Thomas Girls Appeared As Witnesses in Case — Tragedy Occurred 10 Days Ago

Clifford Fisher was bound to the December term of Superior court here Monday morning by Justice of the Peace, H. E. Erwin who heard the preliminary evidence charging him with the murder of Will J. Fisher. Fisher was confined in the county jail upon failure to make the $20,000 bond required by Justice Erwin.

T. Coleman Galloway and W. E. Brees appeared for the state while Lewis P. Hamlin was the defense counsel.

Clifford Fisher charged with attacking Will J. Fisher Sunday evening July 3 and mortally wounding him so that he died early Tuesday morning July 5 as a result of the wounds inflicted by his relative is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fisher of Reids Siding and is 22 years of age.

Edwin Owen, star witness for the state testified little evidence other than that revealed in the coroner's inquest held Tuesday July 5. The witness declared that as he was passing the home of Ben Thomas, where the tragedy occurred, about seven o'clock Sunday evening on the way to church accompanied by Misses Nettie and Ruth Thomas he heard the commotion at the house and paused in the road approximately 25 yards from the scene. He testified that he saw Will Fisher stumble from the door after a shove or blow delivered by Clifford Fisher and fall on his hands and knees at the foot of the steps. The witness stated that Will Fisher started around the house and was followed by Clifford Fisher who knocked him down with a blunt instrument that appeared to be the witness to be either of wood or iron. He said that Clifford picked his victim up from the ground and knocked him down a second time by a blow with the instrument in the side of the head. Breaking Faith With the Schools of State to Keep Faith With N. Y. Banks

(By Tom Bost In The Greensboro News)

Raleigh, July 12—Proposed salary slashes, rated the most popular official pastime in Raleigh, appeared today to be at least doubtful enough among the rulers to make them give ear to school leaders all over North Carolina and they will be here tomorrow to present the other sides to the advisory budget commission and the council of state.

Must Balance Budget
The solemn session today, precipitated by a recently published letter of State Treasurer John P. Stedman, considered the suggestions of Mr. Stedman that the state cut $7,000,000 from its $50,000,000 appropriations and "balance the budget." To get this perfect financial Fairbanks it is necessary to cut heavily and illegally into the teachers' salaries, into all states employees' salaries and wages, then into the appropriations. This paring has gone along steadily for three years. The 1931 appropriations have been reduced to 70 per cent. And the reduction now proposed takes the total down to 60 per cent.

So far, so bad. The public has not cared deeply about it. It is quite conceivable that the populace can look without weeping upon larger salary and appropriations cuts. But not until the current conference of the financiers has the real reason been disclosed. These slashes are not made in behalf of the terribly over-taxed people but in the interest of North Carolina's unimpaired credit. The heavy cuts are to be ordered to make possible "curtailment" of state obligations and to retire the state's obligations in the usual way.

Cut For Teachers Illegal
The teachers in the state are protected by statute from this attack on

CITIZENS WANT TOWN AND COUNTY TO TAKE BONDS IN PAYMENT HIGHWAY 284 AND 28 NOW DESIGNATED AS FEDERAL HIGHWAYS

On Back Taxes, Street Assessments And Other Public Obligations.

EXCEPTING, OF COURSE, PAYMENT CURRENT TAXES

Pointed Out That Bonding Company Paid Buncombe With Its Bonds.

Many citizens of Brevard and Transylvania county continue discussion of the question of paying off back taxes, street assessments and other public obligations of private citizens with county and town bonds. It is pointed out that such course is being followed in other towns, cities and counties in the state, and there is a very marked sentiment in this county and the town of Brevard for such payment plan.

Announcement that Buncombe county accepted Buncombe county bonds at par from an insurance company in payment of the bonds of L. L. Jenkins, former county treasurer of Buncombe, has caused the question to be renewed here with emphasis. Buncombe county obtained judgment against the bonding company that covered former County Treasurer Jenkins, and now that Buncombe county accepted its own bonds at par, when they are selling at much less than fifty cents on the dollar, is basis for the oft-repeated question here of Original Federal System Started Eleven Years Ago Now Completed.

BEING FEDERAL SYSTEM HAS MANY ADVANTAGES

Another Step Toward Completion Of 884 Through Pisgah Forest.

After eleven years of intensive road building in North Carolina, the original Federal system of highways adopted in 1921 have been completed in the state, and all Federal highways designated. Of particular interest to Brevard and Transylvania county is the inclusion in the Federal Highway System of 284 and 28, two of this county's main lines.

Highway 284 will be known, from Travelers Rest in South Carolina, to Brevard, North Carolina, as Federal Route No. 276. Federal signs have been requisitioned and will be placed on these highways at once. Placement of 284 in the Federal Highway system, with signs at Travelers Rest giving this information, will bring many travelers from the South into Brevard. It is known that tourists follow Federal routes almost entirely during recent years, hence the importance to this section of the designation of 28 and 284 as Federal Routes.

No. 28 will be known as Federal

BOOTLEGGERS SAID TO BE MULTIPLYING RAPIDLY IN CANADA

Government Liquor Control In Canada Has Created Regular Bootlegger's Paradise.

NEWSPAPERS AND COURT OFFICIALS EXPRESS ALARM

Each Hotel Has An Average of 100 Blind Pigs—Prostitution Also.

Hear the verdict of Attorney-General Craig of Manitoba:

"Retail bootlegging has increased, due to the removal of the first main difficulty of anyone proposing to deal illicitly with liquor, namely, the obtaining of supplies, a condition intensified by the fact that in addition to all former avenues of supply, such unlawful trafficker can now lawfully purchase liquor (from the government) which he intends for resale, particularly in districts where obtaining liquor previously was always difficult and frequently impossible."

The Vancouver, British Columbia, World says that liquor "control" there has created a "bootleggers' paradise."

"Has not the time arrived to put an end to the unenviable position which British Columbia has achieved as headquarters of the bootlegging business? Rum-runners, gunmen, thugs and all of the parasites who thrive in the mission of the underworld of the Pacific Coast are fostered by the policy now in force."

The Vancouver Sun, in the issue of October 3, 1927, said:

"The open operation of bootlegging joints in this city is a disgrace to Vancouver. There are bootleggers here so confident that they will deliver liquor to an unfamiliar address on a telephone order from any unknown person. They will openly carry bottles of liquor across the street in broad daylight to waiting automobiles. . . . Vancouver at the present time is a bootleggers' haven."

The Mayor of Winnipeg, Mr. R. H. Webb, has declared that:

"For every hotel there is in the city, there are 100 blind pigs where hard liquor is sold by the drink."

Judge Stubbs, of the County Court of the same city said:

"In some sections of Winnipeg, bootleggers are as thick as fleas on a dog's back."

Judge Codrre, of the Supreme Court of Quebec, in an official report upon conditions in that city, said:

"The proof reveals that in defiance to the bylaws, certain of these establishments (cafes) and naturally the least recommendable, remain

MRS. SMITH TELLS INQUIRIES COMING

"I receive an unusually large number of inquiries concerning Brevard and Transylvania county every day," said Mrs. John Smith who has charge of the Brevard Chamber of Commerce at the U. D. C. Library in a recent interview with the Brevard News.

"Rarely a days has passed during the past few weeks," she said, "that I have not placed one or more families in a boarding house or summer home for either a visit of several weeks or more."

Mrs. Smith has announced that she will release her month's report next week and it is expected to reveal a goodly number of tourists from distant points who have retreated to Brevard during the heat waves.

Mrs. Smith has had considerable experience in this type of work and under her able direction and supervision the Chamber of Commerce information department is proving distinctly valuable to large numbers of tourists and transients.

BOB REYNOLDS GOT BIGGEST VOTE EVER POLLED IN PRIMARY

Official Count Gives Asheville Man 107,463 Majority Over Morrison.

EHRINGHAUS MAJORITY IS SURPRISINGLY LOW

Fight Declared To Have Been Hardest Political Contest In History.

Raleigh, July 14—John Christopher Blucher Ehringhaus was declared the Democratic nominee for Governor. Robert Rice Reynolds for United States Senator, and Arthur L. Fletcher for Commissioner of Labor by the State Board of Elections, in session for that purpose here.

The official vote for the second primary, July 2, for Senate follows:

Short Term
Reynolds	227,864
Morrison	120,428

Reynolds	107,463
Total votes	348,292

Long Term
Reynolds	221,865
Morrison	116,912

Reynolds	105,857
Total votes	357,881

Governor
Ehringhaus	182,055
Fountain	168,917

Ehr. majority	13,138
Total votes	350,972

Commissioner of Labor
Fletcher	184,203
Mitchell	114,072

Flet. majority	70,131
Total votes	298,275

These figures tell the story of two of the hardest State-wide intra-party simultaneous fights in the history of politics in North Carolina. They show that Reynolds won over Cameron Morrison by the largest vote ever cast in a Democratic primary, which vote surprised even the most hopeful Reynolds followers. Reynolds himself, in his most sanguine moments, would not have claimed half the 107,463 majority he received. They also show that Richard T. Fountain came up from under a 47,000 lead in the first primary to within 13,000 of Ehringhaus, also a surprise. A majority for Major Fletcher over Clarence E. Mitchell was expected, the extent uncertain.

The total vote for Governor fell about 41,000 behind the nearly 390,000 cast in the first primary, but held up better than was expected.

But the hatchet has been buried and the winners and losers have es-

TWO MEET DEATH IN MOTORCYCLE WRECK

Louie Moon, 22 of Columbia, S. C. was instantly killed and Tom Grumble of Greenville, S. C. was fatally injured at 11 o'clock Sunday morning 12 miles south of Brevard on the Brevard-Greenville highway when the motorcycle in which they were riding crashed headlong into an automobile.

The motorcycle crashed into an automobile driven by D. D. Harris of Greenville as they were rounding a sharp curve. The motorcycle was driven by Moon and Grumble was riding as a passenger on the rear of the machine.

Harris who is a summer resident of Cedar Mountain was not injured. The motorcycle ran under the automobile and both vehicles caught fire and were badly burned.

Grumbles was rushed to a Greenville hospital where he later died from a fractured skull.

A coroner's jury Sunday afternoon absolved Harris of any blame in connection with the accident.

Baptist Bible School Children to Open Annual Vacation Event with a Parade

Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, July 15th, is the date set for registration of children who expect to attend the Daily Vacation Bible School at the Baptist church. The first lessons in handwork will probably be given immediately after the registration.

At 4:00 o'clock a parade through the business section will be participated in by the children. If automobiles are available the children will ride in automobiles during the parade.

Since the last announcements in this paper many inquiries have been received asking if children of other denominations than Baptist may attend the school. The principal, Rev. Mack Grogan, announces that the school is for all boys and girls between the ages of 7 and 17 regardless of denomination. Visiting children who expect to be in Brevard during the two weeks of the school are also given the same invitation. "Plans are being made to take care of every boy and girl in Brevard who comes," announces the principal.

The school is absolutely free to all children. An offering will be taken on the night of the commencement program when all parents and friends interested in the school may contribute what they wish to help defray the expenses.

About one hundred boys and girls who have already said they were coming to the school have been asked to bring anything they can find about their homes which can be used for making small toys, doll furniture, small book shelves and other useful articles. The boys were asked to bring

Pasture and Feed Production Is Basis Of Real Profitable Livestock Industry

BY J. F. CORBIN

The basis of all permanent profitable live stock industry is pasture and feed production. Pastures should be started and feed grown before we get very much stock on hand. The next two months should be a very busy time with farmers sowing pasture grass and hay mixtures. Perhaps the grasses and clovers for pastures should be sown in next 30 days and the mixtures of small grain and vetch, Austrian peas, etc. sown a little later or about September.

Pastures are of two kinds: Temporary pastures are composed of mixture of small grains together with clovers or vetch. Permanent pastures are more important and a mixture of the following grasses and clovers are generally used: red top grass, orchard grass, blue grass, alsike and white clover, and lespedeza sown on this the following spring. Lime and superphosphate are just as essential as the seed.

When it comes to hay production I know of no better way than to sow a mixture of small grain and clovers together. I call this my "Hay special". Select a rich piece of land, generally this years potato land if dug in August. Broadcast in manure, cut with disc harrow, and drill the following seeds per acre: 1-2 bu. wheat, 1-2 bu. barley, 1-2 bu. rye, 10 lbs. vetch, and 15 lbs. Austrian peas. No, I did not make a mistake about sowing this per acre. If the above is done right and has good luck it will likely make as much high quality hay as a pair of horses will eat in one year. The mixture should be sown about first 15 days of September.
