Mr. McGaha resides in the Cedar Mountain community and Miss Henderson in See Off.

PENROSE SCOUTS ENJOY CAMPING TRIP

(By Leslie McGuire)

The Girl Scouts of Penrose enjoyed a two day camping trip at John's Rock last week-end. After arriving at the camp grounds late Friday afternoon, "a busy time was had by all" getting ready for the night. When darkness fell, our tent was up, packs were unrolled and sufficient wood gathered for the night. The weather was rather cool for camping out, but a Girl Scout is always prepared. Each girl took several blankets and everyone slept warm and cozy.

When old Mr. Sun peeped up over John's Rock Saturday morning (an impossibility until Alma Talley was put under cover) he saw a busy troop of Girl Scouts. And before he could blink his eyes many times all camp kapers were finished. At 10 o'clock the girls assembled for troop meeting. Then we started on a hike to the top of John's Rock. With Miss Fleto Freeman in charge of the Nightingale patrol; Mrs. Ina Rustin, the Bob-o-links; and Mr. Frank Merrill leading the way, we started out with light steps and a light heart. After a long, hard climb we reached the top of the mountain. The view was wonderful and all were ready to sit down and rest. Of course no one was hungry but the lunch disappeared as if by magic.

The real trouble started when we decided to return to camp by a different route. We finally did find the way back but our honorable guide had almost convinced us that we were lost. Going down the steep slopes we rolled about four-thirds of the way.

Fleto Freeman was on the verge of heart failure when she almost stepped on a snake. But no serious accidents occurred and we returned to camp ready for supper and a good night's rest. In spite of being tired we enjoyed a campfire program followed by a candy pull.

On Sunday several parents and friends were present for Scout's Own. A delicious lunch was prepared and served by the Nightingale patrol, after which preparations were started for returning home. This trip will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable events ever sponsored by the Girl Scouts.

MR. AND MRS. FRADY ENTERTAIN WITH SQUARE DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Frady entertained a number of their young friends at a square dance Friday evening beginning at eight-thirty o'clock and continuing until 12.

12 couples took part in the dancing, music for which was furnished by a string band.

The room used for dancing was most attractively decorated for the occasion, the spirit of Halloween being carried out in every detail.

LIBRARY TEA HELD SATURDAY

The U. D. C. Library tea which was held last Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock was a very successful affair in every way. Admission were secured by contributions of books. About 90 books were received.

The library building was most attractively decorated for the occasion, autumn leaves and chrysanthemums being used along with other decorations carrying out the Halloween spirit. Miss Sattie Parker Librarian, received the books. Miss Ethel McMinn played the role of fortune teller, which was one of the many interesting features of the occasion.

Those receiving the guests at the door were: Miss Florence Kern, retiring president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. T. E. Patton, Jr., Miss Annie Gash and Mrs. Beulah Zachary.

Those assisting in the serving of refreshments were: Mrs. C. L. Newland, Mrs. Roy Long, Miss Gash and Mrs. C. C. Yongue.

Mrs. O. L. Erwin was unable to attend because of illness.

MATHATASIAN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. GLAZENER

The MathatAsian Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julian Glazener. A program of unusual interest was enjoyed.

Mrs. J. B. Jones, who was in charge of the program, gave a splendid talk on "Folk Music" which was thoroughly enjoyed and was further carried out in a vocal presentation of these songs by Prof. Alvin Moore, who acted as his own accompanist at the piano.

Refreshments were served following the business session which was presided over by Mrs. Harold Norwood, president. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. H. L. Wilson, the minutes were recorded by Mrs. Anthony Trantham.

The next bi-weekly meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Newland.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB IN REGULAR MEET

The Fortnightly club held its regular bi-monthly meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Nicholson. Communication received by secretary, Mrs. Goode Loftis, were read to the members of the club and other routine business was transacted.

The regular program was in charge of Mrs. A. R. Gillespie who gave a description of her recent trip through the state of Virginia, after which a lovely salad course was served.

One new member, Mrs. W. W. Babb, was welcomed into the membership of the club.

The club will meet again Thursday Nov. 10 at the home of Mrs. A. R. Gillespie.

Ensilage in the trench silo dug in Chatham County this fall is keeping well and additional silos of this type will be constructed in the county next season, says the farm agent.

HANGING OUT ON MAIN STREET

By A. Lounger

Wonder what Miss Keels is thinking of when she has that far-away look in her eyes?... Another fast and furious football game in which Eb Clayton says he, with the help of a few of the others on the team, downed the Bryson City boys with a score of 25 to 0—you did pretty well, Eb, oh boy.... And somebody says that Walt Clayton, on being told he could not play in the aforementioned game, begged Prof. Jones with big, sparkling tears welling up in his eyes to let him play and said he'd give him five dollars if he would.... Howard Whitmire likes a certain one-way street because he does not have to "look out for the cars" and can give undivided attention to the second floor of the Post Office building as he passes along—we can't say what the attraction is but that's his and her business.... Ruth Waters says that kessin' may make a boy a better man but there ain't any use tryin' to get to heaven in one evenin'....

Seen at the revival at the Presbyterian church Sunday night—just about everybody in town and that included Pat Kimzey, Rev. Hartsell, Rev. West, John Smith, Ruth Picklesimer, Charlie Brown and so on.... Bromfield has closed his laundry and a lot of other things'll close here if those who have money to spend insist on spendin' it out of town.... Rev. R. L. Alexander goin' out to play a round of golf at the country club.... Arthur Brisbane says people know very little about money but Ed Wike says he's willin' to learn.... Marjorie Young is gone so we ain't got nobody to throw brick-bats at us.... George Bromfield invited Dick Poole over to the house he and Archie occupy together and after he had shown him the place asked him what he thought of the room as a whole. "As a hole its fine," said Poole "But as a house not so good.".... And still it rains.

Annie Yongue and Mollie McCall droppin' into the News office to post some Red Cross posters—Mollie keepin' up a hearty round of conversation and Annie sayin' nothin' (Oh, yeah).... "Look out for worms" said Ruth to Billie as she gave him an apple. "When I eat an apple" said Billie "The worms can look out for themselves". When Mr. Simpson returned from the minstrel after havin' put up a successful performance in which he was encored his mother asked how he got along. "I thought I did very well," he said, "But they made me do it over".... And they're still honorin' the bride-elect.... Quite a shin-dig out to Caesar's Head Friday night, most everybody and his brother goin' out.... Doc Galloway and a number of other good Democrats listenin' to a Republican speech over the radio.... Pearl Owen wagin' a man-sized fight for Register of Deeds office.

Somebody says the applesauce we feed others doesn't hurt us but when we take large doses ourselves the diet is dangerous—wonder just what that party is insinuating.... Nothing will ruin an interesting intellectual argument quicker than the arrival of a pretty girl on the scene.... Nancy Macfie says that the only question on which most everybody is absolutely agreed is that an automobile is a necessity.... "The youth gets together his materials to build a bridge to the moon, or perhaps a palace or temple on earth and at length the middle-aged man concludes to build a woodshed with them." The foregoing being quoted from Thoreau.... and this from a local young modern (now WHO said Willie Kate Waters coined it). Oh, the divine thrill, the consuming ecstasy of occupation. May it always endure.... The old time business man who took the cash to the bank each day now has a son who employs a secretary to sign his personal checks.

A stranger in town asked George Simpson if you have to see a doctor to get liquor in Brevard and George told him that you do not—you have to see him afterward.... Bobbie Kellar is so mushy when he writes to his girl that he uses a pencil with soft lead.... Times are so hard that even those who never pay have quit buying....
