Smith's Single In 7th Gives Sylva Win Ove

· Jack's Smith's seventh inning single with the bases loaded brought George Lee home to brea a 3-all tie and provide Sylva wit a 4-3 victory over Andrews or Mark Watson field Sunday P. M.

The one run margin proved to be enough for Brown, Sylva's big fireballer, who held his opponent scoreless during the last six innings by giving up only two hits

Andrews opened the first inning with a run when ove, lead off man, slashed a grounder to Brown that was too hot to handle He advanced to third on Sherrill' single and came home on Elli outfield fly. However, Sylv came back in the last of the firs with three markers. Rector and Smith singled in succession and Dillard was hit by one of Pitcher Parker's slants. Morgan forced Rector at home and Squirrel, Sylva second baseman, lined a single to deep center that sent all three runners home.

Andrews tied the score in the third by bunching three singles for two runs and threatened in past Love and Sherrill, setting Ellis. Sacrifice: Brooks. Left on them both down on strikes.
