Social Meetings

Tuesday night the 17th was ladies night at Marion Camp No. 189. They have a good Woodmen string band down there to furnish music for all Woodmen occasions.

The refreshments were good too. Hope they have another such meeting soon.

Camp No 606 Catawba proved they too could entertain the ladies on Saturday night the 21st. After my address, refreshments were served with good old lemonade, to chase down the ham sandwiches. Cigars were passed around, then around 10:00 o'clock a crowd from Hickory arrived and square dance started.

Hickory Camp No. 80 will hold their regular monthly social meeting Friday night the 27th. After program a square dance will be held in lodge room. Visiting Woodmen always welcome at Hickory.

Lewis Says

"One-third of 1932 is gone. To keep pace with the other states we must work twice as hard from now on. Will you do it?" "We shall see."

Our New District Officers

We would like to hear from E. L. Holt, president and A. M. vice-president of the Western N. C. Log Rolling Association. Tell us your plans for promoting Woodcraft during your term of office.

Financial Secretaries Report

If you secretaries will report your local W. O. W. News to me we can make this column worth while. The members over district tell me they look forward to hearing about happenings in our district through the Brevard-News.

Rodhiss Camp News

The members of Ivey Camp No. 799 met at the hall Sunday May 21st and marched in a body to the Rodhiss Baptist church services. The pastor, Rev. W. D. Easley preached a masterful fraternal sermon from the subject "Who is My Neighbor." The sermon was greatly enjoyed by all the sovereigns. We also had as our guests members of the Hudson camp, and many of the Juniors of Rodhiss also marched with us. We are planning to visit other churches in our community in the near future.

A little booklet that may SAVE YOU from an AUTO ACCIDENT

It's brief. It's interesting. It contains the high lights from an extensive study of a class of accidents that cost 34,400 lives last year—nearly a million injuries. There's no charge for it. The facts are set forth strikingly—some in pictures clearer than words, some in charts which can be grasped at a glance. Whether you drive or walk, the booklet will provide valuable information. A limited supply has just been received from The Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Connecticut. Call, phone or write for a copy of "Tremendous Trifles." If the demand exceeds the supply, we will order additional copies and send you yours with as little delay as possible.
