Crisp Cotton

Pink and black resort dress.

By VERA WINSTON

PINK AND BLACK checked sheer cotton is the timely choice for a nice day-into-evening dress and jacket for informal summer wear. The frock has a strapless top with crossed-over draped bustline. The skirt is gathered all around. The black velvet belt has a swashbuckle flared end. The tiny jacket is lined in black and has cap sleeves. It closes with three black buttons. This is a good little resort number too.

Wife Preservers

Musty odors in basements and cellars usually disappear if the house is well heated and aired. If odors persist, chloride of lime is a good deodorant and disinfectant. Sprinkle it over the basement floor and let it stay until all mustiness disappears.

Baby Contest

Pictures of contesting babies and coin jars for collecting coins have been placed in the various stores in Sylva for the purpose of collecting votes — 1 cent per vote — in a benefit contest being sponsored by the Auxiliary to the C. J. Harris hospital. Contesting babies range from 6 months to 3 years of age.

The pictures and jars will be collected Friday before the Fourth of July. The winning baby will then be announced at the Fourth celebration which falls this year on Monday.

Odd Fact

A soldier stationed at an Air Force base in Texas has to have army shoes specially made for him because his feet are too small to fit any regular army issue shoes.

Inflation makes us do without a lot of necessities so we can buy the luxuries we can't live without.

Good "Coolers" for Summer

By ALICE DENHOFF

HEALTHFUL drinks at rt to come into their own as Summer beckons. As the weather warms up, youngsters, old folks and invalids become increasingly difficult to feed, and where a certain nutritional intake must be observed, it becomes a problem difficult to solve. One way is through the medium of good, healthful, refreshing and tasty drinks made with eggs, milk or fruit juices.

Florida Froth, for instance, is delightful for youngsters, good to drink and good for them. To prepare 4 servings combine 3 c. strained orange juice, 2 tsp. sugar, one c. evaporated milk, and 1/2 c. water; chill. Beat well 4 egg yolks; and add to first mixture. Beat 4 egg whites well; fold in. Serve in tall glasses, and dust with nutmeg.

Grapefruit Foam will add a nice note to a difficult breakfast table, and it is a good way of seeing that folks that refuse to tackle an egg, however nicely served, take their quota. For 2 servings (8-oz. glasses) beat 2 egg yolks until light and lemon colored. Add 2 c. grapefruit juice, and beat well. Beat 2 egg whites until stiff, then beat in 3 tsp. light corn syrup. Mix with grapefruit juice mixture. Pour into tall glasses.

Delightful Egg Nog

Banana and pineapple get together for a delightful and different egg-nog that youngsters, and adults too, will adore. To prepare one large or 2 medium-sized drinks, slice a ripe banana into a bowl; beat with rotary egg beater or electric mixer until creamy. Or, if desired, press banana through a medium mesh wire strainer with a spoon. Add 1 c. cold milk, one egg and 2 tsp. unsweetened pineapple juice. Mix thoroughly; serve cold.

A rich coffee-flavored egg flip will be appreciated by the convalescent who has to take plenty of nourishing food but who doesn't care to stuff. To prepare 4 portions (since we've discovered that one doesn't have to be an invalid to enjoy this concoction) chill 2 c. double-strength, freshly-made coffee. Combine chilled coffee, 2 beaten eggs, few grains salt, sugar to taste, 2 c. milk, 2 tsp. heavy cream. Shake well or beat with rotary beater until thoroughly blended.

And for a wind-up here is a good recipe for those summer gatherings that will be along quite soon now. For 1 1/2 qt. beverage place an un-beaten egg white, 1/2 c. strawberry preserves or jam and dash of salt in bowl; beat with rotary beater 3 to 4 min. or until mixture is thick and creamy. Combine juice of 2 lemons, 1 tsp. sugar and 2 c. ice water. Just before serving, place egg mixture, lemon mixture and 2 c. crushed ice in shaker or tightly-sealed 2-quart jar; shake thoroughly.
