

Food Expert To Demonstrate Frozen Foods

Mrs. Myron Clinard Luttrell, Home Economist for International Harvester Company of Charlotte, N. C., will demonstrate the preparation of frozen foods for the freezer and for the table at Sylva High School Home Economics Dept., Tuesday, June 21, at 2:30. Mrs. Luttrell's background in Home Economics is varied and interesting. She majored in Home Economics at Middle Tennessee State Teachers College, Murfreesboro, Tenn., was for 10 years employed by Ball Brothers Jar Co. of Muncie, Indian, as Home Economist, covering 14 states teaching food preservation to extension, farm security, college and utility groups. For 2 years she served as Sales Promotion Representative for Foley Manufacturing Co. working with large department stores throughout the east and midwest and exhibiting for Foley at National Home Economics conventions, dietetic, medical and nurses' annual meetings, as well as houseware shows. "Frozen Food Facts" is being presented daily by Mrs. Luttrell in various sections of the Carolinas. A recent survey given in McCall's Magazine reveals that 50 per cent of the Nation's farm families are now freezing their
