

GOVERNOR SCOTT SEES CHEROKEE DRAMA

Governor W. Kerr Scott, front, right of center, is shown as he and party of friends attended the Cherokee Indian Drama, "Unto These Hills", Saturday night, August 26. Others in the picture are, front row, left to right, D. D. Davis, Henry W. Jordan, State Highway Commissioner, Governor Scott, McKinley Ross, vice chief of the Reservation and Mrs. Scott. In back row, left to right are: Ross Caldwell, Frank H. Brown, Jr., and W. E. Elmore, partly hidden, Dr. K. E. Bennett, Bryson City, L. Dale Thrash, 10th Division Highway Commissioner and Felix Picklesimer.

Commissioner Jordan and Thrash will attend the tri-state highway meeting in Anderson, South Carolina on September 15.

WEBSTER HIGHWAY

Heirs and R. L. Madison, and proceed along Main Street past the high school and will then leave the old road bed much of the way to No. 23 and will be much straighter between the river and No. 23.

The new highway will have a 100 foot right-of-way and an 18 foot rock and asphalt surface. The grading is expected to be finished and crushed rock put down before winter sets in.

C. E. Crouch Company of Asheville has the contract for moving buildings from the right-of-way.

Citizens of the Webster section have looked forward to the building of this road for a long time. The new hard surfaced road will help open up and further progress this already very progressive section of the county.

LITTLE FOLK TO BE SHOWN ON SCREEN OF DRIVE-IN THEATRE

The management of the Sylva Drive-In Theatre has announced that he has made arrangements to show the pictures, absolutely free on his screen, of all the children of Jackson County between the ages of three months and 5 years. The parents and children will have an opportunity to see their children and the children to see themselves on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, October 17 and 18.

The management will have a photographer at Sossamon Furniture Store for two days, Monday and Tuesday, September 11 and 12 from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. for the purpose of making the picture at absolutely no cost to the parents. The only thing you will do is go to the theatre on October 17 or 18 and see the child on the screen just like a movie star. Take advantage of this opportunity and bring you child or children down to Sossamon's on Monday or Tuesday for the FREE picture.

DRUNKEN DRIVERS BOUND OVER TO OCTOBER COURT

Four men, charged with driving drunk over the Labor Day week-end and bound over to Jackson County Superior Court of October 9, are now at liberty under bonds of $300 each. State Highway Patrolman Chas. D. Lindsay made the arrests, and preferred the charges. The men involved are: David Parris, Sylva, arrested Monday afternoon, the 4th, while driving intoxicated on U. S. Highway 23 just East of Sylva. He waived trial and was bound over to court. Calvin Bumgarner, arrested on Highway 107 while driving drunk on Sunday, bound over, Ralph Doffus Cope, of Hazelwood, was picked up driving drunk on 107 on Monday and bound over. Samuel Parker, of Tuckaseegee, driving drunk on Highway 23 in Home Store while Mr. Horton was away.

Mrs. Lee Herron of Bryson City, mother of Mrs. Bill Crane of Sylva, is a patient at C. J. Harris Hospital.

Mrs. E. O. Mashburn, Misses Lavinia and Nancy Mashburn, and Junior Swann recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bill Parker in Brevard.
