WE HAVE A FRIEND

By Mrs. B. F. ORR

There is a friend who sticketh closer than a brother

A brother may be a friend in need But there is one who is closer still, He sticketh when we are in the mire And when we are very, very ill.

This Inn is beyond the shifting sads And dwell with Him forever more.

He never stops on half way ground, Up the rugged steps of time, He'll be a friend to you.

Neither powers-heights nor depths Can ever separate Those who put their trust in Him From this friend so great.

The furnace it was very hot, pleasures and pain, the inger and Heat it hotter seven times plenty of two young was in love Make it a fortitude of Hell.

> This friend he didn't dread a bit The mass of burning flames, The Hebrew children to rescue Because they loved his name.

He who to the lions' den was sent.

Daniel knew about this friend,

Because he prayed three times a day In that den the night was spent. But this friend, this precious friend, Did he forsake him? No! He locked the jaws, the lions' jaws,

Moses knew this Faithful friend When the bush the flames surrounded He took the shoes from his feet, Because he stood on Holy ground.

He led the people all the way Into the Promised land, On Mount Nebo's lofty heights

And let poor Daniel go.

Was buried by His hand. This subject's getting awful broad I cannot comprehend The thoughts that fill my mind just

About this precious Friend.

I think of Noah, who built the Ark, And Enoch, who walked with God, Abraham, who's faith was tried, And Aaron with a buddied rod.

I think of Joseph, who was sold And Job with patience tried, When in the world they travelled through

Our Friend was by their side. -Let earthly friends forsake me now, This Friend is mine, I know, I will not worry, dread or fear.

I'd be so glad if He would come In clouds at midnight hour, And take us home to live with Him

What a Friend we have in Jesus. All our sins and grief to bear. What a privilege to carry

Closer than a Brother.
