Girl Scout Week Opened Oct. 30 At Cullowhee

Girl Scout week was officially opened in Cullowhee Monday night, October 30, when the Brownie Troop under the direction of Mrs. R. T. Houts presented a dramatization of THE BROWNIE STORY and the Intermediate Girl Scout Troop, with the help of several adults, presented a radio script entitled GIRL SCOUTING IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS over the college radio station WWOO.

THE BROWNIE STORY is an original dramatization of the meaning of Brownie Scouting. According to a very old story, Brownies are cheerful little people who secretly do many helpful chores around the house. Following the play the Brownies sang two songs The Brownie Smile Song and The Brownie Way.

Brownies taking part in the program were: Judith McConnell, Judy Claxton, Susan Turner, Patricia Hamilton, Jean Buchanan, Judy Rentro, Bobby Hembree, Thelma Jean Bishop, Mary Nell Bishop, Susan Mitchell, Irene Hines, Jerri Lee Eller, Freddie Brown, and Linda Houts.

GIRL SCOUTING IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS is a fifteen minute radio script written by Betty Muessen to interest adults in the Scouting program. It tells something of the advantages received by the community as well as the girls themselves.

Playing the part of "the Scout" in the program were Lois Slagle, Sally Ann McConnell, Catherine Janowsky, Carol Janowsky, and Juanita Hembree. Dr. Morrill, a member of the Education Department at WCTC, was "the Educator." R. T. Houts, pastor of the Cullowhee Methodist Church, was

"the Prominent Citizen." Miss Ann Cabe, a student at WCTC, played the part of "THE SCOUT MOTHER" and Mrs. J. G. Eller, leader of Troop 7, was "the Leader." Phil Croft, a student at WCTC, was the announcer.

Total output of U. S. cigarette manufacturers during the first six months of 1950 was slightly below that of the first six months of 1949.
