

"ALL FOR HECUBA!" IS FINAL PLAY TO BE GIVEN BY THEATRE IN THE SKY AT CULLOWHEE THURSDAY NIGHT

CULLOWHEE (Special) As their last performance of the season the "Theatre In The Sky" company of Waynesville will present a new play "All For Hecuba!" by Elwyn Dearborn and Betty Jo Weaver at the Hoey Auditorium on Thursday (August 19) at 8:30 P. M. The local presentation is sponsored by the Boy Scouts of Cullowhee and tickets are on sale at the box-office.

"All For Hecuba!" was first presented at Pease's Island, Maine, last summer and this is the revised version which may be presented in New York this fall. The author, Mr. Dearborn, a member of the "Theatre In The Sky" company, will personally direct the production here. He was the first director of the Asheville Community Theatre and is also instructor in speech and acting at the Theatre School here.

Ella Beth Hurst plays the leading feminine role of Mona Marlowe, a fading Hollywood screen star opposite Mr. Geoffrey in the role Richard Mansfield, a playwright.

Donald E. V. appears as Mansfield's near-son and George P. H. the plays his friend, Bob Kent. Both actors are from New York and have been seen in many prominent roles this season.

Virginia S. Childs Pamela, Mansfield's daughter and Doreen O'Neill Curtis and W. Lawrence Benson appear as Maudie Peters and Max Leiber, director and producer, respectively, of Mansfield's play. Ivan Lynn, Marion Robinson and Mr. Dearborn complete the cast.

The action of the play, which is filled with intrigue and suspense, is laid in the New York apartment of the Mansfield. An elaborate moderne setting has been planned by Elma Iene Geoffrey for the production.

"All For Hecuba!" marks the close of the third season of the

PRODUCER

MAURICE GEOFFREY, production manager of The Theatre In The Sky, will present his last play of the season at Cullowhee, Hoey Auditorium, Thursday, August 19, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Geoffrey has been coming to Waynesville with the Theatre for the past three years where three plays are presented each week. He brought the play to Sylva last year but due to the fact that no auditorium was available this year he has been playing at Cullowhee, sponsored by the Cullowhee Boy Scouts. He will present the last play, "All For Hecuba!", at Hoey Auditorium Thursday night.

"Theatre In The Sky" in Waynesville. Plans for the reopening next Summer will be announced by Mr. Geoffrey in the near future.

Biggerstaff Presents Troop Charter

Mr. Lloyd Biggerstaff, President of Daniel Boone Council, Boy Scouts of America, of Hendersonville, presented the charter for Sylva Troop 1 to Mr. Roy Reed, President of Sylva Lions club, sponsoring organization of the troop, at its meeting Wednesday evening, August 11.

Mr. Biggerstaff complimented the Lions club on the fine work it is doing for the troop as a sponsoring organization. He particularly praised the work which Lion Den-lecture on "Predestination or Foreordination." "These are rather big words," declared the Evangelist, "but they are very important."

Citing Romans 9:9-17 where Paul shows that Jacob, Esau and Pharaoh were decreed beforehand, the Evangelist asked why God knows that certain men will be saved and others lost. He answered the question by reading Ephesians 1:4, 11, declaring that "every soul that is saved in the kingdom of God will be saved according to God's will and not their own. It is a plan laid from before the world began according to II Timothy 1:9," stated the Evangelist. "God knows the end from the beginning, and therefore He knows why some will be saved and others will be lost depending upon the choice they make."

Illustrating Matthew 22:14 when Jesus says, "for many are called but few are chosen," the Evangelist offered a free book to anyone who would come forward. He repeated the invitation several times before several ventured forward. "God gives salvation freely to all," stated the Evangelist, "but only a few respond like the folk who came after the books tonight."
