

Society and Personal

Mrs. R. Sutton Has Bridge Club Meet

Mrs. Ralph Sutton was hostess for the regular meeting of her bridge club at her home in Cullowhee on Tuesday evening. A dessert course was served before the tables were made up for play.

Mrs. W. L. Jones was presented a prize for making high score and Mrs. W. T. Wise received the one for second high. Others playing were Mrs. Dan Moore, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Mrs. D. M. Hall, Mrs. Keith Hinds, and Mrs. Philip Stovall.

Legion Auxiliary Meets With Mrs. Moore

On Friday evening Mrs. Britton Moore was hostess for the October meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary with 13 members present. The vice-president, Mrs. Dan Tompkins, presided.

Plans were completed for the Armistice Day celebration in which the auxiliary will cooperate with the American Legion in an all day celebration and a dinner

WATCHES
by Lillus
FAMOUS AMONG THE WORLD'S BEST BALANCED WATCHES

LILLUS
JEWELRY COMPANY
In Ritz Theatre Bldg.
PHONE 229 SYLVA, N. C.

to be held at the club house that evening at 7 o'clock.

Christmas activities of the organization were discussed. Each member had brought a gift to be sent to Oteen for the Gift Shop maintained there by the state auxiliaries. Other members are asked to leave their gifts with Mrs. G. K. Bess at the Sylva Pharmacy.

Mrs. Raymond Sutton reported on the area meeting held in Lenoir last Wednesday. The president, Mrs. Jessie Cordell, and Mrs. Sutton had attended this meeting as representatives of the local unit.

Mrs. Moore served a salad course.

Mrs. Wilkes, Mrs. Ellis Hostesses for Waynesville Music Club Meeting

On Friday evening Mrs. Grover Wilkes and Mrs. Paul Ellis entertained the members of the Waynesville Music Club at the home of Mrs. J. Philip Stovall. Dr. Mary Michal, president, conducted a short business session.

The first numbers of the program were given by the choral group made up of singers from Sylva and Cullowhee, who are Miss Alice Weaver, Mrs. Mark Osborne, Mrs. Paul Ellis, Mrs. Robert Allison, Miss Ruth Hooper, Nickels Beacham, Charles Reed, Tommy Davis, John Echols and Rev. Mark Osborne. They were accompanied by Mrs. Grover Wilkes. Their first number was "Prayer" from Cavalleria Rusticana with the violin obligato played by Miss Ruth Hooper. They then presented "O, for the Wings of a Dove" by Mendelssohn with Miss Alice Weaver as soprano soloist.

Mr. Sol Cohen of the Springdale College faculty, played a violin composition by his teacher, Hubay. He was accompanied by Mrs. Nixor of Waynesville. He also rendered a group of unaccompanied Hungarian folk songs and the Fifth Hungarian Dance by Brahms. The chorus sang in closing a group including "Sweethearts" by Victor Herbert; "Serenade" by Romberg; and "O, Italia, Beloved" by Donizetti.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Stovall, served a salad course.

Junior Woman's Club Has Monthly Meeting

The Junior Woman's club held its October meeting last Wednesday evening with Mrs. Charles Po-

80 Attend Tea For New Faculty At WCTC

A tea for the new faculty women of Western Carolina Teachers college was given in the parlors of Moore dormitory Sunday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:00 o'clock. About 80 faculty members, staff members and outside friends attended.

Faculty women honored at the tea were Dr. Agnes Stout, Mrs. W. B. Harrill, Mrs. Rosser H. Taylor, Mrs. Clarence N. Gilbert, Mrs. Glenn Ruff, Mrs. E. R. McConnell, Mrs. W. T. Brown, Mrs. H. L. Leftwich and Mrs. Gerald Eller.

Hostesses were Mrs. Edith Hall, Miss Anne Hammond, Miss Leonora Smith and Miss Edythe Walker. Mrs. W. E. Bird and Miss Anne Albright poured coffee.

Piano, violin and vocal music was furnished by Mrs. Inez Wooten Gulley, Florian Lindberg, Jack Barnett and Forest Lindsay.

Mrs. George Montieth Honored At Shower

On Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. John G. Farley, Mrs. George Montieth, the former Miss Virginia Brown, was honored at a shower. About twenty-five friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Farley for the affair.

Games were played. Then the bride and bridegroom led the way to the diningroom which was decorated with yellow flowers. In the center of the table was a large cake surrounded with drinks. The gifts were placed on a large table and opened by the honoree following the serving of the cake, drinks and apples.

Miss Virginia Madison, president, presided. Since there was a large amount of business to be transacted the usual program was omitted.

The members decided to sponsor a benefit bridge party Wednesday evening, November 12, to be held in the W. O. W. hall. The treasurer was instructed to send a check to cover their quota of $1.00 per member for the new headquarters building to be constructed in Raleigh; also a check for $25.00 to the home economics department of Webster high school to help buy needed equipment.

Miss Dorothy Sue Tallent, Miss Alice Weaver and Miss Agnes Wilson were named to serve on the hospitality committee.

Mrs. Poteet served a salad course.

Ruby Daniel Circle Met With Mrs. Potts

The October meeting of the Ruby

SOSSAMON-NEILL WEDDING VOWS TAKEN IN LOVELY SETTING

MIDLAND, N. C.—Special The Bethel Methodist Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding for the vows of Miss Helen Elizabeth Sossamon to Mr. Elmer Yates Neill on Friday evening, October 24 at 6 o'clock.

Rev. E. S. Elliott, pastor of the Cherryville Baptist Church officiated. The chancel was grouped with palms, ferns, white pom pom chrysanthemums, and seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

Before the wedding, Mrs. H. H. Allen, Sr., pianist, played "Liebestraum" by Liszt, "Ave Maria" by Schubert and "At Dawning" by Cadman. Mrs. H. H. Allen, Jr., vocalist, sang "Because" by D'Hardelot, and "Until" by Sanderson. The wedding march from Lohegrin by Wagner was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional. During the ceremony "O Perfect Love" was played and Mrs. H. H. Allen, Jr. sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte after the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, James O. Sossamon. Her wedding gown of white hammered suede satin was fashioned along princess lines with simple high neck, leg o'mutton sleeve ending in calla lilly points over the hand, tight bodice, and circular skirt ending in a full length court train. She wore a three quarter length veil of French illusion attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. Her jewelry was a single strand of cultured pearls with matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white prayer book topped by a single ruby-throated orchid showered with tuberoses.

Mrs. Spencer Albert Hammill was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a short sleeved gown of fuchsia velvet fashioned along lines matching those of the bridal gown. Matching ostrich tips were used as a headdress. She carried a nosegay of small button chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom had as his best man, his brother, Dave S. Neill, of High point.

The brides-maids were Mrs. Odell Dellinger, sister of the groom; Miss Velda Urey of Kannapolis; Miss Ruby Dancy of North Wilkesboro; and Miss Betty Ellis of Boone. They wore velvet gowns in shell pink and powder blue, which were identical to that worn by the matron of honor, as were their headdresses and nosegays.

Ushers were John Neill, brother of the groom, Cherryville; Boyd Sossamon, brother of the bride, Sylva; Odell Dellinger, Cherryville and Carl Rudisill, Cherryville.

Master Joel Dellinger, nephew of the groom acted as ring bearer, little Misses Carol Sue Sossamon and Shirley Hammill, nieces of the bride were flower girls and wore floor length taffeta dresses in pink and blue and matching ostrich tips in their hair. Masters Jon and James Sossamon, nephews of the bride, were train bearers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Hammill in Concord. Greeting guests at the door were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Sossamon of Bryson City. In the receiving line were the parents of the bride, parents of the bridegroom, the bride and groom, and the remainder of the wedding party.

The bride's mother wore a floor length dress of black crepe with sequin trim and an orchid shoulder bouquet. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor length dress of black crepe with lace yoke and an orchid shoulder bouquet.

The rooms were thrown en suite and were arranged with fall flowers. The table in the dining room was covered with an Italian Cutwork cloth and centered with an all white arrangement of chrysanthemums, carnations and roses; and was flanked with low silver candlesticks holding lighted tapers. Also on the bride's table was a five-tiered wedding cake. Mrs.

Daniel circle of the Baptist church met last Thursday evening with Mrs. Felix Potts with 12 members present. The president, Mrs. Porter Scroggs, had charge of the business session.

Mrs. Potts gave the devotional and Mrs. Lee Walker was in charge of the program, having for the subject, Mexico. She was assisted by some of the other members.

The members voted to give a donation of $25.00 to the organ fund of the church. They also agreed for each member to bring an article of clothing to the next meeting to be given to a needy girl.

The hostess served a sweet course.

Baine Sossamon of Statesville presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Ora Dougherty, Bryson City; Miss Frances Hammill, Gold Hill; Miss Cecelia Hoover, Cherryville; and Miss Nancy Allison, Sylva. Mrs. Math Eury of Concord was in charge of the gift room and Mrs. Harry Haskings of Sylva, kept the bride's register.

After the reception the couple left by motor for a short wedding trip through the Valley of Virginia. For traveling the bride wore a dress suit of black faille with tight fitting bodice and three quarter length peplum, an off-the-face hat of black velour, matching suede accessories, and an orchid shoulder bouquet.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Neill will reside in Weaverville, N. C.

Mrs. Neill is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Oscar Sossamon of Midland. She graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College where she received her B. S. degree of Home Economics. She was a member of the Girls' Chorus and an officer of the Home Economics Club. For the past eighteen months she has been in Sylva where she served as Home Demonstration Agent for Jackson county.

Mr. Neill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Neill of Cherryville. He served in the United States Navy for four years in the Atlantic Theater. He received his B. S. degree from Western Carolina Teachers' College, where he was a member of the Student Council and was listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities". At present he is employed as Athletic Coach at Weaverville High School.

A number of out-of-town guests attended the wedding.

Nancy Carolyn Bryson Observes Birthday

Mrs. Claude Bryson entertained at her home at Addie Monday, October 20, honoring her daughter, Nancy Carolyn, on her seventh birthday anniversary.

After several games had been played the children were invited into the dining room. As they marched in they sang "Happy Birthday to Nancy Carolyn". The small guests and their mothers were served birthday cake, lemonade and candy. Then the young honoree opened her gifts.

The guests were Charlotte Ann

Terrell, Joe McClure, Doyle Bryson, Larry McDuffey, Billy and Peggy Jones, Jolene, Maxene and Clara Bell Green, Brenda Henson, Rebecca and Martha Lou Blanton, Susan Mull, Tony Shuler, Ginger Springer, Reta McClure, Judy Murrillo, Sonnie McClure, Glenda Lou and Patsy Nation, Ronnie Shuler, Lydia Bell Bryson, Shirlee and Glenn Mathis, Sarah Bell and Lawrence Fisher, Joyce and Jimmie Crawford, Joel and Mary Paige Newton and Carl Jones.

DIRT MOVING—We are equipped with a bulldozer for moving dirt and rock. See us for information. Lon Harris or Edison Crowe, Tuckaseegee and Cullowhee.

22, 23, 24*

ANTIQUES -- ANTIQUES

The demand for Antique Furniture and other Antique Items has become so great that our truck now makes regular trips into sections where these items can be secured . . . We now have for your choice the following . . .

Marble Top Tables from . . .

$16.50 to $25.00

Marble Top Dressers

$29.50

Large selection . . .

CLOCKS, CHINA, GLASS AND SILVERWARE . . . Many other items

—Also—

SEWING MACHINES

Harrison Furniture Co.

Phone 209 Cullowhee Road

PLENTY OF PARKING SPACE

AN INVITATION

This is your invitation to attend the Formal Opening on Saturday, November 1, of Jane and Dot's Flower Shop

We have just completed our display and storage house and our all-glass green house. We are equipped to supply you at all seasons of the year with either cut flowers, funeral arrangements or growing plants, assuring you of the best at all times. We invite you to visit and enjoy our flowers with us.

Dorothy Williams and Jane Coward, owners and managers of JANE AND DOT'S FLOWER SHOP

Phone 7 Sylva, N. C.

SOMETHING VERY . . . SPECIAL

100 Per-cent

VIRGIN WOOLEN GOODS AT HALF PRICE

We have just received a supply of lovely 58 inch, 100 per cent wool dress materials in tan, light and dark brown, navy blue, beige, green, grey, and luggage tan.

Original Price $3.95
Special Price $1.98

We also have some lovely plaids which we are also offering at this special price.

BELK'S DEPT. STORE

"The Home Of Better Values"

Phone 287

Sylva, N. C.