

RADIO RALF

In Memory of Our Loving Aunt Kate Miller, Who Died February 8, 1924

Darling, thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of evening,
As it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in the grave so low,
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our songs will know.

Dearest darling, you have left us here,
Thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God who hast bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet you,
When the day of life is fled,
Then in heaven with joy to greet you
Where no farewell tear is shed.

Now your suffering here is ended
And you've gone to join the throng,
There to be with all your loved ones,
Who have joined that happy home.

Yes, we hope some day to meet thee
In that land so bright and fair,
Where there'll be no more sad parting
Where there'll be no more goodbyes.

YOU CAN'T KEEP FARMERS DOWN

Why is it that Farmers keep right on being successful in the fact of adversity?
It is not "luck." It is the use of plain horse sense, enduring pluck, and hard work.
His horse sense leads him to buy the most modern implements obtainable. His pluck and his hard work enable him to use them to best advantage.
We are showing a wonderful line of modern implements for the farmer. They are the means of wresting success from adversity, and the price is within the reach of all.
Have you seen these implements? Drop around and get "an eye full" on your next trip to Franklin.
