IS THE WOMAN'S LEAGUE FOR REPEAL NON PARTISAN?

Announcement in Wednesday's Asheville Citizen that "Repeal Week" will be observed next week, beginning Wednesday, is interesting. Statement is made in the announcement that a "drive" for new members and contributions will be made. Further statement is that the organization of women, under Mrs. Bourne and Mrs. McInturff, "is non-partisan."

Is it non-partisan? If it is non-partisan, why did Robert R. Reynolds, candidate for the United States Senate on a wet platform, make all the arrangements for the appearance here a few weeks ago of Mrs. McInturff and former Congressman John H. Small? It is said that Mr. Reynolds is the gentleman who called ladies of Brevard, and made arrangements for the repealers, pleading with this one and that one to act as chairman of the meeting and introduce the speakers who were coming here under auspices of this same woman's league which is now declared to be "non-partisan."

Looks to us like this league is most partisan—in Mr. Reynolds' behalf. If not, why is that gentleman taking the lead in making the dates for the speakers who go out for the league. Senator Morrison is also candidate for re-nomination and re-election. He is not in favor of repeal, and he is not making dates for Mrs. McInturff, John Small, and so on. Tam Bowie is a candidate for nomination, running against Mr. Reynolds. He is not making any dates for the McInturff group. Frank D. Grist is also a candidate against Mr. Reynolds. He is not making dates for the McInturff group of repealers. Mr. Reynolds is the only avowed "wet" candidate among the Democratic aspirants to the Senatorship, and he is the only one of the number engaged in calling over long distance telephone, urging first this person and then another, to sponsor these wet meetings.

Far be it from us to dispute the word of a woman, but when the statement is made that the league is non-partisan while Capt. Bob Reynolds is doing the stage directing, there is at least a very serious doubt created in the mind of the average laymen as to the accuracy of the statement.

HIGHWAY 284 PROMISES MUCH FOR THIS SECTION.

Brevard is not alone in appreciating the promises of increased business as a result of competition of Highway 284. Waynesville sees good business for that section coming by way of this popular route. The Waynesville Mountaineer, always alert to the advancement of Haywood county, in speaking of this route this week, said:

When Highway 284 is paved, leading into Waynesville from Brevard and South Carolina, we will be connected with the section of the country from where most all the tourists come, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. This new improved highway will save approximately 70 miles for the tourists and will bring them over one of the most beautiful scenic highways east of the Rockies.

Waynesville is destined to become the highway center of Western North Carolina. We already have Highway No. 10, "Main Street of North Carolina," passing through here. When Highway No. 284 is paved and the Soco Gap road completed into the park, with Highway No. 209, which leads to Knoxville, and has always proved to be a popular drive with the tourists, these highways are certain to aid in bringing many tourists to Waynesville.

Very few cities the size of Waynesville can boast of as many leading highways entering and passing through their city as can Waynesville. Where there are lots of good roads and scenery as found in and near Waynesville the tourists will be found in large numbers.

Ruffin Wilkins is telling of a good customer who came into the Blue Bird last Saturday, ate 20 cones of cream, one after another, and then called for a pint of cream to take along with him, to eat on the way home. And that's the ice cream eating record.

North Carolina is again the lime-light Gaston G. Means, of Concord, obtained $18,000 from Mrs. McLean, promising return of the Lindbergh baby.

A large number of pre-school children took the diphtheria vaccination Monday.

Better do all you can for the golf course. You may not play golf, but the fact remains that your summer tourist business depends largely upon golf. Not many people are going to a resort town where there is no golf course. There is direct connection between the golf course here and your business, that is, if you hope to do business with the summer tourist.

Summer is upon us. Have you written to any of the people who were last year, or the year before, asking them to return to Brevard for the summer? There is no other method quite so effective as direct personal appeal to the summer tourist. You can help yourself and your city by taking the time to write a few letters to the people who have been with you before.
