MAKE SOME CHILD HAPPY CHRISTMAS

There will be thousands of children unhappy Christmas morning unless some one thinks to play Santa Claus. I remember how little it took to make me happy on Chr as morning when I was a small by then later when I had children of my own I was made happy when I saw my children so happy as they untied their Christmas packages that Santa Claus Christmas packages that Santa Claus left for them. Now, Sovereigns: Let me suggest that you and every member of your Camp find some child in your section that is deserving and see that Santa Claus gets to his or her house this time. Make a child happy and you will be happy too. That's the spirit of Woodcraft.

OUR NEW PRESIDENT

D. E. Bradshaw is now President of the Woodmen of the World according to notice just received from Head Consul Barrington T. Hill who has been in Omaha attending meeting of the Sovereign Camp. Sovereign Bradshaw has been General Attorney for Sovereign Camp for several years.

CANTON ELECTS OFFICERS

Camp No. 391, Canton, N. C. elected 1933 officers the 2nd as follows: Consul Commander, Fred L. Truett; Advisor Lieutenant, Q. D. Smathers; Banker, E. N. Robinson; Escort, E. A. West; Watchman. R. C. Gossett; Sentry, J. L. Rhodarmer; Clerk, N. B. Rhodarmer, and Man-ager, C. R. Stroup, for three years. They will be installed first Friday in January at which time a social meeting will be held.

JANUARY MEETINGS

During first two weeks in January Dorene, with other friends from Lake Officers will be installed by all Toxaway called on Mr. and Mrs. Cla- Camps. Allow me to suggest that you have something special for this night. Have the ladies meet with vou. Have something to est. Have some music. Have some one address the meeting. Have a square dance. Have year off in a big way. If I can help you, let me know.

1932 PASSING FAST

1932 will soon be gone. Let's all work a little harder and get a few more applications this year, you know next year will be too late for some to enter. Give them an invitation now while they have health and can make the grade. What better Christmas present could a man give his wife or mother than a Wood-man of the World Certificate? It will protect them as nothing else can. Think it over.
