

SCHOOL FORCES IN SESSION SATURDAY HEAR SUGGESTIONS

Plan for Year's Work That Is to Severely Test Ability to Perform.

ALLIED FORCES, TEACHERS BUS DRIVERS, AT MEET

Fine Spirit of Determination to Carry On Is Seen in the Meetings.

A meeting of the allied forces of education of Transylvania county was held at the Brevard High School auditorium Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Those in attendance included the principals and teachers of the county schools, county commissioners, members of the board of education and parents.

Rev. J. H. West, president of the Ministerial association represented the ministers of the town. O. L. Erwin as chairman of the Board of county commissioners addressed the group and he stressed this statement throughout his talk, "We, the county commissioners are in favor of good schools, to the best of our ability to pay."

Mr. A. M. Paxton, chairman of the Rosman school committee spoke, representing the county school committee. Dr. C. L. Newland made a short talk on the health work that is being done in the county, and plans for future work. Dr. Newland is county health officer.

Mrs. S. P. Verner, president of the Parent-Teacher association spoke for the parents and teachers of the county and she expressed a number of thought-provoking ideas. Prof. J. F. Corbin spoke on Vocational education for several minutes.

At 11 o'clock a meeting of the Elementary school principals and teachers was held, at which time plans for the school year were made and new plans outlined.

The high school teachers held their meeting at 3 o'clock and a number of plans were discussed for the year's work.

Several important suggestions were stressed at 4 o'clock when the bus drivers held their annual meeting including: Safety first on all buses, good behavior of pupils on buses at all times.

It was suggested and decided for all bus drivers to make minor repairs

(Continued on Back Page)

SOME INDICATION MILL WILL RE-OPEN

In line with the upward trend in the business and industrial world hope is held out for the reopening of the Pisgah Mills, of this city. While officials of the company are not in position to make any definite promises at the present time there is evidence of something "in the air." It is understood that they have about sold all the products now on hand and if orders continue to be received it will be necessary to reopen the mill in order to fill them.

JUNIORS TO HONOR HAMLIN IN MEETING

Local Man's Elevation to State Councillor Source of Pride Here.

Officers and members of Transylvania Council, Junior Order, are planning a big special meeting for this coming Saturday night, at which time Hon. Lewis P. Hamlin, recently elected State Councillor of the Junior Order, will be the guest of honor. Members of the Junior Order in this county are appreciative of the high honors brought to the organization here through the great recognition given Mr. Hamlin, and this special meeting will provide the local council with opportunity to properly celebrate the occasion.

Mr. Hamlin has long been one of the most active members of Transylvania Council, Junior Order. He has served as councillor here, and worked in whatever position he occupied for the advancement of the order. The fact that he has been placed at the head of this great group which has more than fifty thousand members in North Carolina is indication of the interest that he has taken in the order.

It is expected that a record-breaking crowd will greet Mr. Hamlin Saturday night here in his home council, to join in properly honoring the man who has brought such distinctive honor to his home council and to his community.

MANY TO GET JOBS IN PISGAH FOREST

Government to Spend $54,000 On Roads, Trails, and Towers.

Workmen will receive more than fifty thousand dollars of federal money to be spent in the Pisgah National Forest, beginning about September 15, according to reports coming from M. A. Mattoon supervisor of Pisgah National Forest. Allotment of $109,000 has been made by the United States government for building roads, trails and lookout towers in the Pisgah and Nantahala National Forests. Of this allotment, $54,000 will be spent in the Pisgah National Forest, according to Mr. Mattoon.

Jobs will be spread out, giving work to as many men as possible, Mr. Mattoon says, and men desiring to work in the Pisgah Forest section should apply to the man in charge at Pisgah Forest about September 15. Men with families, and ex-service men are to be given preference in employment of the workers, the announcement says as the work is embraced in the government's general plan of relief for the unemployment.

PSYCHOLOGIST IS HEARD IN BREVARD

Dr. Fred B. Smith last night delivered the last of a series of three lectures on Psychology, the first of which was given on Monday night to an audience of more than one hundred. The attendance had swelled to about one hundred and fifty the second evening while approximately two hundred heard the last address of this noted authority on Psychology.

Dr. Smith was introduced by Mrs. Flax Lawrence, following a solo by Miss Edna Mae Saltz.

Dr. Smith assured his listeners at the outset that his teachings would not conflict with their present beliefs but would strengthen them. His first lecture on the "Use of the Subconscious Mind," and "The Laws the Master Used."

On Tuesday evening he spoke on "How the Mind Cures" and "Drawing on Universal Consciousness for Power." During the course of his remarks he performed some Psychological feats in illustration of his remarks. He stated that many had expressed a desire to go into a thorough study of Psychology and if a sufficient number could be interested to make it worth while he would conduct a class at the Waltermire Hotel where he is staying while in the city.

His lectures were closed last night with a discussion of the subject, "Personal Magnetism, the Greatest Power on Earth" and "How to Satisfy the Great Yearning of Humanity."

LETTER FROM SIMS TELLS OF TREATMENT

In a letter dated August 24, from Eck L. Sims, addressed to the editor of The Brevard News, the popular young Brevard man stated that he had not received at that time the operation for which he entered the Veteran's Hospital in Memphis. There were several men ahead of Mr. Sims, awaiting operations, the latter stated. He says he is well pleased with the treatment accorded him, and pays high tribute to the physicians and attendants in the hospital.

Mr. Sims will be in the hospital for another sixty days, probably, and while he did not ask it in his letter, The Brevard News is confident that he would appreciate a letter or a card from any and all of his friends here at home. His address is United States Veterans Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Sims is one of the most popular young men of the county, and has friends in all sections of the country who are anxious for him to receive his operation, recuperate and return home at the earliest possible moment.

ARREST YOUNG MEN ON SERIOUS CHARGE

William Jordan and Alton Ashworth were placed under arrest by the sheriff's department Wednesday, and lodged in the county jail, charged with breaking into the summer home of Mrs. Charles Cook, on the Country Club road. The alleged house-breaking is said to have been committed early in the Autumn of 1931. Mrs. Cook returned to Brevard recently, and gave a description of the missing articles, which were located by the officers. It is said that most of the missing articles were found at the home of Jordan.

A dressing table, several quilts and blankets, dishes, and so on, were among the missing articles, according to the report made to the officers, most of which was recovered.

Great Throng Gathered at Rocky Hill Home-Coming Day Sunday

Home-coming Day observed at Rocky Hill Baptist church last Sunday was pronounced by many to have been one of the most successful events of its kind ever held in Western North Carolina. Rev. Joe Wood opened the program with devotionals, and the opening song was by the Cedar Mountain quartet. Robert Summey, of Greenville, delivered an inspiring address, which was followed by Walter Jones' quartet. J. W. Burns led in a song service, and at the 11 o'clock hour the Rev. A. L. Vaughn preached a powerful sermon that made deep impression upon the great crowd that had come from the four corners of the country for the day's celebration. A quartet made up of Misses Carrie Jones, Dixie Jones, Vera Jones and Mr. Perry Burns delighted the crowd with singing. Short addresses were then made by Walter Taylor and Sam Hodges.

At the noon hour a picnic dinner was spread, and every one called to the table. Although the crowd was large, there was sufficient food for double the number present.

After the dinner hour there were many songs, after which Adger Bishop, a former resident of the community but now living in Greenville, delivered a forceful address. This was followed by one of the most enjoyable song numbers of the day, when the Bishop quartet sang. In this quartet were Miss Jennie Bishop, Mrs. A. E. Smith (formerly Miss Bishop), Will and Raymond Bishop, Ernest Dunn was then introduced, and made an appealing speech to the great crowd of people. Cedar Mountain quartet, led by Walter Jones, sang several numbers.

The principal speaker of the day was then heard when James F. Barrett spoke on the spirit of the home-coming event. C. O. Green, the "singiest Georgia Cracker in cap-

(Continued from Page One)

REV. O. L. ORR Of Plum Branch, S. C., who was principal speaker at the Orr Reunion last Sunday.

WORKERS COUNCIL IN MONTHLY MEET

The Sunday school Workers' Council meeting of the Baptist church held their regular meeting at eight o'clock Tuesday evening at the church. With 45 teachers and officers present this was one of the best attended meetings held in some time.

These meetings are held each month for the purpose of planning the work of the Sunday school for the coming month. Much enthusiasm is shown in the meetings which is a source of encouragement and it is believed that it will tend to make a bigger and better Sunday school.

The meeting was presided over by the general superintendent, F. Brown Carr, who expressed great pleasure in the large attendance and the intense interest shown in the work.

MOON OBSCURES THE SUN FOR A WHILE

America's millions watched with interest the passing of the moon yesterday between the earth and the sun, producing what is called an eclipse. With properly smoked glasses the great spectacle was clearly visible.

Two thousand years before Christ was born an eclipse of the sun was recorded. Two Chinese astronomers, recording the eclipse, were declared by the powers to be drunk, and were beheaded because they made the recording. Since that time eclipse of the sun has been recorded from time to time.

HOUSTON BUYS THE LOWE PROPERTY ON EAST MAIN

A. H. Houston has purchased the Lowe residence on East Main street, extension, the sale having been made through the office of Judson McCrary real estate dealer. The Lowe property is one of the most attractive places in Brevard, and its purchase by Mr. Houston is another evidence that real estate activity here is on the upward trend.

W. A. WILSON HOME AFTER TRIP TO CINCINNATI

W. A. Wilson, county welfare officer, and his father, R. G. Wilson, were in Cincinnati Saturday to visit Mr. Wilson's brother, who is ill. They drove through, leaving here Friday and returning Sunday. Mr. Wilson reports that they left Cincinnati Sunday morning at 4:30 o'clock, and arrived at their home in Rosman at 5:30 Sunday afternoon.

ROBERT PLUMMER ENTERS BUSINESS

Will Open New Department Store in the Tinsley Building.

Robert H. Plummer has leased the first floor of the Tinsley Building, and will open a Department store there on Saturday, September 10. Mr. Plummer will begin work on the storeroom today as the Blue Bird Ice Cream parlor moves out.

Mr. Plummer states that a complete line of men's clothing and furnishings, women's ready-to-wear, children's clothing, and shoes for all, will be carried in stock. In other words, he says, the store will be a complete department store.

Fixtures have been ordered and will be installed within the next few days. Mr. Plummer is experienced in merchandising and in handling merchandise. He has had experience in both wholesale and retail mercantile lines. He states that he is an independent store, not being connected with any other enterprise in the town.

Complete details of the formal opening of the R. H. Plummer Company will be given in next week's Brevard News.

LOCAL WOMEN AT BLUE RIDGE MEET

Several local club members from here were in attendance at the meeting of the Southeast Regional conference of the National Federation of Business and Professional Clubs which was held in Blue Ridge August 25 to the 28, inclusive. Among those attending were Mrs. Lodema Robertson, Miss Eunice Simpson and Miss Myrtle Barnett.

Mrs. Mary Jane McCrary was in a round table discussion which was presided over by Miss Myrtle Elean LaBarr, who is publicity chairman. The Asheville Business and Professional Women's club acted as hostess to this, the first regional conference held.

DENTAL CLINIC IS NOW IN OPERATION

A four week's dental clinic for the benefit of school children between the ages of six and twelve opened at the Grammar school building Monday morning, according to Prof. J. B. Jones, city-county superintendent. This dental clinic which is being held at the expense of the state board of health will operate in Brevard for two weeks. It will be held at the Rosman school the week of Sept. 12-16 and at the Pisgah Forest Elementary school during the week of Sept. 19-23.

SCHOOL BOARD TO MEET NEXT MONDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education will be held at the office of Prof. J. B. Jones, city-county superintendent Monday, according to Mr. Jones.

All students who desire transfers from one school district to another are urged to make their requests at this meeting. This also applies to students who wish to transfer from one school bus line to another. Such requests will be considered at Monday's meeting.

CARR LUMBER CO. MAY RESUME WORK

Mr. Louis Carr Left Wednesday For New Mexico for Few Weeks.

Mr. Louis Carr, head of the Carr Lumber company at Pisgah Forest, left Wednesday for New Mexico, where the local concern has other large operations in the lumber business. Mr. Carr spent several days here, and reports a strengthening tone in the lumber business, orders showing gradual increase.

The Carr Lumber company has not been operating on full time for many months, but ran the works as long as there was available space for stacking lumber. A large number of people have been employed by the Pisgah Forest concern, and the entire community has felt the effects of curtailment made necessary during the last few months in the lumber company's activities.

Intimation is made that upon Mr. Carr's return to Brevard within the next few weeks, the plant will start operations. This is predicated, however, it is pointed out, upon consummation of plans being made at the present time.

SPAINHOUR ADDED TO HIGH FACULTY

Prof. C. F. Spainhour, Jr., son of C. F. Spainhour, prominent Morganton attorney and former solicitor of this judicial district has been secured by the county to teach English II and English III in the Brevard High School, according to Prof. J. B. Jones, city-county superintendent.

Mr. Spainhour received his B. A. and M. A. degrees from the University of North Carolina. He taught Freshman English in the University during his senior year there and has since had several year's experience in teaching the subject.

Mr. Spainhour will be connected with Miss Martha Boswell and Miss Mary Frances Biggers in the English department at Brevard High School.

INCREASED NUMBER ENROLL IN SCHOOL

More than 335 students entered the Brevard High School Monday morning for the current school year's work, according to Prof. J. B. Jones, city superintendent.

According to Prof. Jones this is 14 more students than were enrolled for the school year of 1931-32 when 321 entered.

Mr. Jones also said that 478 students enrolled in the Elementary school as compared with 455 for the year 1931-32.

Students over the entire county gathered for the opening day of school Monday morning in the various schools of the county and regular school work was begun Tuesday morning.

BOOK EXCHANGE IS PROVING POPULAR

Success is being noted with the results of the second hand book exchange which is being carried on at the former "Blue Moon" building under the supervision of the Parent-Teacher association.

Frances Jenkins is in charge of the exchange and all books, both for the high school and grammar grades are being bought and sold there. This exchange saves the pupils a large amount of money for books, since practically all the books used last year are being used this year in the county schools.

B. I. BEGIN WORK NEXT WEDNESDAY

Preparations are being made for the opening of the Brevard Institute next week. It is planned to open the Dormitory on Tuesday and on Wednesday there will be the registration.

At the opening chapel exercises to be held on Thursday at 9:45 a. m. it is planned to have Rev. R. L. Alexander, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Harry Perry, pastor of the Episcopal church, Rev. Paul Hartsell of the Baptist church and Rev. West of the Methodist church participate.

A new heating system has been installed in the girls' dormitory and considerable repair work and decorating has been done in both the administration buildings and the girls' dormitory.

F. F. A. GROUP MAKE STUDY OF METHODS IN PRACTICAL WORK

Return From Trip to Atlanta Where They Studied Packing Industry.

VISITED OTHER POINTS IN GEORGIA CENTERS

Prof. Julian Glazener Instructor Led the Brevard Group On Trip.

The Brevard chapter, Future Farmers of America, have returned from a very profitable and enjoyable trip to Atlanta and intermediate points where they have seen and studied the latest methods of practical agriculture, packing, dairying, fertilizer manufacture and numerous other things that made this one of the greatest trips they have ever made.

Under the supervision of Mr. Glazener, teacher of vocational agriculture in the school here they pulled out of Brevard at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday in Joe McCrary's truck, in which there were 22 of the boys, Mr. Glazener and Mr. McCrary.

The first stop made by the party was at Clemson college, Clemson, S. C. They were shown over the college and the grounds; particular interest being shown in the exceptionally fine herd of Holstein and Jersey cattle along with the herd of fine bulls, 8 in number. They were shown the methods used by that institution in the mixing of feeds; the numerous buildings and the modern equipment, the method of feeding and raising calves. They also found the fine prize winning Berkshire hogs of great interest for they are the finest in the United States. Several sows in this lot weighing around 800 pounds. Before leaving the college they were taken through the old home of John C. Calhoun, with its furniture as it was when he lived there, a large part of this being imported from Europe. Mr. Clemson, who established this institution married the daughter of

(Continued on back page)

COMMISSIONERS TO MEET ON MONDAY

Next Monday, when the board of county commissioners are in regular monthly session, order will be issued for advertisement of all taxes past due. It is expected that many people will pay their taxes during the remaining days of the week, to prevent having their property advertised and the additional costs placed against the property tax.

The commissioners have postponed this sale for the past several months, but announcement has been made that no further extension of time given the people whose taxes are past due. The property will be advertised during the month of September, and sold on the first Monday in October.

MRS. L. HOGSED DIED TUESDAY MORNING

Was Greatly Loved in the Community That She Had Served

Funeral services for Mrs. R. L. Hogsed, 46, who died at her home at Calvert, Tuesday morning at 1:15 o'clock were held at the Mt. Moriah Baptist church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with Rev. Paul Hartsell, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church in charge. Rev. Mr. Hartsell was assisted by Rev. J. E. Bert and Rev. J. K. Henderson.

Interment was made in the cemetery at the Mt. Moriah Baptist church where all the deceased members of this Glazener family are buried.

Rev. Mr. Bert led the scripture lesson and made the opening prayer. Rev. Paul Hartsell made a very impressive talk on the life of Mrs. Hogsed in which he said that she was one of the most influential church workers of her community. He explained that she had literally "mothered" the entire community and that no night was too dark for her to rush to be of aid if her assistance was needed. She had been a member of the Mt. Moriah Baptist church for over 30 years.

Rev. J. K. Henderson rendered the closing prayer. It was said that the floral offerings far surpassed in beauty and quantity that of any county funeral held here in many years.

Surviving Mrs. Hogsed are: Mr. R. L. Hogsed her widower and two sons, Austin Hogsed and Harold Hogsed and one daughter, Mrs. Gerald Sitton. Her father, E. C. Glazener and one sister, Mrs. E. J. Whitmire and two brothers, J. W. Glazener of Rosman and Prof. J. A. Glazener of Brevard.