"HOSPITAL WEEK" —

We, as a nation, are known for our special "days" and "weeks", of which there are now, we feel, entirely too many. But there is one week we do feel that has a real purpose and that is "North Carolina hospital week", which we are observing this week, May 9 thru 15.

Now we don't pay too much attention to special "days" and "weeks" as a rule, but with North Carolina hospital week, we want to make an exception, and give our hospitals a pat on the back. We think many of them deserve it. We would be among the first to admit that our hospitals are not perfect. We realize that they could make many improvements which would help them and the public alike. But in spite of this, we feel that most of the hospital criticism we hear is un-called for and unjustified.

We feel that it is quite fitting that C. J. Harris hospital is holding open house in observance of the opening of the new wing to the building during this special "week". In so doing it takes our hospital out of that class which can be criticized for not making improvements. Our little hospital has just about completed a big expansion program which will make it everyone should feel proud of our local his own expense. In recognition the former Miss Willa Bess Holden of more benefit to the public in general. institution.
