Agricultural Leaders Hear Discussions On Pest Control

A group of insecticide dealers and Agricultural leaders of Jackson County assembled at the Courthouse on Thursday evening, April 6th, for a discussion of insects and recommended control measures. The discussion was led by T. M. Drobrovsky, Extension Entomologist, N. C. State College.

Mr. Drobrovsky pointed out that one of our newest insects of economic importance in Western North Carolina is the screw worm which attacks all livestock. The maggot of the screw worm works in live flesh as well as in dead. The worm can be prevented and controlled by use of "Smear 62" which is obtainable from local druggists. It is highly recommended after all operations which break the animals' skin, such as dehorning, castrating, and cuts from fences.

Sylva FHA Girls To Be Pages At State Meeting

Wanda Green, Dorothy Ann Ashe, Cloyce Bryson and Doris Jones have been selected from Sylva high school to act as pages along with 16 girls from six other high schools in the state at the State Convention for the Future Homemakers of America which will be held in Raleigh at Hugh Morrison High School on Saturday, April 15. Twenty high school girls, members of Future Homemakers of America from seven schools make up those selected for pages.

Representing the Webster Chapter at the Convention will be Lou Annie Cabe and Barbara Deitz. Betty Jean Tolbert, and Jo Ann Henson will represent Cullowhee. Betty Jean will fashion a play suit at the convention.

Mrs. Willa Mae Scroggs, Sylva High school FHA adviser, and Mrs. W. B. Harrill, Cullowhee chapter adviser, will accompany the girls to Raleigh. They will return on Sunday, visiting places of interest to and from Raleigh.

Scotts Creek Congregation Gives Over $2500 Toward New Educational Building Sunday

FOX SAID TO BE IMPROVING AFTER BLOW ON HEAD

Marvin Fox, 19, of the Norton community of this county, is in Mission hospital, Asheville, suffering from a compound fracture of the skull said to have been caused by a blow on the head with a rock in the hands of Vero Buchanan, 17, of Erastus. Buchanan is being held in the Jackson county jail pending the outcome of Fox's condition. Fox is said to be making slight improvement at this time.

Fox, who remembers nothing that happened after Saturday afternoon, went in his injured condition to the home of Virgil Rogers of Erastus, according to investigating officers. Rogers took the youth to the home of Fox's father, who then took him to the Asheville hospital.

Sheriff Middleton said that investigation led to the conclusion that Fox and Buchanan had been drinking.

Cats, Appalachian Meet Friday, April 14

With two losses in as many starts the Catamount baseball team will try to even the score against Appalachian as they get their first trial against Conference competition. The Cats bowed to North Georgia in the season's opener 11-6 and was blanked by Wofford 5-0.

Coach Tuck McConnell will go with Lefthander James Pardue Friday in an effort to enter the win column. Pardue suffered a shellacking in his first outing and will be out to prove that he has the goods to produce.

The hitting has been the difficulty thus far in the season and McConnell has jostled his lineup in an effort to ram runs across the plate. Bromo Selzer, Don McKenzie, and Clyde Pressley have been hitting the ball at a mid-season clip but can't find any runners on the sacks at the right time.

The same two clubs meet again Saturday and McConnell plans to toss freshmen righthander Bill Davis. Davis entered the game with Wofford in the second inning and blanked them the rest of the route. Game time is slated for 3:30.

Easter Services Draw Large Attendance

The members of Scotts Creek Baptist church observed Easter Sunday with a Sunrise service, a large attendance at Sunday School and the 11:00 o'clock Worship hour and by exceeding a goal of $2,500.00 given toward the building fund.

Fifty or more of the members braved the chilly weather to gather at Old Field cemetery for the sunrise service which was in charge of Tom Clayton and Roy Reed, with the pastor, Rev. B. S. Hensley giving the devotion.

At the 10:00 o'clock Sunday hour 322 were in attendance. Over 300 gathered for the morning worship hour service.

The congregation had set a goal for raising $2500 on Easter Sunday toward the building fund. A total of $2504.08 was received at this time.

Rapid progress is being made on the new educational building which was started with the breaking of ground on March 8, 1949. The building is expected to be ready for use about June 1. This building is of brick construction 84 by 64 feet, two stories with heating system in basement. It contains 40 class rooms, 4 large department assembly rooms, library, office kitchen and pastor's study. When completed it will be one of the most modern church educational buildings in Western North Carolina.

MANGUM TO HEAD FARM BUREAU MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

R. C. Mangum, Henderson, was chosen April 6 at a meeting of the North Carolina Farm Bureau Board of Directors in Raleigh as 1950 Membership Chairman.

The board also voted to set 80,000 members as the minimum quota for the 1950 campaign. A total of 76,258 members was enrolled last year.

The North Carolina Farm Bureau Executive Committee recommended to the Board that Mangum be named and the approval was unanimous. He will head the organization's fall membership campaign but between now and the time of the drive will spearhead formation of individual county and community Farm Bureau campaign units.

Upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, the Board voted unanimously to hold a "Farm Bureau Workshop" in Raleigh before July, probably in June, at which farm men and women would convene. Presidents and Secretaries of County Bureaus, Membership Chairmen, Commodity Committee leaders and all others interested will take part in the meeting, with National and State Farm Bureau staff members conducting day-to-day sessions.

Allison Announces Precinct Meetings

Dan M. Allison, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, has announced that county precinct meetings will be held in each precinct in Jackson County on Saturday, April 29 at 2:00 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of perfecting the organization and for electing delegates to the County Convention which will be held in the courthouse in Sylva on Saturday, May 6, at 2:00 o'clock p.m. Following this meeting at 3:00 o'clock the executive committee will meet to name a chairman.

Body Of Mrs. Rogers Taken To Atlanta, Ga. For Burial

The body of Mrs. Earl Rogers of Webster was taken to Atlanta, Ga. Monday for funeral services and burial. Mrs. Rogers, the former Miss Katherine Walden, died in the C. J. Harris hospital Easter Sunday afternoon. She had been a patient in the hospital for the past two weeks.

Surviving are the husband; one small daughter, Kathy; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Walden, and one brother, of Atlanta.

Gold Medal Awarded Geo. H. Mead at Annual Paper Week

A highlight of Paper Week in New York in late February was the annual award of the Tappi Gold Medal — for 1950 to George Houck Mead, who is now the honorary board chairman of Mead Corporation after 50 years in that company.

Since 1933, Mr. Mead has been active in Washington in government affairs as an industry representative — the most prominent one from the paper industry — and his most recent appointment was to the ECA advisory board.

This G. H. Mead is not to be confused with the George Wilson Mead who heads one of Wisconsin's biggest paper industries — Consolidated Water Power & Pa-er — although the two gentlemen once got their heads together and decided they were probably remotely related "way back when". Sometimes they are called Geo. "Ohio" Mead and George "Wisconsin" Mead to distinguish one from the other.

The grandfather of G. H. was in the paper business in 1946. The grandson returned to his birthplace, Dayton, O., in 1877, to become a tour worker at the Mead mill, 11 hours on the day shift or 13 on the night shift. The 20-year old saw his need for chemistry and mechanical engineering, so left the mill for more schooling and added to his Hobart degree a
