

Reemployment Rights Continued By Extension Of Selective Service Act

Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin announced today that inductees, enlistees and reservists who leave jobs in private industry or with the Federal Government to perform active service in the armed forces are eligible for reemployment rights as a result of Public Laws 572 and 599, 81st Congress, which extend the Selective Service Act of 1948 until July 9, 1951.

Secretary Tobin explained that reemployment rights apply to the person who enlists in the armed forces prior to July 9, 1951, if it is his first enlistment after June 24, 1948, and for a period not more than 3 years unless extended by law, and to the reservist who enlists upon active duty between June 24, 1948, and July 9, 1951, if released within 3 years after entering upon active duty or as soon after the expiration of such 3 years as he is able to obtain orders relieving him from active duty.

"Of special interest to reservists is the fact that the Selective Service Act of 1948, as amended, extends reemployment rights to persons who enter upon active duty in the armed forces in response to an order or call to active duty," the Secretary said. "Whether with or without his consent, a person going on active duty does so in response to a call to active duty. The statute draws no distinction between the reasons behind the call."

The Bureau of Veterans' Reemployment Rights in the Department of Labor has responsibility for handling reemployment rights under Section 9 of the Selective Service Act. Persons seeking information about such rights should address their inquiries to Robert K. Salyers, Director, Bureau of Veterans' Reemployment Rights, Room 7318, Department of Labor Building, Washington 25, D. C., or to the nearest field office of the Bureau.

Naval Reserve Enlisted Women Wanted for Service

Naval Base, Charleston, S. C.—The Navy announced recently that it has asked Naval Reserve enlisted women to submit applications for voluntary recall to active duty for an obligated and guaranteed period of twelve months.

Women in all petty officer grades, including chief petty officer, are desired in the emergency and general service rates of teleman, radioman, communications technicians, yeoman, storekeeper, aerographer, tradesman, aviation storekeeper, hospitalman, and dental technician.

Applicants must have one year obligated service remaining. Those with less time may extend their enlistments for a period preferably of four years.

Volunteers accepted will be ordered to a naval activity specified by the various Naval District Commandants for outfitting and for further assignment by the Bureau of Naval Personnel.
