A house belonging to a Mr. Conley on Cartoogechaye was burned Monday night. It is understood that Mr. Conley lost all his possessions.

Among the late arrivals from Florida are Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Goodson of Miami. They expect to enjoy Franklin for a week or more.

Deputy Sheriff B. C. Munday is able to be on the streets after being wounded some days ago by an alleged whiskey runner.

Mr. Guffey, from Proctor, who married the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCollum, was operated on at a local hospital recently for appendicitis.

Dr. Angel has bought from Mr. Jess Conley, local Dodge representative, a Dodge ambulance for use in connection with the Angel hospital.

Mr. W. J. Zachary's dog, Josie, took fourth prize at the North Georgia Fox Hunters' Association meet recently held at Burton Lake.

The Maxwell school has erected a new building two stories in height. The lower story will be used as a dining room while the upper will be used as sleeping quarters.

Mr. F. W. Connell states that Mr. Alvah Pearce who has been with the Franklin Lakes Development about a month has sold more than $15,000 worth of Lake Emory lots.

Mrs. J. C. Barrington of South Richmond, Va., is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. P. Penland on the Georgia road. Mrs. Barrington's many friends in Macon county are always glad to greet her on her visits to her mother.

Evidently Mr. Lee Barnard has bought a new dictionary. Such words as "contamination," "degradation," etc. now flow from his lips like water from a spigot.

Mr. Gene Johnson and his brother, Lawrence, from Daytona are spending some time on Nickajack enjoying that beautiful section of the county. Mr. Johnson was here two weeks ago and liked the country so well that he came back for further investigation. The people of Macon always welcome the good folks of Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Fouts spent last week end with their son, Attorney Pover Fouts, at Burnsville. The doctor reports an enjoyable visit.

Mr. Joe Moore is now a student at Mercer University at Macon. Joe's many friends in Franklin are expecting him to make a brilliant record at that university.

Mr. E. S. Hunnicutt, ever awake to the interest of the county, has purchased a hearse for use of the public. This hearse was used for the first time in carrying the remains of Mr. W. H. Mann from his home to the cemetery.

Mr. E. S. Hunnicutt has just returned from Atlanta where he attended the Southern Undertakers association. While in Atlanta he purchased a Dodge hearse.

The first number of the Lyceum course begins October 12, at the court house with Joseph Loseff and assisting artists in a program of music supreme.

A Truck Grower

Mr. Sam Vanhook of Prentiss is a truck grower of no little renown. Regardless of the present dry season Mr. Vanhook has produced cauliflower heads that will weigh more than a pound each. With a suitable season these heads would have weighed several pounds each. The Honeydew cantaloupes are Mr. Vanhook's specialty. For some years now he has been making good money with Honeydew melons. This year Mr. Vanhook made a nice little sum by growing string beans. Yet most of the farmers in the county throw up their hands and say that the bean beetle will not permit the growing of beans. Mr. Vanhook also has a nice lot of grape vines which yield abundantly.

G. B. Addington Here

Mr. G. B. Addington of Miami who has been here for a month visiting his brother, Mr. Jake Addington, left today for his Florida home. Mr. Addington is an old resident of Macon county and has been storing up energy in the mountains sufficient to last him until next summer when he expects to return to Franklin.

Mr. Addington states that the native citizens of Florida have made considerable money within the last two or three years and that they are now turning toward the mountains of Western North Carolina as the ideal place for summer homes. He expects to interest quite a few of his friends around Miami in Macon county.
