The Dillsboro school prepared a Thanksgiving box for Moore Hospital estimated at $30.45. The box contained apples, walnuts, cigarettes, ash trays, handkerchiefs, toilet articles and the like. Sylva has contributed to Moore Hospital but no itemized report has been submitted. A little more than $100.00 was spent for materials to make the article contributed. They were:
10 menu covers for Navy at Thanksgiving
50 pair book-ends
40 handkerchiefs
50 lap boards
20 ash trays
40 pocket dictionaries
4 letter holders
9 soft pillows
10 tubes shaving cream, paper weights, booklets, etc.
Mrs. Cordelia Camp, chairman of the work, has written the following letter to the boys and girls who have done this splendid work:

"If you could have seen the pretty things before we packed the Christmas box to send to the soldiers at Moore Hospital, I believe you would have been proud that you had a part in it. The boys and girls of the Cullowhee school decorated the book-ends with bright colors, and they were so pretty that I wanted a pair for myself. With the help of the college girls, they stained and shel-laced the lap boards, too. We wish to thank the girls of the Home Economics classes of the Sylva and Cullowhee schools for making the handkerchiefs.
We plan to fill boxes for some school children in the European countries about the first of Feb. These will contain pencils, crayons, rulers, etc. If you would like to send us some of these things or some money, it will be welcome.

Sincerely,
CORDELIA CAMP, Chairman

VISIT TO PARIS HIS REWARD
