Death of Mary Farmer.
On February 12, 1924, our dear Aunt Mary Farmer was called from this life into life eternal.
She was nearing her fifty-fourth year when she died.
She was converted to the Christian religion in early life, and was true to her God and her profession until death.
God's Word says, "Be ye faithful until death, and I will give you a crown of life." Aunt Mary has received that crown of life. She said the day she died, that no one need fear death who was prepared to die.
On the afternoon of February 13th her body was laid to rest in Pleasant Hill cemetery. Rev. Van B. Harrison conducted the funeral service. Kind friends covered her grave with nice flowers.
She leaves to mourn her departure, a husband, seven children, eleven grand children, and many relatives and friends. She will be missed not only by her family, but by the entire community.
She was a faithful wife and mother, and a good neighbor. There are many features of her life work worthy of emulation, but one that appeals to us most was her willingness to assist the sick and suffering.
How desolate the home when we can no longer see Aunt Mary's face. The flower of the home has been taken. May the rich fragrance of that cherished bower still linger with the loved ones.
We sympathize with the bereaved ones. But human consolation is weak. We can only commend them to Him who has promised to help bear our burdens, and share our grief.
Her loving niece,
ELSIE SANDERS.

Sutton-Lyle.
A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Saturday, February the sixteenth, when Miss Laura Staton Lyle, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Lyle, of Franklin, N. C., became the bride of Mr. Clement Evans Sutton, of Washington, Ga.
The house was tastefully decorated with evergreens and cut-flowers, the wedding altar being a bower of spruce arranged gracefully and artistically.
The bride wore a handsome three-piece traveling suit of dark blue poret with hat to match and gloves and shoes of gray. She was attended only by her father, who gave her away. The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. Thomas Cozart, of Washington, Ga. The wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Miss Jessie Sutton, and the simple but impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church.
Immediately after the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to the wedding party and to the guests, of whom there were thirty of the bride's and groom's closest friends. These friends then accompanied the bridal party to the train and bade them God-speed appropriately with rice.
Mrs. Sutton is the only daughter of Dr. S. H. Lyle, one of Macon County's most prominent and best loved citizens, and Mrs. Lyle. She has hosts of friends who, while regretting to give her up, rejoice in her happiness and wish her all good luck.
Mr. Sutton is not a stranger to our town, having spent several summers here. He is a successful and highly respected lawyer of Washington, Ga., being City Court Judge of that place. R. S. P.
