HELEN GOULD TO THE RESCUE

Miss Helen Gould, philanthropist, one of the best loved among American women and possessor of millions, has come forward to save the family fortunes from possible wreckage and to restore the prestige of the family

At the very moment when the financial downfall of the family is impending she has offered to cast her personal fortune into the breach to stay the threatened calamity.

In so doing she has chosen to forget and to forgive all that has occurred to alienate one member of the family from the others. She is inspired by her own bounty of heart and by the deep reverence in which she holds her father's memory.

Miss Gould left New York the other day in her private car for San Francisco, for it is there that the arrangements will be made by which the family finances will be straightened out. She is going to look over things for herself, and is accompanied by some prominent financiers. She will see and study for the first time the great Gould properties that have their center in San Francisco. With her are a number of eastern financiers and railroad men, with whom she will advise.

On her trip to the coast Miss Helen Gould is accompanied by the men at the head of the Gould properties. In the party are B. F. Rush, president of the Missouri Pacific and the Denver & Rio Grande and future president of the Western Pacific; E. T. Jeffery, president of the Western Pacific, chairman of the financial board of the Rio Grande and chief financial adviser to the Goulds; Charles H. Schlacks, first vice-president of the Western Pacific and of the Denver & Rio Grande..

Until now Miss Gould has remained free of the financial enterprises in which her family has been involved. Her chief concern has been her philan thropic work.

When it looked as though the Missouri Pacific would be lost to George Gould, henwas able to interest Speyer & Co., and they raised $23,000,000 to put into the property. Then attention was turned to the Denver & Rio Grande. A system of financing has just been completed by which from $10,000,000 to $25,000,000 will be available.

The Western Pacific remains to be financed and it will be done through the assistance of Miss Gould. She has practically agreed to use her entire personal fortune, estimated at $20,000,000, to help restore the family credit. Miss Gould is credited with having said that she will give every cent, if necessary, to preserve the heritage that her father bequeathed them.

HEAD OF VERY SMARTEST SET

Sadness and gloom have been the portion of a large section of the American Society (be careful of the large S!), since the publication of that remarkable book "The 469 Ultra-Fashionables of America," compiled by Charles Wilbur de Lyon Nichols, on whose shoulders has fallen the mantle of Ward McAllister, inventor of New York's "400." The cream of the cream of American society have now been segregated, coralled, reconcentrated or otherwise abstracted from the common herd and seated on high in the splendor and dazzling radiance of Mr. de Lyon Nichols, august approval. There appears to be, however, a remarkable lack of invention displayed in the New York list of 300 notables. It is confined practically to the guests who were invited to meet the Connaughts and Princess Patricia on their recent visit. Surely New York is going to the dogs when it can only muster a beggarly 300.

Even Ward McAllister in an earlier and less enlightened period permitted the metropolis to have a sacred circle of 400. The reason may be that only the superfine ultra-fashionables are included in Beau Nichols' arbitrary selection, and that those unfortunates who are at all tainted with the stigma of do not fully subscribe to the modern doctring and be merry, for tomorrow we die," are dropped relentlessly. Possibly the compiler's wisdom did not wholly desert him and he hesitated to embark on the stormy waters of the next stratum below, being assured of countenance and support by the precedent already established.

KING PETER IS IN TROUBLE

Is the bloody drama of 1903 about to be repeated in Belgrade? That is a question that all Europe, including Servian people themselves, are asking. For weeks reports have emanated from Belgrade that a conspiracy has been formed among the officers of the army having for its purpose the dethronement of King Peter, if necessary, by as violent means as those of the terrible night nine years ago, when King Alexander and Queen Draga were murdered in the palace.

King Peter is paying for whatever guilty knowledge he may have had of the regicide plot with uneasy days and sleepless nights. Now in his sixty-eighth year, he is wondering if it was worth while after all, to trade his peace of mind as a private citizen in Switzerland, for the Bloody crown of Servia. Through the palace still stalks the restless ghost of Alexander and the king's ears must still resound the echo of the shrieks of Draga.

At the foreign office and in the war ministry all knowledge of plots and conspiracies are denied, of course. "It is a sensational newspaper lie," said one official, who was most anxious to leave the impression that the best relations existed between Peter and the army and Peter and his people. But talk in the cases, converse with officers to whom you have been vouched for or ask any representative of the common Servians, the working people, and one finds little praise for Peter.

"Servia wants to become a republic," one army officer said. "The army and the people are tired of the dynasty."

RULER OF SMALLEST STATE

By the death of William Alexander, Grand Duke of Luxemburg, which occurred recently, a demure young woman not yet 18 becomes sovereign of that little principality. She is the late ruler's eldest daughter, the Grand Duchess Marie. Luxemburg is a state of 298 square miles in the angle where Germany, France and Belgium meet. It has about 250,000 people. From time immemorial it has been ah aptime immemorial it has been an ap-panage of the House of Nassau. It was therefore virtually part of Hol-and, though separated from it until the death of Queen Wilhelmina's lather in 1890. Then it followed the rather in 1890. Then it followed the male line to the father of the grand duke just dead. In 1907 the succession is the female line was instituted by a family statute.

At a time, some years 1 to, when it seemed likely that Queen Vilhelmins of Holland, would be childless, she

COURT HOUSE SHOT UP BY ALLEN GANG

T.(E picture shows the Carroll county (Va.) court house and the principal figures in the tragedy in which the judge, prosecuting attorney and sheriff were killed by mountaineers just as the judge had proaccuraced sentence on Floyd Allen. The crime for which Floyd Allen was being sentenced was taking a prisoner away irom a deputy sheriff.

COMIC KING IN U.

Emperor of Sahara Now Lives disposal of his property to the trust in New York.

Ruler Is Without Funds - Former Boulevardier, Known as "The Little Sugar Bowl," Is Plaintiff . in Big Law Suit.

New York.-Jacques Lebaudy, first emperor of the Sahara, idler of the Paris boulevards and one time lover of the spectacular, has found New York a place where he can indulge in many of the eccentricities which made him notorious in France and elsewhere. As an asylum for rejected and dejected monarchs, he prefers it to England.

Strange as it may seem, in a city where publicity is the lot of doers of the unconventional the emperor of the Sahara in the six years that he has spent in exile here has had many adventures which have escaped no-

As was his wish when he came here an exile from France, but with money to burn, he has effaced himself, has joined the submerged tenth as it were. Just now he is living in a villa within a hundred miles of this city, enjoying himself and awaiting the outcome of the suit which he has brought against the superintendent of banks and the Carnegie Trust company for an accounting of something like $2,-000,000, that being the value of property in France which he alleges the trust company was to dispose of for

The sult brought by Jacques Prepowers to recognize his claims, determined to seek an asylum in the long time. United States. Because of the treatment of some of his men France had become uncomfortable for him. In September, 1908, he issued a proclaabroad and which was the forerunner of his present suit.

It was after this proclamation that the emperor says he turned over the company which he is now suing. It is almost needless to say that his claim has been disputed by the receiver and the banking department.

Just why Lebaudy, after entertaining Europe with his escapades and playing the role of an opera bouffe monarch, should have elected to retire into seclusion has long been a mystery. Not even his friends of former days have known in recent years the residence of the emperor. While the former idler of the Paris boulevards is now seeking a fortune in the courts of this country, that does not mean that he is penniless. He yet has a large fortune. An investigation of the career of the exmonarch of the desert in this country revealed that at the time Mr. Harare convinced that instead of its being evidence of unusual business sagacity it was only another evidence of his eccentricities.

A brilliant and unique individual is this Frenchman, and he comes of an eccentric family. It is just about twenty years ago since he and his brother, Max, who was equally eccentric, inherited $15,000,000 each from their father, the French sugar king. The Parisian wits dubbed him at once 'The Little Sugar Bowl."

KANSAS DOG IN FREAK ACT

Canine Cares for White Chickens, but Balks on a Brood of Blacks.

Larned, Kan .- Martin Swift's white fox terrier has assisted him in caring for incubator chickens that have been hatched recently by climbing into the box where the chickens have riman was reported to be about to been put to keep warm and snugrehabilitate the Eric Lebaudy was gling up to them. Until yesterday shrewd enough to purchase a large all the feathered orphans were white. block of Erie shares at from $12 to Recently, however, a brood of black $15 a share, which he afterward dis- and speckled chicks was turned into posed of at from $30 to $35 a share. the box and the dog mother refused Friends who have since heard of this to have anything to do with them.

Farmer Well Paid For Work

Oregon Man Goes Trapping and Ex- the door of his house on the farm pects to Make $500 With Little Labor.

Klamath Falls Ore.-When R. S. Sparks walked down Main street fairly enveloped in pelts of wild animals he had caught and skinned, he attracted no little attention. He had fifteen unusually fine coyote pelts and mier, as he used to sign himself on five bobcat pelts strung on a circuhotel registers, is really an echo of lar wire, which rested on his shoulder his Saharan expedition. It was in like a yoke, and the skins hung down 1906 that Lebaudy, forced to aban- on all sides like a cape, nearly to the don his scheme of empire in the ground. It is the biggest and most desert owing to the refusal of the valuable catch of the kind brought to County Clerk Charles R. De Lap in a

The bounty collected from the clerk was at the rate of $1.50 for the coyote skins and $2 for the hides of the bobcats. In addition to the total bounty mation offering his French property of $33.50, he will get anywhere from for sale, signed by his imperial hand $4 to $8 apiece for the skins. As a which was sent to leading bankers rule, coyote skins bring less than those of bobcats, but this winter they are slightly higher.

Sparks places his traps on hilly places where he can see them from his relatives live in Ireland.

about two and one-half miles from Bonanza, and before breakfast looks out to see if there is a catch. He says the trapping has not taken two hours' time from his farm labor all season. He expects to devote his time exclusively to trapping instead of farming next winter, expecting to make more than by agriculture.

With a dozen traps, Sparks declares that in a winter he can easily clear

Sheriff Prevents Wedding

marry by the girl's parents, Daniel Lewis, 19, and Ethel Smith, 16, eloped, They were pursued 20 miles by the sheriff who prevented the marriage and arrested Lewis.

Left Estate Worth $30,000. Woodside, N. Y .- Investigation of the accounts of Daniel Creedon who lived in an old windmill, showed that he left an estate worth $30,000. All

Tires Of Her Affinity

Was Separated From Prince Because of Escapade With Tutor-Afterwards Married a Musician-Now Seeks to Be Free.

Rome -The trial of the suit of the Countess Montignoso, formerly crown princess of Saxony, for a legal separation from her husband, Enrico Toselli, was begun here and promises to be replete with sensations. In her petition the former princess accuses Signor Toselli with having misappropriated money and jewelry belonging to her in order to lead a vicious, lazy that during her absence Toselli invited women to their villa, decked them out in her finery, and afterward openly escorted them through the streets of Florence.

Signor Toselli has made no public his friends declare that many of the 10,000 LOONS TAKE WING!

Mobilization and Flight of Birds From

California to North Rare

San Diego, Cal.-The first sign of spring was evident on San Diego bay

a few days ago when a flock of loons, estimated to have numbered 10,000, mobilized on the surface of the water and maneuvered to the weird calls of their leaders until their formation

Then, at a signal, the feathered vis-

To Have Aerial Line. mapolis, ind.—Capital as irigible balloon passenger in this city, Chicago, Loui vigorous defense. It is hinted also that he will bring serious counter charges against his wife, the former princess.

Princess Louise, or the Countes Montignoso, first came into notoriety in 1902, when she disappeared from the court of Dresden and was not lo cated for several days, when she was found at Geneva in company with M. Giron, a former tutor of her children, who had been ordered out of Saxony on account of his attentions to the princess. It was said that the married life of the crown princess and her husband had been very unhappy and immoral life, and further alleges on account of the prince's conduct, but King George insisted that his son should get a divorce, which was granted on February 11, 1903.

The princess and Giron at first seemed to be very happy, going from Signor Toselli has made no public Geneva to Mentone. Then came the statement in regard to the suit, but serious illness of Prince Christian, the eldest child of Crown Prince Fredaccusations made against him are crick and Princess Louise, and the criticised the singing, and calse, and he is expected to make a mother agreed to part with Giron if them after service to practice allowed to see her son. This was refused, but Louise did not go back to Giron.

After her flight Louise assumed the title of Countess Montignoso, and was granted an income of $7,500 a year from her former husband. The countess then came to Italy, where he had an affair with the Marquis Guiccardini, which caused the latter's wife to leave him and sue for divorce. Louise next met Signor Toselli, who was a music teacher with a very modest income. They eloped to London, where they were married in 1907.

The pair have not lived together for nearly two years, but not until recently were any steps taken looking to a legal separation. The fact that the countess now seeks her freedom has given rise to a report that she has another matrimonial venture in view and consequently desires to rid herself of the Italian planist.

Choir Goes on Strike. London.-The church choir at Grims by went on strike because the rector criticised the singing, and detained

Girl Who Likes Ghosts

But Some of Them Are Sporty, Concludes Wellesley Girl Fancier of Spooks.

Wellesley.-Miss Agnes Rockwell, a senior at Wellestey college, has ac-quired a wholesome sympathy for ghosts, not the kind that walks on Saturday, but the sort that plays havoc with one's spinal cord.

She says they are much abused and She says they are much abused and are really good and not bad. She knew a ghost once, she declares, that of a favorite black cat. Her nurse, so she says, "in common with many other distinguished people, held the fallacy that ghosts are horrible creatures and that every man's hands should be against them."

"A most flagrant instance of the mishandling of ghosts in fiction has driven me to take up my pen in their defense." she continued. "It must ure of the insatiate novel reader, nonare so abused and mistreated as the ghosts. "The finest specimens of ghosts and in my opinion the only really au thentic ones, flourish in England. At other ghosts are sports."

Hound Song Written in 1499. Baltimore, Md.—It is claimed here that the "Houn' Dawg" song is not a Missourt creation but was written in Germany in 1499.

Gets $17,000 for Phone Device. Worcester, Mass.—Philip Lavery, 2 mill worker, received $17,000 for a vention which prevents a third pe of from overhearing conversations.

re Tatt 62.50 for a 81 ago - W. C. Griffin, 14, editor of come American Golfer, has offer resident Taft $2.50 for a gold

THE KITCHEN

When unexpected company arrives and a meal must be furnished in a short time, it is well to have for such occasion a shelf of foods that can be quickly prepared. One may can at home chicken or sausages and other meats, which can be quickly reheated

EMERGENCY DISHES.

The soups, canned and in tablet form are easily available, and a salad of apples and nuts is one of the materials which are usually in the store-

A dessert may be of cakes or cookies with a dish of preserves, or a pudding can be made and steamed in twenty minutes, served with a sauce made from the juice of the fruit used in it. For example, a most delicious little steamed pudding steamed in cups is made as follows:

Sift a cup of flour with two tea-spoonfuls of baking powder and a little salt; mix with rich cream to make a soft dough; drop a little in greased cups, add a tablespoonful of canned cherries and another spoonful of dough. Steam for fifteen minutes, setting the cups into boiling water and conics were thrown out of the winkeeping them closely covered. sauce made of the cherry juice thickened and a little butter added for richness is very good, or cream is better. Remove the puddings as soon as done, for longer boiling makes them soggy.

The serving and service of a meal is fully as important as the food provided. An elaborate meal put on to the table without rhyme or reason is not nearly so pleasing as a simple meal well served by a calm and happy

Cold meats, like roast of beef, may be quickly served if one has at hand some of the good sauces to use as a garnish and seasoning for them.

A tomator or two or a can of tomatoes seasoned with onion, pepper and a little green or canned red pepper, a bit of parsley, made hot with cayenne and poured over nicely sliced beef and allowed to simmer with it gently for fifteen minutes is a dish fit to serve before a politician.

Pickles, peanuts and green peas served on slices of orange (peel and all), make a most attractive looking salad and taste as well.

MAPLE SUGAR DAINTIES.

This is the time when we are ready Kenton, O.-Denied permission to to enjoy the fresh product of the maple tree. There are many delicious desserts, candles and other dishes which may be prepared with maple sirup and sugar.

Delicious rolls are made of ordinary baking powder biscult mixture, rolled and spread with butter, grated maple sugar and chopped nuts, then rolled and cut in pinwheel biscuit. The sugar makes a delicious sauce for them. They may be served hot with cream as a dessert, if so desired.

Sandwiches spread with maple sugar and chopped nuts are greatly liked as a variety.

Maple Parfait.—This is a delicious frozen dish. Use a cup of maple strup and the yolks of four eggs, cooked until smooth; a pinch of salt and a pint of good rich cream, freeze. Serve in sherbet cups with maple sirup sauce and chopped nuts if one likes, yet the plain sherbet is plenty rich enough.

Popcorn Pudding and Maple Sirup. Scald three cups of milk and pour It over two cups of popped corn, which has been pounded. Let stand an hour, then add three eggs slightly beaten one-half cup of maple sirup, one tablespoon of butter and three-fourths of a teaspoon of salt.

Stir together until well mixed and bake in a slow oven thirty-five minutes, or until firm. Serve hot with maple sirup.

Bonnie Clabber-Scald and set away a quart of new milk in a pretty serving dish until it thickens. Before serving set on ice to chill, and use care to keep it from breaking when taken to the table. Serve with grated maple sugars This is a delicious sum-

IS IT FOOD OR DRUGS?

Housekeepers are beginning to realize that cheating the grocer and the butcher increases the druggists' bill.

Fox Climbed to Roof of Barn.

to dose the little people with drugs when they are troubled with constipation, for there are so many good fruits like figs, prunes, apples and oranges; but these are staples which must be of first quality. When we buy cheap food it need not be poor food. The woman who kets are watched. It is not necessary

Many of the illnesses of the body are pays twenty and twenty-five cents for a package of breakfast food which could be bought for two or three cents is not a good manager. Whole wheat right from the farm may be bought for two or three cents a pound, and there is as much of good wholeso food in it as in a bought package, if it is well cooked and served in as dainty a manner. Of course the cooking takes time and fuel, but it may be done in a fireless cooker or at a time when the fire is kept up for a long time for other things. There are some women, we hope not nany, who have so much leisure that they get little exercise, and in consequence are always ailing and taking drugs for some fancled illness. If A dow and that same window left open for the pure sweet air to purify the room at night, health would stay. A woman with a hobby, something to take her out of doors, will not need a tonic to keep her well. Bees and birds, chickens, and if ne can work a garden, are all fine outdoor medicines. There will always be enough demand for the family doctor, and we wouldn't do without him, but we need to keep our bodies in condition with less of drugs to disorder the functions.

I'll tell you the loveliest game in the something for somebody quick.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

A delicious and simple dessert when one is hurried is to prepare a rich biscult dough cut in strips the size of the little finger, place in a buttered pan, sprinkle with nutmeg, add three tablespoonfuls of butter and a cup of maple sirup, bake in a moderate oven. and when half done add boiling water to make a thick sauce and finish baking. To be eaten hot with cream.

You will surely want more. Pláin vanilla ice cream becomes a fancy dish by serving it in sherbet cups, sprinkle generously with chopped pecan meats and pour over hot maple sirup. Maple Cream of Wheat,-To prepare the maple cream, add a cupful of thick cream and a half cup of maple sirup and whip until stiff. To prepare the wheat, clean and wash a cup of whole wheat, right from the farm; soak over night, and cook five or six hours in a fireless or double boiler until tender. Salt while cooking. Now to the cream prepared as above, add two cups of nicely cooked wheat; after it has cooled beat together and serve with apple jelly.

Frozen Fruit Cream .- Take a pint of cream and a cup of milk, a cup of maple sirup and half a cupful each of chopped figs, almonds and a can of peaches. Put through a sieve, a teaspoonful each of extract of orange, vanilla and coffee. Mix well before putting into a freezer.

Maple Taffy.-To two cups of maple sirup add a cup of cocoanut milk. Cook until it hardens in water, then pull when cool enough.

Nelli Maxwell.

Sees Evil In Utopian Schemes. That in the holding of private property there be inequality is a fact that is inevitable. Men are not and never will be equal in the power that builds up property, in the sacrifice of self and the economy that preserve and increase it, hence they will never be equal in the amount of property that they do or can possess. The preaching of utopias in remedy of this inequality, the proposal of schemes that ignore the nature of men and the vital conditions of human society, are an insult no less than an injury to the individual whom they fain would be-guile by their will-o-the-wisp glamour and deception.—Archbishop Ireland.

Cover One Section Well.

If you wished to get the biggest harvest you would not blow seed to the winds thinly scattered over the country. You would plant it regularly and try. You would plant it regularly and systematically in a section no larger than you could have properly watched and cultivated. It is just so in advertising. The use of so-called "national mediums" of general circulation, in scattering your seed too thinly over too great a territory.—The Daily Club.

Fox Climbed to Roof of Barn.

A fox, hard pressed by the Blencathra (Eng.) hounds, Cumberland, at a recent meet, climbed a two-story barn at a farm at the foot of Skiddaw, taking refuge on the roof. From this coign of vantage, and in full view of the field, numbering some hundreds, he watched intently the afforts made to dislodge him. A terrier was put on the roof, but the fox played hide and seek with him; it was only when a young man climbed up a rope thrown over the gable that he slipped "As we journey through life we gradually learn a few things."

For instance?"

"The man who hopes to essert his individuality by wearing loud tice and noisy socks is simply wasting time."

down the face of the wall in squirrel fashion, and, alighting, fell to the clamorous bounds.

Any her can lay a golden over