The High Towers by Costain,
Dillard. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dillard, their parents and Gilbert Dillard drove down to Clarksville, Ga., to spend the day with Gwyn Dillard, who is also a son of Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Dillard.
Webster experienced its first forest fire in several years on Monday afternoon when fire caught in a pine thicket just outside the village. The fire was on a hill back of the old Davis farm and it caught from a brush pile which was burned on Virgil Cook's property during the morning. Fire warden Mack Ashe and his efficient crew of fire fighters were soon on the scene and after about an hour of hard work the fire was under control.
Friends of Miss Dessie Allison will be glad to know that she is recovering rapidly from injuries received when she fell down several steps in the home last week. Mrs. Ray Cowan of Asheville was here over the week-end. Mrs. Cowan was called here to nurse her sister-in-law who is a patient in the C. J. Harris Community hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penland, Jr., announce the birth of a daughter Saturday at the C. J. Harris Community hospital. Mrs. Penland is the former Miss Frances Potts of Dillsboro.

Lower District Singing Held At Savannah

The lower district singing convention met at the Savannah school building Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. There were nine quartets, one choir, one trio, and one soloist present to take part in the singing. Congregational singing was also enjoyed. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the afternoon of singing.
The next convention will be the 4th Sunday in May.

Slip Cover Meeting Is Postponed

The Slip Cover Demonstration which was to have been given on April 28 at the Allison Building has been cancelled due to the sudden illness of Miss Mary Em. Lee's father.
Another date will be arranged when Miss Lee returns to work.
