 Hens on U. S. farms laid 4.2 billion eggs during August. This was a new record for the month both in total number and in average production per layer.

During the serving of meals a home economic student presides over each table to see that the children eat in a quiet and orderly manner. Other students look after keeping the trays cleared and stacked as the children finish their lunch, and all milk bottles are placed back in the crates. Approximately 550 meals are served daily, Mr. Smith said, and all meals are paid for either in cash or by work.
 Last year 79,000 hot meals were served with the lunch room handling $15,000 in cash. During the school term last year $36,000 passed through the hands of the school treasurer. A recent State audit of these funds showed that the books and funds were in perfect balance. The auditors reported to Mr. Smith that the Sylva audit was the second best made by them in the state.
 You who have not seen the new cafeteria equipment should go down. It will show you the progress being made at our high school.

 Mrs. Pratt Cheek, program chairman for the month, presented Mrs. R. S. Morgan who gave a very interesting talk on Crafts, stressing particularly the ones made in this area. After a brief history of handcrafts in general, Mrs. Morgan told the members interesting facts concerning her pewter shop and showed lovely pieces as samples of the work done there.

WHY SAFEGUARD FOR STATE EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT FUND

When you go to the polls on November 7 you will be handed a ballot on which will be printed several proposed amendments to the State Constitution. One of the amendments on the ballot which we want you to know about is the proposed State Employees' Retirement fund and if you know about it we believe you will vote for it.
 This is the way it is printed on the ballot. "For amendment Securing and Safeguarding the Funds of the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System."

What is the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System, and why do its funds need to be secured and safeguarded?
 Most of the teachers in the State and most of the people working for the highway department and those working in any state agency belong to the Retirement System. It is their way of saving up for their old age. They pay five per cent out of every salary check into the Retirement Fund. In addition to this the State pays another five per cent for each employee. Half of it is money the employees themselves are saving. The other half you might call, "delayed salary". It is salary the employee is to receive in his old age, when no longer able to work.
 Safeguarding funds by constitutional enactment is not new in North Carolina. Our constitution already provides that the sinking fund cannot be touched except for the purpose for which it was set up. What is good for the sinking fund is also good for the retirement fund.
