Mrs. J. C. Jones Hostess To Beta H. D. Club

The Beta Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, April 14, at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. J. C. Jones. The meeting was called to order and the business session presided over by the president, Mrs. Cole Ridley.

The club voted to give $5.00 to the Cancer Control Fund. Mrs. W. H. Wakefield conducted the devotional. Miss Mary Johnston, county Home Demonstration agent, discussed methods of growing and preserving sweet potatoes. She gave out a leaflet containing several recipes for sweet potatoes. Then she gave a demonstration of one of the recipes.

The hostess served refreshments of ice cream and cake to the following club members: Mrs. Cole Ridley, Mrs. F. M. Williams, Mrs. Joe Sutton, Mrs. E. L. Erwin, Mrs. Rufus Deitz, Mrs. Flora Baker, Mrs. W. H. Wakefield, Mrs. Burl Pannel and Miss Mary E. Johnston.

The club will meet May 12 at the home of Mrs. Don Fisher.

Joint Meeting Of Legion And Auxiliary

A joint meeting of American Legion and Legion auxiliary will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Community House. A motion picture on child welfare will be shown by Mrs. Juanita Phillips of the County health department.

Following this program business sessions will be held by both groups.

Thursday Night Bridge Club Meets

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Thursday Nite bridge club was held Thursday evening with Mrs. Rudy Hardy at her home on Savannah Road. Two tables were arranged for play.

Counting of scores showed that Mrs. Jack Allison had scored high, and Mrs. M. C. Cunningham had made second high. They were given the respective awards.

Following the games Mrs. Hardy served a delicious salad plate. Those playing were Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Clyde Rector, Mrs. C. C. Williams, Miss Nancy Allison, Miss Rebecca Sue Cannon, Miss Lou Elsie Parker and Miss Agnes Wilson.

County H. D. Council Hears Miss Hotchkiss

On Friday and Saturday, April 16 & 17, Miss Virginia Hotchkiss, district Home Demonstration agent, visited Jackson county in the interest of the Home Demonstration work.

The County Council met at the courthouse on Friday and heard Miss Hotchkiss discuss plans for the new year's work. One of the outstanding things was the laying of the foundation to organize the officers of all the clubs into a county federation for specific work, especially the making of reports and tending to other matters to go into the district federation.

The county curb market was discussed and it was reported that all the clubs in the county had voted for the establishment of the curb market.

All the members of the council, except one, were present for this meeting. The first meeting of the county federation will be held April 30.

Mrs. John Hooper Hostess For Lovefield H. D. Club

The Lovefield Home Demonstration club met for its regular monthly meeting Thursday, April 15 with Mrs. John Hooper.

The president, Mrs. Dennis Gibson, called the meeting to order and the program began with the singing of "The Old North State." The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, the roll called, and dues paid. Eleven members and one visitor were present. It was decided to continue the "Penry for Friendship" contribution.

There being no old business, the president declared the club in order for new business. Mrs. Leonard Craggs was elected secretary. National Home Demonstration week was discussed and an article to represent our club selected for display. Plans were made for a program for National 4-H club week.

Miss Mary Johnston, the county agent, had for her topic of discussion, "Ways to Prepare the Sweet Potato." Favorite recipes were discussed, followed by a demonstration by Miss Johnston on how to make "Potato Puffs." Enough puffs were made to serve each person along with other refreshments, served by the hostess.

Grigg, Mrs. Harry Hastings, and Mrs. J. H. Gillis, Dr. Noracella Wilson and Mrs. W. O. Soderquist represented the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Sylva church.
