PISGAH FOREST IS STILL ON THE TOP

Pisgah Forest still holds the lead in the Sylvan League by trouncing Penrose Saturday in a seven inning game of score 13 to 6. The game was called in the seventh inning because of rain. Neither side had a run through the third inning. Then Pisgah came in for a stampede and smothered pitcher Drakes twirling for nearly a dozen runs. "Lanky" Williams came in as relief and checked the flood of hits. Penrose came in for a rally in the fifth and shattered Pisgah's defense counting four runs here and two in the sixth.

Score by innings:

Penrose	.000	042	0xx	- 6	8	4
Pisgah	.000	920	2xx	-13	14	4

The public is cordially invited to use the road and come to our church and Sunday school.

We earnestly urge all who are interested in the Reid cemetery to be on hand Saturday afternoon July 2 to help in the work of cultivating the flowers. We have neglected it too long already.

PROF. TROWBRIDGE HEARD HERE SUNDAY

Prof. C. H. Trowbridge, president of one of Western North Carolina's foremost Christian educational institutions, Weaver College and for 23 years Superintendent of the Brevard Institute filled the pulpit at the Brevard Methodist church, Sunday morning.

Rev. J. H. West, pastor of the church in announcing the speaker declared that by a new provision of the Methodist council it was advised to have an educational Sunday every quarter to discuss various phases of educational work.

Mr. Trowbridge delivered a powerful sermon challenging the young people to aspire to higher educations in christian institutions of the state.

PLAY A SUCCESS

"Fine!" "Excellent!" "Good!" were some of the remarks praising the splendid presentation of the play, "The Hoodooed Coon" at Penrose Saturday night. In spite of the rain and mud there was a good attendance and the ball club realized a neat little sum to help out of debt and carry on the good old ball sport for the rest of the season. The usual good order at Penrose exercises was noticed and is to be commended. Members of the cast for the play are expecting to carry this excellent comedy to other places for presentation. The thanks of the manager go to everyone who helped to make this play a success.

STATEMENT

By

R. T. Fountain

My position upon the present road law has been misrepresented.

The people have been told that I am against working the County Roads by the state. This is a false statement.

I am in favor of the present road law and, if elected Governor will use my influence to retain the present law maintaining the State and County roads by the State Highway Commission.
