Sylva And Cullowhee Citizens Meet Cpl. Elden S. Watson Stationed In France To Consider Matters of Better Roads Pertaining To Park Entrance

A group of Sylva and Cullowhee citizens met Monday night in the Florida Sheriff And office of the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce to consider matters pertaining to highways in Vacation In County this area and more particularly Jackson county's entrance over 107 to The Great Smoky Mountains National Park as it connects with roads leading out of South Carolina.

not as many people attending as office Monday and in his remarks probably would have had there he said that he was delighted with been more time to arrange for the the climate and scenery of Jackmeeting.

explained by Mr. Buchanan was that he liked this area much better. to arouse Jackson County citizens to the urgent need of immediate home near Sylva. action in contacting the highway people of South Carolina in an effort to get that state to complete a good road to the North Carolina line, connecting with N. C. 107. If this was done, then Jackson county would have a good feeder high-way from all points in South Car-olina, through the county and into the park. The group also discussed the possibility of joining with Swain and Haywood counties in a combined effort of all three counties toward better roads and park entrances on the North Carolina side. Since those meeting constituted no official body but were citizens made up of all the clubs, county, town and business interests, no official action could be taken. places: However, looking toward getting some action started at once it was M. decided to have a committee appointed to make a survey of the M. matter with authority to take whatever action it sees fit to get something started along this line. This committee is to be made up of one member each from the town, county, Lions Club, Rotary club and Chamber of Commerce, and Men's club at Cullowhee. The appointments are to be made this week.
