

DESPITE SETBACKS SEES REGION GROW

can look forward confidently to the continuation of this industry for quite a while yet. There are also two large tanneries in the County and one extract plant. A leather finishing plant has recently been established at Brevard. We also have a cotton mill at Brevard which is "resting" at the present time. There are also some smaller industries operating in the county.

"We depend, as you probably know, a good bit on our tourist business in Transylvania county. We have had a fairly good season this year. We believe, though, that with the opening of the Great Smoky National Park we shall have larger crowds than we can take care of. We are not so near the Park as some of our neighbors, but when Highway 284 is paved across the National Forest to Waynesville it will turn a tremendous volume of travel from Greenville and Pickens and the Southeast through our county. We are already feeling the good effects of the opening of the Caesars Head Road and of Highway 28 to Franklin. These with the wonderful attractions which we already have in the Pisgah National Forest, our hundreds of miles of fishing streams and thousands of acres of hunting lands, the beautiful waterfalls and other magnificent scenery from one end of the county to the other, will some day, and that very shortly, fill our hotels and boarding houses to overflowing and turn loose a stream of wealth in the county that will very quickly help to change hard times into prosperity.

"The picture of Transylvania County would be incomplete without some mention of our many camps. There are 14 splendidly equipped camps in the county. They have meant a great deal to us in the past few years, bringing as they do a host of fine young boys and girls to the camps and their parents and relatives and friends to our hotels and boarding houses. It is our ambition to make Transylvania county the center of the camping industry of the South. With the fine start that we have made in that direction it should be easy to do.

"I have given you merely a brief outline of the main facts of our county. I should be a liar and a fool to stand up here and tell you that business in Transylvania county is good. It is not good, but it is not nearly so bad as it could be. It is not even nearly so bad as it has been in a great many other communities of this state. We have never experienced that hopelessness that has characterized some sections of the country. We never shall. Before we reached that stage we turned back. I don't mean that times have gotten very much better yet with us, but we have begun to fight back up the hill to better times. I believe that we, and the other counties in Western North Carolina, shall reach the top of that hill much sooner than other sections of the South or of the Nation. We have a more solid foundation to begin from.

"I do not know how many of you gentlemen are natives of this county or of this state. If the same thing is true of your club that is true of most of the Civic clubs of this section a good many of you have come to Western North Carolina from other countries, from other states. I do not know what brought you here. I do know what brought me here.

"From another state I thought I saw a movement taking shape here for a wonderful development of this section. Forces that had lain dormant for generations were quickening into life. A strong, virile people were striking off the shackles of ignorance and of isolation and were moving to develop the prodigious resources that lay at their hands. A new empire seemed to be in the making. I wanted to be a part and parcel of that empire when it should have been developed. And so I came.

"I have remained here through these rather trying years since the bursting of the bubble of our real estate boom because I still see that empire in the making, an empire composed of these eighteen counties that lie West of the foothills of the Blue Ridge, with your own city of Asheville as its economic and cultural and perhaps political capital, an empire composed of citizens of common aims, and hopes and ideal, moving together to develop the innumerable resources of our section and to make of it a prosperous and happy Western North Carolina."

HUNTING SEASON TO BRING THOUSANDS

tober first and ends February 15, 1933. The precipitous ridges and dense laurel and rhododendron of the mountain region, are a favorite haunt of bruin. A large number of the animals were taken during the open season, last year and bear hunting this season promises to be good. Several hunting parties have been organized already, and will enter the mountains which are noted as bear regions, as soon as the season opens.

Seasons on other game for this region include: rabbits, November 20 to February 15; Squirrels, September first to December 31; bobwhite or quail, November 20 to February 10; wild turkey, November 20 to February 15; ruffed grouse, November 21 to November 30; woodcock, December first to December 31; doves, (split season) September 1 to September 30 and November 20 to January 31.

Several hundred thousand acres are included in the game refuges of Western North Carolina, which are adding much each year to the sport for hunters in this region. State refuges include Wayah Bald near Franklin, N. C., Mount Mitchell refuge, the Daniel Boone Refuge on Grandfather Mountain and the Andrew Johnson Refuge near Hot Springs, N. C. The Pisgah National Game Preserve is a large refuge near Brevard and the Great Smoky Mountains National Park will be a permanent refuge for wild life of the region.

GAINES HAD CHARGE OF KIWANIS MEET

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the local Kiwanis club was held Thursday at the England Home, with Mr. Gaines of the Southern Public Utilities corporation in charge of the program. He delivered a talk on the "importance of Salesmanship." Mr. Wylie, prominent attorney of Dayton, Ohio who is spending the summer in Brevard, gave an interesting talk. Mr. Wylie attended as the guest of Mr. F. Brown Carr.

Attendance was good and the program greatly enjoyed.

DR. FARRELL TO BE FOUR WEEKS LONGER

Dr. Farrell of the state board of Health, who has been conducting the free dental clinic for the school children in Transylvania county, is scheduled to remain here for another month.

He will be at Pisgah Forest for the remainder of this week. During the week of October 3 to 8 he will be at Brevard. For four days, October 10, 11, 12, 13 he will be at Lake Toxaway and at Rosman throughout the week of October 17.

Pupils from surrounding schools are asked to be present first 2 days of each week for treatment. This applies to children from 6 to 12 years.

During four weeks here Dr. Farrell has performed 525 operations which includes filling of teeth, extractions, cleaning etc., and although the response has been good he has not been able to do all the work necessary in the short time he has had.

Rev. and Mrs. Rhinehart and daughter, Frances, of Sylva, spent Sunday as visitors in the home of Mrs. A. N. Hinton.
