at the County Court house Thursday evening to discuss several matters of importance including a Legislative program which bears upon the V. F. W. work. All members and prospective members are urged to be present.

CALL PRINCIPALS IN SPECIAL MEET

According to an announcement of Prof. J. B. Jones, Superintendent City-county schools, all Elementary school Principals have been called to meet with him at the Brevard High School building, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The Principals are urged to bring with them the results of the State examinations given the Seventh Grade pupils.

HOME ECONOMICS CLASS GIVE TEA AT ROSMAN

On Thursday, April 7, the second year home economics class gave a tea at which the seventh grade girls were guests. Tea and oatmeal cookies made by the class were served.

On Friday, April 8 and Monday, April 11, visitors and students were invited to visit the department to see the exhibition of the silk dresses made by the different classes. Prize ribbons were given to the three dresses in each class, Annie Moore won first prize, Elsie White, second; and Fannie Morgan, third prize.

In the first year class Beatrice Woodard, won first-prize, Ruth Green, second, and Thelma Galloway, third prize. Much interest was shown in both classes in the making and display of the dresses.

The department appreciates the service rendered by the judges.

ROSMAN SCHOOL NEWS

THE PAINS OF A STATE EXAM.

On the week after April fool, We are in a terrible scare; We feel that we are going to be kicked by mule, Because the State Exams are so near.

Now when you stand, a big state Exam, You don't feel quite so fine, Our teacher says we'll get along grand, But it may just be a line.

And then the teacher he does say, Get your paper and clear off your desk; For we are about to have a big state's test;

On the week after April fool say, G. C. McClure, Jr. Seventh grade.

WHEN SCHOOL IS OUT

When school is out, with a merry shout We'll take our books and go. Now we have learned some about The things we ought to know.

Lessons done, homeward run; Now's the time to play. Now's the time for lots of fun In a different sort of way.

Alfred Gillespie, Sixth Grade.

APRIL

March, our windy month, is gone, And April is hurrying along. Flowers are budding and blooming bright;

They spring up almost over night. The days, it seems, just slip away; I never have much time to play; But everything is bright and gay On every jolly April day.

Annic Whitmire, Sixth Grade.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

Tuesday morning, April 5, the boys of the Glee Club gave a play directed by Miss Jamison. It was called "Peanuts and Pennies." It was enjoyed very much by the students and the visitors.

Eula Mae Morris, Fifth Grade.

SPRING

Spring is here and we are glad, Because the wind is not so bad. Soon the flowers will bloom over the hills,

Bright red tulips and yellow daffodils. The birds are singing their songs at last.

And by that we know that winter has past. We wish that Spring would always stay,

Mary Singletary, Fifth Grade.

BIRD PUPS

We have six little bird pups. They are a month old. Three of them are white, and three are black and white. They are just now beginning to walk well. We will keep them six weeks and then let all go but one. Daddy dog hunts lots when the season is open, and he likes to train young dogs. It is lots of fun to see them work. We sometimes help teach them how to retrieve. They are called Llewelyn Setters. One of their ancestors is a very noted dog, which has won many prizes. His name is Champion Mars Guy. We have a picture of him painted by a noted artist.

Scott Galloway, Fifth Grade.

ROBINS

Robins are singing so sweetly now and they make me so happy. One day a Robin came to our roosebush. It looked all around and began to sing. Then it flew away and got some straw to make it a nest. When I go back to the roosebush I hope that I shall see some pretty little eggs.

Betty Lou McClure, Fourth Grade.

THE SCARLET TANGER

The Scarlet Tanager lives down in the low lands or among the oaken woods. You can tell them by their bright red feathers. Their wings and tail are black. They look so pretty in the dark green woods. Their homes are not very fine. They usually choose a small place in an oak or pine and build a shallow basket of coarse grass and sticks.

Fourth Grade.

A JOKE

Miss Henderson: (to Marie, who is not listening) What are you doing, Marie? Marie: Playing. Miss Henderson: Bring whatever you are playing with to me. Marie Wild: (timidly) Its, its my toes.

MY PET RABBIT

I have a pet rabbit. It is white. Yesterday it was hopping about the house. I ran after it but I could not catch it. One day I was holding it in my arms and it scratched me but it did not hurt me. I think the cat caught my pet last night for this morning I could not find it anywhere.

Elizabeth Sisk, Third Grade.

BIRDS

In the forest where the birds live there is work to do. The woodpecker is a carpenter. He climbs up and down the trees and chops a hole in one of them to make his home.

The crow flies down and walks about the fields. He is the birds' farmer. Toward evening he crows "caw
