Cullowhee PTA To Hear Pres. Paul Reid Tonight

Cullowhee—The Parent-Teachers Association for the Cullowhee Training school will have its February meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the audiovisual room of the school, according to an announcement by Mrs. W. A. Ashbrook.

Mr. Paul Reid, president of WCTC, will address the assembly. His subject will be Education For World Citizenship.

The Rev. Charles McConnell of the Cullowhee Baptist church will give the devotional. Mrs. Margaret Jones of the music faculty has planned special music for the occasion.

Hosesses for the evening are Mrs. Ed Crawford, Mrs. Nuntan Turner, Mrs. Tyson Cathey, Miss Louise Hunt, Miss Edyth Walker, Miss Hough, and Mrs. Maxie Freeman.

Mrs. Haines Reagan is president of the organization.

Home-Makers Sunday School Class Met

The Home-Makers Sunday School Class met Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock with Mrs. Herbert Harris. The meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Don Fisher. Mrs. B. S. Hensley opened the meeting with prayer. During the business it was decided to give $10.00 to the Annie Armstrong offering. The year books were distributed to the 16 members present. Mrs. Roy Reed gave a very interesting outline on the book of Matthew.

Mrs. Harris served a sweet course to her guests.

Junior Woman's Club Entertains For Mother Club At Dinner

Members of the Junior Woman's club entertained for the members of the Halcyon club, their mother club, at a dinner party in the Fellowship hall at the Presbyterian church last Wednesday evening. The Valentine motif was used in the table decorations and entertainment throughout the evening, which included dramatization of favorite love songs, sessions of gossip, and a song fest. Mrs. Alton Bryson was in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Roger Dillard is president of the Halcyon club. Miss Dorothy Tallent is president of the Junior Woman's club.

Baptist Circles Will Meet Jointly To Study Mission Work

The book "The Little Prophet From Cane Creek" by Harold E. Dye, will be taught by several members of the Ruby Daniel Circle.

Home Economics Group Has Meeting At Junaluska Terrace

The Smoky Mountain Home Economics Association held their monthly meeting at Junaluska Terrace hotel in Andrews Monday evening.

Those going from Jackson county were Mrs. D. M. Ramsey, Mrs. W. B. Harrill, Mrs. Porter Scroggs and Miss Mary Johnston.

Miss Pansy Deal is president of the association.

Miss Ulmer Guest Speaker At Twentieth Century Club

Mrs. Dan Moore was hostess for the monthly meeting of the Twentieth Century club at her home on last Thursday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Harry Hastings presided during the business hour. At this time the club voted $10 from its treasury for the polio fund. Mrs. D. D. Davis, program chairman of the month, had secured Miss Mary Ulmer of the Cherokee Central school faculty as guest speaker for the afternoon. Miss Ulmer spoke most interestingly on the Indian Drama, "Urto These Hills", which will begin showings at the open air amphitheater at Cherokee next year. This will be a very realistic presentation of the early history of the Cherokee Indian, given from a stage, amid natural surroundings true to the early life of the Indian. Miss Ulmer was introduced by Mrs. C. C. Buchanan, who acted as chairman in the absence of Mrs. Davis.

During the social hour Mrs. Moore served a salad and dessert course with coffee.

Miss Anne Albright of Cullowhee was a guest. About twenty members were present for the occasion.
