Mrs. Baldridge Entertains W. S. G. At Picnic

On Monday evening Mrs. Ed Baldridge was hostess for the May meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild with 12 members present. She met her guests at the city playground where a picnic was enjoyed. Weiners and marshmallows were toasted over an open fire and eaten with the other delicious picnic food.

Following the supper the group went to Mrs. Baldridge's home where Dr. Noracella Wilson presided over a business meeting. It was reported that the new electric stove for the kitchen in Allison Building had been selected and the guild members made plans to pay their part on it. Miss Dair Swanson was elected secretary to fill the place left vacant when Mrs. Frances Luce left.

Mrs. Gudger Fortner presented the devotional on the theme, "The Lord Speaks. The program was omitted.

Edwina Ward Is Wed To Thurman Willard

Miss Edwina Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milas Ward of Sylva, and Thurman Willard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard of Greensboro, were married Tuesday, June 1, at 6:30 p. m. at Scott's Creek Baptist church. Rev. T. F. Deitz, assisted by Rev. B. S. Hensley, performed the ceremony. The vows were spoken before a trellis covered with greenery and rambling roses, placed in front of a background of pines. On either side of the trellis were placed seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Eddie Lou Terrell, pianist, and Mrs. Tommy Clayton, vocalist. Miss Terrell played "Traumerer" by Schumann and "Believe Me if Those Endearing Young Charms". The traditional wedding marches were used and the Bridal Chorus was played softly during the ceremony. "Mrs. Clayton sang "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond and "Always", by Irving Berlin.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Roy Reed, wore a white two-piece dress with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a corsage of red roses which she detached later and wore with her going away suit.

Mrs. William L. Ashe, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in a two piece white dress and carried a bouquet of red roses.

William L. Ashe served as best man and the ushers were Max Clayton, Mike Turner, Frank Monteith, Jr., and Darnell Ward, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Harris, uncle and aunt of the bride for the bridal party, relatives and close friends. The table, covered with a hand-made lace cloth, was decorated with mixed summer flowers. The bride's cake, three tiers and topped with a bride and bridegroom statuette, and entwined with pink roses was placed at one side of the table. It was cut and served with punch.

Later the couple left for a wedding trip through Eastern Carolina and will go to Liberty to be with his parents until their new home is finished.

U.D.C. Chapter Has Picnic Meeting

On Thursday evening, Mrs. J. H. Wilson and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, working for her mother, Mrs. W. C. Soderquist, who was unable to attend, were hostesses for the June meeting of the B. H. Cathey chapter, United daughters of the Confederacy. They had an outdoors supper at the picnic ground at the Community house.

Following the picnic supper, the members went into the community

Miss Bryson Honored At Pre-Nuptial Parties

Miss Mary Cecil Bryson, who will be married on June 19 to William Patterson of Atlanta, has been honored at two pre-nuptial parties during the past week.

Mrs. Joe Davis, Mrs. Mary Queen, and Mrs. Roy Reed entertained with a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday, June 2, at the home of Mrs. Reed. The house was decorated with vases of mixed summer flowers.

Several contests were enjoyed. Winners in these, Mrs. Dennis Fisher and Mrs. Bill Wilson, gave their prizes to the honoree.

The hostesses served cake and punch, after which the bride-elect opened her numerous gifts, given her by the guests, and found an assortment of lovely and useful gifts.

Again on Tuesday evening, June 8, Miss Bryson was honor guest when Mrs. Ray Cogdill, Mrs. Felix Picklesimer, and Mrs. A. M. Anderson were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower. The Cogdill's home made a lovely setting for the affair. The living room was decorated in pink glads and mixed summer flowers, carrying out the pink and white color scheme.

In the dining room the lace covered table was centered with a lovely arrangement of white lilies, white sweet peas, and greenery. White candles in crystal holders completed the decorations.

Contests carrying out the bridal idea were played and the winners were Miss Dortha Hennessee, Mrs. Joe Davis, and Mrs. Roy Reed, who presented their awards to the honoree.

The hostesses served a sweet salad, ice cream and white cup cakes iced in pink rosebuds.

Miss Bryson was then invited into the dining room where she found the table laden with beautiful packages which held gifts presented by the 30 guests attending the party.

Gaynelle Murray Circle Met With Mrs. Case

Twenty members of the Gaynelle Murray circle of the Sylva Baptist church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. B. Case for the June meeting. The president, Mrs. Jesse Buchanan, presided over the business session.

Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton gave the devotional and had charge of the program on the topic, "Training World Workers for World Missions."

During the social hour refreshments were served and Mrs. Harry Allman was presented with a shower of gifts.

In the future the meetings will be held at 8 p.m. instead of at 7:30, as during the winter months.

Halcyon Club Met With Mrs. Fortner

The Halcyon Woman's club met last Wednesday evening with Mrs. Gudger Fortner at her home in the Ferguson apartments. Fourteen members were present and the president, Mrs. Roger Dillard, conducted the business session. Plans were completed for a benefit picnic and Bingo party to be held at the Community house next Monday evening.

Miss Mary Johnston, Home Demonstration agent, spoke to the members on Modern Homes, emphasizing the kitchen. She told of some she visited while on a recent trip to Washington.

The hostess served a salad plate, house for the business meeting, over which the president, Mrs. J. A. Bryson, presided. A full report of the district meeting held here in May was given with all items of expense and other business cleared up. Other routine matters were taken up. The chapter voted not to disband during the summer months but to have pot-luck dinners and social meetings during July and August, these to be held at the community house or with some member who has not been able to attend recently. Mrs. Dan Tompkins and Mrs. J. B. Ennsley will make the plans for the July meeting and Miss Bertha Cunningham and Mrs. Dora Lee Collins will plan the one for August.

In September the regular program meetings will be resumed again.

The Rural Electrification Administration is 13 years old this month.

SINCERE THANKS

FROM

FRANK H. BROWN, JR.

I am duly grateful to all the people of Jackson County and especially to the many friends whose efforts in my behalf made me high man in the race for Representative in the Democratic Primary of May 29.

I also want to compliment each of my opponents on the vigorous and clean campaign they waged. We all fought hard but kept the contest on a fair and friendly basis.

In the forthcoming General Election, I will greatly appreciate your continued loyal support. If ultimately elected as your Representative I shall endeavor to show my gratitude by serving the people of Jackson County faithfully and diligently.
