

PLANNING BIGGEST STATE FAIR IN THE HISTORY OF STATE

clothing, fine arts, and numerous commercial exhibits. Aside from the main building exhibits there will be dairy cattle, beef cattle, and sheep. Exhibits in these departments have doubled in the past three years. The swine exhibit will be very large and attractive, premiums being offered in this department for five breeds. In quantity it will exceed 400 exhibits. They poultry exhibit, one of the largest in the South, will consist of over 3,000 chickens.

"The 1932 dog show will be well worth the consideration of Fair-goers. Last year's exhibit consisted of 187 dogs of practically all breeds and an even larger exhibit is assured for this year.

Glick Shows

"The Carnival for the 1932 State Fair is the William Glick Shows, Inc. This is the initial appearance of this famous carnival in Raleigh. Thirty-five 72-foot steel cars are required to bring this massive show to this city, and it consists of 10 rides, 20 shows, 100 concessions, and an aggregation of 500 people to take care of its varied interests.

"For entertainment and amusement the very best in free acts has been secured. May Wirth and company, conceded to be the greatest equestrian act in America, will be seen twice daily in front of the grandstand. This act has been played for years with the world's greatest circuses. The Great Wallendas, world's greatest high-wire artists and late feature with the Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey Circus, now playing in Europe with the Olympia Circus, London. Three Kressells, aerial and acrobatic novelty, two unique and separate acts, consisting of wonderful hand-to-hand balancing in most difficult feats.

"The Medini Trio, a new European novelty direct from Berlin, with their sensational ladder act. An absolutely new and modern act.

English Steppers

"Sixteen English Steppers, an ensemble of dancing and acrobatics, the last word in youth, beauty, and grace, executing the most sensational and intricate of modern dances. Royal Scotch Highlanders, America's best exposition band, unequaled and unsurpassed in brilliant musical entertainment. This band has played all leading State fairs and expositions of America and Canada and furnished concerts for more than 800 civic clubs throughout the country. Ernie Young's Revue, an attraction that never disappoints and never fails. Ernie Young, the creator and originator of revues for fairs, brings his gigantic night revue, consisting of 60 beautiful and accomplished chorus girls, to the North Carolina State Fair. Dainty costumes adorn a wealth of golden-voiced singers. The individual soloists and featured performers of this Passing Parade of 1932 comprise a group of artists from all nations. Every member of the entire cast of this stupendous attraction is the utmost to be desired in talent and versatility. Every chorus girl in this tremendous revue is a graduate of Ernie Young's School of Dancing. It is interesting to note that Joan Crawford, Ruth Etting, Georgia Hale, Sally Rand, and a long list of other public favorites graduated from his famous school. It is the greatest production of its kind now playing in America.

"Each night, immediately after the revue, there will be a stupendous fireworks display of aerial and scenic spectacles. This finale of the entertainment program will prove sensational and satisfying to all of the patrons of the State Fair, as it has heretofore.

Horse Racing

"The horse racing at the North Carolina State Fair will be of the same high-class type, with fast-stepping trotters and pacers, as in recent years. The Raleigh race track is one of the best in the world and holds the time record of the world for pacers, half-mile tracks, 2:01, made in being held jointly by Dan Patch, Single G. Winniepe, and May E. Grattan. This track also holds the South Atlantic States half mile track record for trotters, 2:05, made in 1931 by Great Atlantic.

"In every way this year's Fair will be well balanced and worthy of repeated support. General admission prices have been reduced to 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The season ticket, with 12 admissions—two for each day of the week, day or night—can be purchased at the low price of $2. College students' tickets are reduced to 25 cents, and children at night only 15 cents. In addition, the management will place on sale general admission block tickets for $1, good for any day or night of the week. The season ticket and the block ticket, however, are pre-Fair tickets and cannot be purchased after midnight, Saturday, October 8."

HANGING OUT ON MAIN STREET

By A. Lounger

For a quarter of a century, more or less, we have been studying and observing folks around us and have learned—nothin'. And it ain't our fault. There just ain't no set rule for behavior of the human race and especially these "moderns." The reaction of any given individual to any given occurrence is never the same, despite what sociologists say about the matter. Example: We asked our friend to let us have five bucks and he did; the next time we made the request he refused and without any apparent excuse other than the mere fact that we had never paid back the first five. All individual reactions is just variable.

...And now Glenn Miller's gone. Some day he'll be a doctor and maybe do some cuttin'-in, what is cuttin'-in? ...F. Brown Carr pretty nearly startin' a riot when he jokin'ly said business was so good he was puttin' a big bunch of men back to work.... Miss Molley McCall trippin' along to work, smilin' and exchangin' jibes with the citizenry—comin' in contact with sick folks all day don't seem to rob her of her cheerfulness.... Lewis Hamlin back from a trip up-state.

Jack Loftis tryin' desperately to understand what the little Spanish Senorita from the Institute is tryin' to tell him and disappointed 'cause she only wanted to buy somethin'.... Mack Grogan preachin' a wonderful sermon Sunday evenin' at the Baptist church.... and Donald Moore renderin' a beautiful solo.... George Gromfield chasin' up to the hospital to fix the phone only to find it wasn't the hospital phone that needed fixin'—it was somewhere else.... Joe Neely lookin' more contented (we almost said subdued) than we ever knew him.

Ruth Cantrell and Margaret Barnett cleanin' a little spot on the window of News composin' room so's they can look at Dick Poole tryin' to do a little work, which is unusual for him.... Somebody askin' Mack Sittin' why he is scratchin' and him tellin' em because he's the only one knows where he itches.... "Archie" askin' Maggie Owenby which she would prefer in a man, appearance or brains and Maggie readily respondin' that she'd prefer appearance and the sooner the better.... Bob Plummer highly elated over the large number of people comin' in to his big openin'—looks like he's startin' off with a bang.

Brevard's P. M., Roscoe Nicholson phoin' and sayin' it was the wife he was talking to and while we ain't doubtin' his word a tall we do feel certain he was smilin' as he talked.... Ruth Cantrell wantin' to know if Carl Frady ever smiles.... Ruby McKinney in her new location and sayin' she is doin' a pretty good business—well, while we ain't never cared much for ice cream and the like, we are suddenly developin' a taste for it....

Leon English sittin' on the curb by Long's gabbins.... A couple of musicians hittin' some lively tunes in Martin's barber shop—some guys is gettin' paid big money for music that ain't a whit better'n that.... Coach Tillson gettin' his boys ready for a tryout this year and everbody wishin' him a lotta luck.... Clarice Smith back in the old burg with a brighter smile since she has been home to see Mama.... Several school marm's ploddin' wearily homeward after a hard day spent in tryin' to poke some learnin' into the heads of a bunch of hard-headed brats (lay off of me now, I was only kiddin' they ain't hard-headed, just dumb—ouch, and us wishin' we could go back to school and get some more education for in our day they didn't have such young, attractive teachers and we feel sure we could accomplish more now-adays....

TARHEEL FARMERS MAKING FAIR PLANS

The young Tarheel Farmers are making plans and evidencing much interest and enthusiasm in the Sylvan Valley fair to be held September 30th and October 1. Prof. Glazener has been working toward this end during the past few weeks and it looks as though there will be an unusually fine fair here this year. And not a little praise is to go to the young farmers for the part they will play in it.

FARM CLUB MEETING HELD AT PENROSE

A meeting for making plans for the County Fair and studying winter legumes was held in the Penrose school house Thursday night of last week. Mr. Glazener asked for several opinions as to putting on a fair in Brevard last of the month. A vote was taken and it was decided to enter the Boyd township exhibits in separate booths if possible. After the informal discussions on the fair, Miss Wilcox, home economic instructor and demonstration agent addressed the Women's Auxiliary in a separate room.

Mr. Glazener then presented to the men some valuable information on winter cover crops, discussing the three legumes, crimson clover, vetch and Austrian winter peas. The latter seems the most desirable legume according to Mr. Glazener's statement. It has several points of value over the others. It produces a large amount of foliage and can be turned under earlier than vetch or clover. Some Penrose farmers are expecting to try out this A. W. Pea this winter. If it can do in this altitude several people should give it a trial because it has made wonderful good elsewhere. Seeding it not so expensive.

PENROSE STUDENTS OFF TO COLLEGE

Several of our young folks are to go away to school again this week. Wilson Middleton is entering his freshman year at Furman University, Greenville, S. C. Wilson Lyday goes to W. C. T. C. Cullowhee, N. C. Miss Marie Case will enter her second year in the Asheville Normal, Ernest Brown left Saturday to finish his last year at Mars Hill college. Leon Lyday will enter his Junior year at A. and E. college, Raleigh. Ralph Case is in high school at Mills River.

And this is odd: Mr. N. A. Drake of the lower Penrose section has a son in Brevard high school, a daughter in Mills River high school and another daughter in Etowah high school. Maybe it doesn't matter where they all scatter these days.

This week the Penrose school children will buy their photographs made a few days ago. They are all good. The boys and girls have been working industriously to prepare a better play ground and to beautify the school front. Besides good play ground the children have an aim to make everything neater in appearance doing better than last year. Parents should help in this also as it may mean much for the school in days to come.

Some were out for fodder last week. Parents should not take children from school to fodder, if there is any other possible way out. Missing school puts the child behind and causes loss of interest and maybe the rest of his schooling too.

POSTMASTER NICHOLSON'S FATHER CRITICALLY ILL

Mr. M. Nicholson, father of Postmaster R. L. Nicholson, is critically ill at his home in Brevard. His children are constantly with him during the past few days.

MEETING OF FAIR COMMITTEE

Prof. Glazener requests that all the committees in the communities where he has been working out plans for the Sylvan Valley fair meet at the court house Saturday at 2:30 p. m. It is urged that all these committees attend as the meeting is important.

UNFILLED ORDERS

According to reports, the unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation increased 3,293 tons on August 31 over the unfilled orders at the first of the month. These orders, totalling 1,969,595 tons, show the first gain in more than 17 months.

ACTIVITY OF STATE HIGHWAY AFFAIRS RESENTED BY LABOR

workers and their employers, and that the highway patrol forces ought not be brought upon the scene with their machine guns and their tear bombs. The further charge is being made that members of the State highway patrol are, in most instances, young men with little or no experience in such business as this involved in strike zones, and that their youth and inexperience and irresponsibility will in all probability lead them into making some great blunder one of these days that will cost, perhaps, many lives.

"Anyhow," one labor leader said, "there is no place in North Carolina for Cossacks."

SUGGESTION MADE FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

The Travelers Insurance Company has purchased a booklet on "What a City or a Community Can Do to Save Lives, Limbs and Dollars on its Streets and Highways." It deserves the widest possible attention.

The suggestions it offers fit the needs of the smallest hamlet and the greatest metropolis. They are simple effective and costing to inaugurate because they touch everybody and would promote cooperative action for the common good. They could be the means of saving thousands of lives that would otherwise be unnecessarily blotted out by accident.

In every community a committee should be formed to take charge of specific activities for promoting street and highway safety. Members of the committee should include the mayor, chief of police, the local newspaper editor, the heads of civic clubs etc. A speakers' bureau should then be formed to acquaint the public with the accident problem from the standpoint of the community, the state and the nation at large. Posters, radio and motion pictures could all join to bring the message vividly before the largest number of people. Police officers, coming in direct contact with traffic law violators, can do much in instructing drivers in the fundamental principles of safety. Newspaper articles would explain the cause of accidents resulting in deaths and serious injuries.

A hundred other activities will occur to the interested reader. Committees such as this, operating in every American community, could reduce the automobile accident rate to a fraction of its present level within a comparatively short period. The time for action has come and the Travelers booklet points the way.

Furniture Business Improving

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Nalley of Atlanta spent last week-end at the home of Mr. W. P. Mull and family on Depot street. Mrs. Nalley is a niece of Mr. Mull.

TRANSYLVANIA TO SHARE IN FUNDS TO EXTENT OF OWN AID

every local agency and all citizens interested in this essential program of constructive assistance unite their efforts immediately to forecast probable needs in their respective communities, then to pledge every available local resource toward meeting the challenge of the needs arising from unemployment to the end that North Carolina may be fortified in financial resources to protect its people from the rigors of want and the hardships being imposed upon them by a continuation of the economic disorder.

Through the office of Mrs. W. T. Bost, State Superintendent of Public Welfare, questionnaires have been forwarded to various agencies in every city and county in the State seeking formal and definite information as to conditions existing, as to what local efforts are being made to take care of the needy and destitute and as to exact details of the situation which prevails in each community. It is urged that every public and private agency engaged in any relief work last winter cooperate with the county superintendent of public welfare in compiling this report, because the task is too big for one person and because it is important that a complete picture of all the effort of our community last winter be furnished the state relief office and the R. F. C.

Upon the basis of the composite information thus obtained concerning individual community needs and individual community efforts. Governor Gardner will base his request to the R. F. C. for Federal funds to supplement local resources for properly caring for the needs throughout the State.
