

REPUBLICANS NAME LYDAY FOR SHERIFF IN O. H. ORR'S PLACE

Lumber company here. Mr. Shipman is one of the best know farmers of the county, having attained unusual success in his own enterprises. He is known in every section of the county.

As the Republican ticket now stands for the various offices, the following are the list of candidates:

Legislature: Rev. S. B. McCall.
 Sheriff: Will A. Lyday.
 Treasurer: W. U. Merrill.
 County Commissioners: Dr. E. S. English, E. O. Shipman, E. A. Glazener.

Register of Deeds: Mrs. Roland Owen.

The Democratic ticket is as follows:

Legislature: M. W. Galloway.
 Sheriff: T. S. Wood.
 Treasurer: O. L. Erwin.
 County Commissioners: W. B. Henderson, L. V. Sigmon, W. L. Aiken.
 Register of Deeds: Jess A. Galloway.

Mr. Orr made the following statement to The Brevard News, when asked as to his action in declining the nomination:

"While it was well known that I did not ask for the nomination in the beginning, and asked the convention to name someone else, I appreciated the honor, nevertheless, and wish that conditions were such as would make it possible for me to accede to the wishes of my friends. I told the executive committee last Thursday at a called meeting just why I cannot make the race for sheriff. My business affairs are simply in such condition that it is impossible for me, in justice to myself, my family, and the party, to wage the campaign. I believe that Mr. Lyday is a good man, and will make equally as good a race as I would make. So, while thanking everyone for the interest shown in me, I hope that all of you understand me when I again say that it is simply impossible for me to make the race for sheriff."

With the election but two months off, it is expected that both parties will soon begin their active campaigns. R. L. Nicholson is chairman of the Republican county executive committee, while Wm. E. Breece is chairman of the Democratic county executive committee.

SUMMER CAMPS NOW CLOSING SEASON IN TRANSYLVANIA CO.

fully realized the importance to its very existence of these summer camps. Now that they are dismantling and the campers are leaving, and going with them are many tourists who came here because of the camps, the people of the community may take notice of the changed appearance of the town and its activities, and know something of the bigness of the summer camp business in Brevard.

While the camps are in session but two months in the year, the camp directors are advertising this section all the time. They will begin at once on next year's work, and from now until next May the camp officials will be singing the praises of Brevard and Transylvania county all over the country, advertising for next year's campers.

Suggestion has been made that the community should join in the effort of advertising its appeal, even as the camps are doing. It will pay.

HIGH HONORS COME TO LEWIS P. HAMLIN AT MOREHEAD CITY

been active in politics, having served as county chairman, district chairman, and was a candidate for congress. In 1929 he was minority leader in the North Carolina legislature.

Members of the Junior Order in Brevard and Transylvania county have been waging a campaign for Mr. Hamlin for a number of years to have him selected as state officer in the organization. These were joined by other council members in Western Carolina, and after a heated campaign a year ago, Mr. Hamlin was elected over two other candidates as State Vice Councillor, and elected Councillor this week by acclamation.

The Junior Order now has a council in every county in the state, and has made an enviable record during the past year. It is expected to continue its growth during the coming year under direction of Mr. Hamlin. The order has established at Lexington, North Carolina, one of the great schools of the south in which the children of deceased members are supported and educated. Mr. Hamlin has had much to do with establishment of this home and its successful operation.

S. C. ELKIN DIES AT LITTLE RIVER HOME

S. C. Elkin, 78 years of age, died at his home in Little River Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock, and funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the Little River Baptist church, of which the deceased was an active member. Services conducted by Rev. Walter Holtzclaw and Rev. John Scott.

Mr. Elkin is survived by his widow, and several brothers. He was a native of Madison county, but lived in this county for a great many years, and was among the most highly respected men of the community. A large number of friends gathered at the Little River church to pay their last tribute to their departed friend.

MANY CASES HEARD IN MAYOR'S COURT

This week has been a busy one for the Mayor's court, more cases having appeared on the docket than for any similar period for more than two months.

The cases on the docket include 3 cases of drunkenness, 1 of disorderly conduct, 2 fighting cases, one of them between two white boys and the other two negroes. There was one case of interference with the fire department. The miscreant was fined $10.

The gambling case involved six persons.

When All Other Efforts Fail Transylvania County Can Return to Agriculture and Stock Raising

Industry is good in any community, so long as the industrial plant is in operation and there is a market for the manufactured product.

The Tourist business is a good thing so long as tourists come during the season, and patronize the hotels, boarding houses, and so on.

But the one safe and certain avenue of wealth and independence always open to the people of Transylvania County is that of

Agriculture and Livestock

Nature endowed this section in abundant manner with everything that is necessary to successful Farming and Profitable Stock Raising. All that man has to do is apply the necessary work and leadership.

Proper Seed for the Crop; Proper Feed For the Stock.

Plus the necessary work, and an independent living is here for any man who is willing to apply his efforts, his energies and his intellect. We love to talk with Farmers about Farming. We like to talk about Seeds, and Fertilizers, and all the things necessary to successful farming. We like to talk with farmers and stock raisers about Feeds, and all the things that go into the making of good Livestock. We like to talk to you about anything that interests the Farmer, for the Farmers' interests are our interests. So come in, and tell us what you know, and ask us about anything that we know.
