B.P.W. Club Observes First Anniversary

The Business and Professional Women's club observed its First anniversary at a dinner meeting and informal party on Monday evening at the Legion Home. Special guests were Miss Margaret Johnston of Waynesville, the recently appointed district director who takes office June 1, and Mrs. Alma McCracken, also of waynesville.

For this special occasion the table was made attractive with arrangements of pink gladioluses placed at intervals down the center of the long table and centered with a large white cake holding a single white taper and surrounded by gladiolus flowerets.

Miss Hattie Hilda Sutton was in charge of the "Broadcast" program, each member taking part in the humorous events for which an award was given after each performance.

The second part of the program was an "involuntary" wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Jane Coward as the groom and Miss Dorothy Williams as the bride. Dr. Norcella Wilson did the necessary prodding with a toy shot gun in cowboy fashion. The wedding music was played by Dr. Daisy Wilkes at the piano and Dr. Patsy McGuire as the vocalist.

Others playing parts in the wedding were Mrs. Margaret Jones as the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Reed as the rejected suitor, Mrs. Iris Sherrill as the Flower the ring bearer, and bride's maids girl, Mrs. Geneva Kirchnberg as were Miss Lucille Wilson and Miss Hicks Wilson.

Mrs. Lillian Madison is club president.

associate members, making a total of 70 members in the organization. The new advertising folders for the Association were discussed. They are now in process of manufacture and will soon be ready for distribution.

The goal of the Association is for all members to strive to make their places grade "A". Realizing the possibility of a great shortage of facilities to take care of the people who will be drawn to this area by the Cherokee Indian Pageant, the organization appointed persons in various sections to make a survey of all available bedrooms that will be available in case of emergency.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, April 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the Legion Home.
