"ADAM'S APPLE"
 "Adam's apple" is the name given to the projecting cartilage in a man's throat. It refers to an old tradition that the apple which Eve gave to Adam in the Garden of Eden stuck in his throat because it was forbidden fruit. Eve is to be congratulated for having swallowed hers.

Collar and Cuff Sets the Call of the Mode

Sing a song of lingerie collars and cuffs, they are the fashion of the hour. Let every school girl join in the chorus, for pretty, lacy, frilly things at neck and wrist have such a happy way of giving one a refreshing start to classroom each morning.

If one heed the promptings of the mode, one will see to it that the school-time outfit includes one of the popular youthful-looking fine flannel frocks either plaided, striped or in solid coloring. To wear with it, in the till of one's trunk, or in one's top dresser drawer should be a plenteous supply of lingerie collar and cuff sets, a lace vestee or two, a net and insertion bib effect and do not forget to include one of the detachable lace panels which drop from their matching collars to the very hemline of the dress. Garnatured the most ordinary frock assumes a distingue air of charm and refinement.
