Red Raper To Give Entertainment At Next Legion Square Dance "Smiling" Red Raper, known throughout the Southern Appalachian Mountains as the "Appalachian Troubadour", will give a special entertainment at the American Legion square dance Tuesday night, August 17. Red's provocative ditties have made him popular wherever festivals are held. A school teacher by profession and at present attending Western Carolina Teachers College summer school, he has made such popular recordings as "Little Indian Maiden", "Soldiers' last Leter", and his ever popular version of "John Henry", are but a few of the numbers he will do Tuesday night. The first commercially-produced television show broadcast from an airplane in flight was put on by the Navy's Willow Grove, Penna., Naval Air Reserve Station in November, 1947. Hog breeders in Wayne County have been using temporary pastures but now plan to try Ladino clover to furnish part of their grazing. Many of them will seed Ladino in September.

THEATRE IN THE SKY TO GIVE THIRD PLAY OF SERIES AT HOEY AUDITORIUM THURSDAY EVENING

The "Theatre In The Sky" company of Waynesville will present their third play in Cullowhee "Mr. and Mrs. Phipps" by John Hamilton. Thursday (Aug. 12) at 8:30 P. M. at the Hoey Auditorium, Cullowhee. The local presentation will be sponsored by the Boy Scouts of Cullowhee. "Mr. and Mrs. Phipps" was first produced at the famous Pasadena Playhouse and has since been presented by many well-known stock companies. It tells the story of a couple who go to California to write a book and paint. They become involved with a Hollywood movie star and his philandering wife and finally work out the solution to their problems. Ellen Beth Hurst and George Pillette, popular leading team of the company, play the title roles of Mr. and Mrs. Phipps and Virginia Shield will be seen as Annabelle, their cousin. Doreen O'Neill Curtis plays the part of Paula Leslie, who devotes her life to discovering people with talent, preferably male, and Elwyn Dearborn appears as Stephen, her movie star husband. The role of Bill Hogan, one time writer, will be played by Donald E. Vogt and Melvin Pomene plays Mr. Skeeter, the real estate agent. An elaborate stage setting has been designed by Elma Ilene Geoffrey and the production staff includes Miss Shield, Ivan Lynn and Bob King. The play starts at 8:30 and tickets are on sale at the box-office.

V. Lewis Bullis Body Returned To Orlando

V.
