PLUMMER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

That's What I Call REAL CO-OPERATION!

So said one of the best men of the county, when we explained to him how we replace Furniture purchased from us and

Destroyed By Fire Before It Is Paid For

This new plan reads in the contract that if any Furniture purchased from us is destroyed by fire before the same is paid for by the purchaser, that we are to replace such destroyed furniture with the same class of goods, WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE, providing that the purchaser has kept his or her payments up according to contract.

AND IF SICKNESS COMES---

To the head of the house, known as the earner, such purchaser will not be considered in arrears on payment for furniture up to Sixty Days from date of illness, if it lasts that long. In this way, we are taking care of the man who falls ill, and the same fine protection is given his furniture during his illness that is given to him while at his work. Further, still

IF DEATH COMES----

To the head of the house, either from illness or accident, during the life of this New Contract, ALL PAYMENTS REMAINING DUE THE HOUSTON FURNITURE COMPANY for furniture purchased under this contract are wiped from the books, and the widow and children will owe no more on these household goods.

You know our goods... You know our policy... We want you to know all about this fine new contract that means so much protection to you!
